Redzel (Snitzel) is unlikely to travel overseas and instead will be aimed at back-to-back wins in The Everest (1200m) after adding the Darley Classic (registered as VRC Stakes) (Gr 1, 1200m) to his impressive record at Flemington yesterday.

The Peter and Paul Snowden-trained sprinter, who won the G H Mumm Stakes (Listed, 1000m) at Flemington 12 months ago, made it six victories in succession and second at Group One level with a dominant all-the-way performance down the straight course.

<< Continued from page 1 Redzel ($4), a five-year-old gelding who was ridden by Kerrin McEvoy, defeated veteran sprinter Terravista (Captain Rio) ($31) by three quarters of a length, with the James Cummings-trained Stradbroke Handicap (Gr 1, 1350m) winner Impending (Lonhro) ($9.50) in third.

The well-supported Chautauqua (Encosta De Lago) ($4.80) made up ground to finish fourth on the grandstand side of the straight, as did the first three across the line.

Peter Snowden was left in no doubt that Redzel, who ran 1:08.74 seconds with his last 600 metres in 33.21 seconds yesterday, was Australia's premier sprinter after yesterday's success.

Peter Snowden

SPORTPIX

"I thought he did that in the Everest and the hype around was that he needed to prove himself again, and that's what this horse keeps doing," Snowden said.

"He keeps stepping up and keeps proving all the doubters wrong.

"He keeps getting it done by a professional performance. He jumped, led, showed sustained speed and just finished it right off. It was a dominant win again."

McEvoy also said Redzel, the jockey's 64th Group One winner, had developed into the best older sprinter he had ridden.

"He is an unassuming horse, it's surprised us where he has got to but he has taken it all before him and racing in great heart," McEvoy said.

"His record is fantastic, he keeps getting better and better and that's all due to the fact of the Snowdens and the Triple Crown boys are patient and reaping the rewards now.

"He has got a good cruising speed, he was nice through the first furlong and then we were going good fractions from the 900 metres onwards and then we pushed the button at the 400 metres and he was too strong for them again.

"He is a great little horse, I'm rapt to be a part of his career, his last win was fantastic and this is great to bring him here during the big week and get a win."

It was the second time the Joe Pride-trained Terravista, who won the Darley Classic in 2014, has been placed in the $1,000,000 sprint, having run third in the same race in 2015.

"He ran terrific. I had a bit to do with him at home the past few mornings, Joe put the blinkers on him and it definitely turned him around today," jockey Brenton Avdulla said.

Earlier in the day, Manikato Stakes runner-up In Her Time (Time Thief) was scratched by trainer Ben Smith after the five-year-old mare failed to recover from a bruised heel sustained at her last start. Corey Brown, who was booked to ride In Her Time, picked up the mount on Impending.

Dwayne Dunn said the Team Hawkes-trained Chautauqua also said the tempo played against the backmarker.

"He travelled well, but he didn't have that customary sprint and he just battled it out to the line," Dunn said.

Redzel (5 g Snitzel - Millrich by Rubiton) has won 11 of his 21 starts with prize money earnings of $7,797,750 including wins in The Everest, the Doomben 10,000 (Gr 1, 1200m) and The Shorts (Gr 2, 1100m).

Redzel was bought by Marquee Stud for $45,000 at the 2013 Inglis Australian Weanling Sale before being subsequently sold for $120,000 at 2014 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale to Triple Crown Syndications.

He is out of Sweet Embrace Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) winner and Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) third Millrich (Rubiton). Millrich has produced nine foals to race for seven winners, making Redzel a half-brother to Group Three-winning stallion Danerich (Danehill). Rich Charm, a son of Danerich, won the Linlithgow Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) at Flemington on 4 November.

Redzel's second dam is the three-time winner Mill Rani (Millionaire), the dam of eight winners and the grand dam of the Group One-placed sire El Roca (Fastnet Rock). Millrich died in 2012 and Redzel was her final foal.

Tosen Stardom (Deep Impact) yesterday produced a dynamic late burst of speed to take out the $2,000,000 Emirates Stakes (registered as LKS Mackinnon Stakes) (Gr 1, 2000m) at Flemington, the Japanese import's second Group One victory in Australia.

The Darren Weir-trained seven-year-old stallion, who broke through for his first Australian victory in the Toorak Handicap (Gr 1, 1600m) last month, has put a frustrating 12 months behind him with two wins at the elite level this spring.

Ridden by Damian Lane, Tosen Stardom ($6.50) was victorious in the Emirates Stakes by a length and a half from Happy Clappy (Teofilo) ($8) with It's Somewhat (Dynaformer) ($18) a short-neck away third.

Weir was a relieved man yesterday, having always maintained the Australian Bloodstock-owned stallion had more ability than his record suggested.

"I was worried we wouldn't see the best of him but we have today. That was the real Tosen Stardom," Weir said.

Lane said Tosen Stardom almost added another hard luck story yesterday.

"I had one run close on me, it really stopped my momentum and to switch across heels and still win was just massive," Lane said.

Tosen Stardom joined Weir's stable prior to the 2016 spring carnival, running an eye-catching fourth in the Dato' Tan Chin Nam Stakes (Gr 2, 1600m) before a setback ended a planned tilt at the Epsom Handicap (Gr 1, 1600m).

"We ran him at Moonee Valley and he ran great and put him on the float to go to Sydney and he cut his leg," Weir said.

"Everything that could go wrong with the horse went wrong. They were never serious problems, it wasn't a knee, a fetlock or a tendon or gone in the wind, they were niggling problems."

This campaign, Tosen Stardom has enjoyed a trouble-free campaign, enabling Weir to plan the stallion's preparation and race him into fitness has brought the best out in the horse.

"Racing him fortnight, fortnight, fortnight and being able to back-up after a softish run last week held him in great shape for today," he said.

Weir said Tosen Stardom would be spelled, with the $4,000,000 ATC Queen Elizabeth Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) at Randwick in the autumn a possible target.

Gingernuts (Iffraaj) was a shock late scratching from the Emirates Stakes behind the barriers after being found to be lame in the near side front leg after cantering to the gates. His leg was bandaged and floated back to the mounting yard, forcing a significant delay to the start of the race.

Late yesterday, Racing Victoria stewards said Gingernuts had suffered a fractured near fore pastern and would undergo surgery. The injury is believed to be non-life-threatening, with jockey Michael Dee dismounting when becoming concerned with the horse's action.

"I definitely felt it happen so straight away I pulled him up and got off as quickly as I could," Dee said.

"It's very unfortunate for the connections and not very nice to happen to the horse."

Tosen Stardom

SPORTPIX

Jockey Blake Shinn, who rode Happy Clapper to win the Epsom Handicap on 30 September, said the Pat Webster-trained seven-year-old had run a strong race but could not match Tosen Stardom.

"He hit the line strongly. The winner got just a bit better run through, but full credit to him, he's backed up again and ran a good race," Shinn said.

Webster admitted he did not see Happy Clapper finished second in the Emirates Stakes after one of Gingernuts' owners fell ill, leaving the trainer to provide first aid. The owner was said to have recovered and did not require hospitalisation.

The Charlie Appleby-trained Folkswood (Exceed And Excel), who won the Cranbourne Cup (Llisted, 2025m) and ran third in the Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m), was caught wide early in the Group One, eventually finishing fifth.

"He was parked there on the outside of the leading two. He was headed at the 400 metres, but he actually regained momentum and got going the last furlong, so he's run a good race," Folkswood's jockey Kerrin McEvoy said.

Meanwhile, Tosen Stardom (7 h Deep Impact - Admire Kirameki by End Sweep), a dual Group Three winner in Japan, has now won seven of his 25 starts, with two Group One victories in Australia along with four placings for prize money of $3,347,526.

Tosen Stardom is one of three winners from five to race out of the juvenile-winning Admire Kirameki (End Sweep), herself a half-sister to Group One winner Tosen Jordan (Jungle Pocket), Group Two winner Tosen Homareboshi (Deep Impact), the Graded-placed Dark Message (Dance In The Dark) and Careless Whisper (Fuji Kiseki).

His third dam, the Listed winner Crafty Wife (Crafty Prospector), is the dam of 13 foals to race for 12 winners including stakes winners Big Shori (Northern Taste), Battle Banyan (Jungle Pocket) and Spicule (Sunday Silence). Tosen Stardom is one of the Shadai Stallion Station-based Deep Impact's 32 Group One winners. Two of his other Group One winners, Mikki Isle and Real Impact, are standing at Arrowfield Stud this year.

Savapinski a shining light for Waterhouse and Bott in Matriarch Stakes

Savapinski

SPORTPIX

Lightly raced mare Savapinski (Savabeel) has capped a remarkable Flemington carnival for co-trainers Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott, with the four-year-old securing a valuable stakes win in the Matriarch Stakes (Gr 2, 2000m).

Ridden by Brenton Avdulla, Savapinski was well supported yesterday from $5.50 to $4.80 before winning by two and three quarter lengths from Payroll (Not A Single Doubt) ($10) with Token Of Love (Al Maher) ($21) a length away in third.

The victory provided the Waterhouse and Bott stable with their fifth win for the carnival, all in stakes races, with a winner on each of the four days at Flemington.

Cismontane (High Chaparral) started the ball rolling in the Lexus Stakes (registered as Hotham Handicap) (Gr 2, 2500m) last Saturday before a double on Tuesday with Setsuna (Choisir), in the Ottawa Stakes (Gr 3, 1000m) and Our Crown Mistress (Star Witness) in the Lexus Hybrid Plate (Listed, 1400m).

Pinot (Pierro) also won the VRC Oaks (Gr 1, 2500m) at Flemington on Thursday, delivering Waterhouse and Bott their first win in the three-year-old fillies Group One feature race.

"She's a mare on the rise," Waterhouse said.

"I just felt this race would be a nice target which I've had for her for a while and I thought she'd be hard to beat. I knew if she used her speed they would not run her down.

"She just skipped away from them. She was like a little bunny rabbit."

Avdulla said he gained confidence knowing Savapinski would be fit for the Matriarch Stakes and that she would appreciate the step up in distance.

The jockey had previously ridden her to successes on the New South Wales provincial circuit.

"She's so tough and honest and I just let her run," Avdulla said.

"Gai and Adrian's horses are flying at the moment and that gives you the confidence to ride them like fit horses and she wasn't going to stop.

"It's her first preparation and there's still plenty of improvement to come."

Savapinski, who won her first start in a maiden at Newcastle on the Beaumont circuit in March, has progressed from a Wyong Class One (1600m) victory on 27 August to winning a Group Two race yesterday.

Waterhouse and Bott also won a Class Two (1600m) race at Hawkesbury with her in September before being tested in stakes class at Randwick on 7 October. Up against Group One-performed mares Dixie Blossoms (Street Sense) and Daysee Doom (Domesday), Savapinski finished fourth, beaten three and a quarter lengths in the Angst Stakes (Gr 3, 1600m) at Randwick.

In two starts in Melbourne, Savapinski was runner-up to Lubiton (Snitzel) in the Tesio Stakes (Gr 3, 1600m) at Moonee Valley on 28 October before an all-the-way win in the $300,000 race.

"I won on her at Hawkesbury one day, and I said to them, 'she won't be at her peak until 2000 metres'," Avdulla said.

"They kept holding her back, hasn't got to 2000 metres yet, but they obviously had her set for grand final day today, maybe about two months ago, they had her prepped ready to go today.

"She lacks a turn of foot, but as Gai always used to tell me, she's had plenty of good horses that were one-paced, and classic example is this little girl."

Purchased by Dynamic Syndications and Waterhouse at the 2015 New Zealand Bloodstock Select Yearling Sale, Savapinski (4 m Savabeel - Swarovski by Pins) has now won four of her seven starts including yesterday's Group Two victory for prize money earnings of $267,880.

Savapinski is a daughter of the unraced mare Swarovski (Pins) who is a three-quarter sister to the Group Three-placed Glintz (Pins) and a half-sister to Listed winner Glitzy (O'Reilly). Swarovski is also a half-sister to the stakes-placed Samburu (O'Reilly), while she is the dam of two winning foals, Savapinski and the stakes-placed Multifacets (O'Reilly).

Savapinski, whose sire Savabeel (Zabeel) was raced by Dynamic Syndications before retiring to New Zealand's Waikato Stud to become a champion stallion, is also from the same family as New Zealand Group Three winner Irish Flirt (McGinty), who is a daughter of her third dam Our Sovereign (Gold Sovereign). Perth stakes winners O'Flirty (O'Reilly) and McFlirt (Kaaestad) also hail from the same family.

Swarovski has a two-year-old filly by O'Reilly (Last Tycoon) and was due to foal this year to Waikato Stud-based Sacred Falls (O'Reilly) after slipping to the same stallion the previous year.

Savabeel, who also sired New Zealand Two Thousand Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) winner Embellish yesterday, has 69 individual stakes winners and is currently leading Iffraaj (Zafonic) in the 2017-2018 New Zealand general sires table.

Makfi colt Run Naan takes out Maribyrnong Plate

Run Naan (Makfi) has continued trainer Tony McEvoy's early season two-year-old success with an impressive come-from-behind win the $150,000 Maribyrnong Stakes (Gr 3, 1000m) at Flemington, setting him up for an autumn campaign aimed at richer prizes.

Stablemate Roobeena (Exceed And Excel), who is from the same family as Run Naan, finished second in Tuesday's Ottawa Stakes (Gr 3, 1000m).

Run Naan

SPORTPIX

Yesterday, the first start Bendigo two-year-old winner Run Naan ($13) defeated the James Cummings-trained Encryption (Lonhro) ($5.50) by a neck, with Belzella (Bel Esprit) ($9.50) another one and a half lengths away in third.

Belzella is also trained by McEvoy, who won last year's Maribyrnong Plate with Aspect (Pluck).

"He's a really good colt and I couldn't have been more impressed with him today," McEvoy said of Run Naan.

"I'll take him home now and sweeten him up and see what he can do in the autumn.

"It comes up pretty quickly but the beautiful thing now is I don't have to qualify him so I don't have to run him too early."

Andrew Mallyon, who also partnered Run Naan in his Bendigo win on 21 October, was again on board at Flemington.

"I've only ridden in this race twice, so I'm two for two," Mallyon said.

"It's just been a little while in between."

Mallyon won on General Truce (Brief Truce) in the 2009 Maribyrnong Plate and was having his only ride of this year's Flemington Melbourne Cup carnival yesterday.

He believes Run Naan has a bright future, having also won on the colt on debut at Bendigo at his only other start.

"He just gave me all the early signs that he was a nice two-year-old," Mallyon said.

McEvoy was also delighted with the effort of Bellzella, a homebred filly who secured a valuable Group Three placing at her first start.

Meanwhile, Run Naan (2 c Makfi - Raneen by Perfectly Ready), who came from last to win her first start at Bendigo, has earned $103,600 in prize money after yesterday's Group Three success.

Run Naan is the first named foal out of the unplaced Raneen (Perfectly Ready) who is a half-sister to dual South African Grade One winner Rumya (Red Ransom) and Edward Manifold Stakes (Gr 2, 1600m) winner Badawiya (Al Maher).

Run Naan's third dam is the unraced Felicitation (Danehill), who is the second dam of Listed winner Raihana (Elusive Quality) and the recently retired Group Three winner Rageese (Street Cry), who is standing at Windsor Park Stud in New Zealand. His fourth dam is the champion mare Emancipation (Bletchingly), who won 19 races including the Doncaster Handicap (Gr 1, 1600m).

Raneen's now yearling filly by Zoffany (Dansili) was sold for $5,500 at the Inglis Australian Weanling Sale earlier this year from the Coolmore Stud draft and is due to foal to Pride Of Dubai (Street Cry) this year.

Run Naan's sire Makfi (Dubawi) is now the sire of 20 individual stakes winners including this year's ATC Australian Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m) winner Bonneval and fellow Group One winners Make Believe, Sofia Rosa and Marky Mark.

Makfi, who stood at Westbury Stud in New Zealand, was last year sold to the Japan Bloodhorse Breeders' Association to continue his stud career.

Te Akau Racing toasts sixth New Zealand Guineas win with Embellish

Jockey Opie Bosson's decision to relinquish the ride on Gingernuts at Flemington to ride in the New Zealand Two Thousand Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) paid off when he partnered lightly raced three-year-old Embellish (Savabeel) to win the NZ$500,000 race.

One of three runners for Te Akau Racing trainers Stephen Autridge and Jamie Richards in the Two Thousand Guineas, Embellish ($3.70) defeated stablemate Age Of Fire (Fastnet Rock) ($18) by one and a quarter lengths.

The Tony Pike-trained Ever Loyal (Sebring) ($6) was another half length away in third, with the third Autridge and Richards-trained runner Te Akau Shark (Rip Van Winkle) ($5) running fourth.

Embellish, who was second at Eilerslie in April before being spelled with a three-year-old campaign in mind, resumed with a maiden victory at Ruakaka on 4 October before backing it up with a one and a quarter length victory at Trentham on 28 October.

A NZ$775,000 purchase at the 2016 New Zealand Bloodstock Premier Yearling Sale by Te Akau Racing principal David Ellis from the Waikato Stud draft, the colt was bought with a view of developing him into a stallion prospect.

"He's a very valuable colt and we would love to think that he will be standing at stud in the future," Ellis said.

Bosson, who had the choice of Te Akau Racing's three runners, said he had always been a fan of Embellish and was confident he had selected the right three-year-old for the Group One race.

The jockey was able to position Embellish third on the rails behind the leader Ever Loyal, who was ridden by Jason Waddell.

"I was in the perfect position and tracked Ever Loyal all the way and I knew I had him covered at the 600," Bosson said. Continued on page 7 >>

<< Continued from page 6 Bosson has now won the New Zealand Two Thousand Guineas seven times and it was the sixth for the powerful Te Akau Racing operation.

Co-trainer Richards, who was on hand for the Riccarton meeting with Autridge at Flemington, was delighted the stable was able to win the Group One race with an expensive colt.

"It's a stallion making race and this bloke has a top future," Richards said. "Opie gave him a super ride in the trail."

Richards said the stable's trio of three-year-olds all had talent and was reluctant to single out one horse pre-race.

"Everybody was asking me before the race which was the best one, but I couldn't tip one and all three have gone very well," Richards said.

"It's a great result for everyone, the staff here and at home and for David (Ellis), who bought all three horses."

Ellis said it was an achievement by the Te Akau Racing team to win the Guineas for the sixth time.

"This is one of the iconic races in New Zealand, and to have three runners in the race was a big thrill," Ellis said.

"To see all three run as they did was an amazing result for the staff that has been down here, in some cases for nearly three months. And I'm just so proud of the whole team, here and at home in Matamata.

"It can't get better than winning the Two Thousand Guineas for the sixth time, that's a huge thrill."

Gingernuts was a late scratching from the Emirates Stakes at Flemington after appearing to stumble while cantering to the barriers and pulling up lame.

Embellish (3 c Savabeel - Bling by O'Reilly) has now earned NZ$316,060 prize money from his three wins and one placing.

Embellish is a son of the unraced Bling (O'Reilly), herself a sister to the stakes-placed Irish Nova and a half-sister to Listed winner Plaudits (Danasinga), and is one of four winners out of the O'Reilly (Last Tycoon) mare.

Embellish is a brother to New Zealand Thoroughbred Breeders' Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) winner Diademe and the stakes-placed Deadly Shadow. He is also a half-brother to the Listed-placed Roop All (Pins).

He is also from the family of dual Group One winner Sacred Star

(Flying Spur), who is a son of Irish Nova, while further back in his pedigree are QTC Sires' Produce Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) winner Star Of The Knight (Sir Tristram), Group Three winner Starcent (Centaine), and ATC Gloaming Stakes (Gr 3, 1800m) winner Strike The Stars (Savabeel).

Embellish is the last foal out of Bling, who died while in foal to Pins (Snippets) before foaling in 2015.

Breeder Mark Chittick said yesterday's Group One victory was an emotional one as Waikato Stud had a long association with the colt's family.

"It all started 30 or 35 years when Garry bought his third dam Star of the Knight, by Sir Tristram, for NZ$250,000, in foal to Danzatore, which was a big, big deal for us," Chittick said.

"I remember when I was about 15 years old having to cut the foal out of her bit by bit because it was a dog-sitter (foal positioned similar to how a dog would sit)."

Embellish is one of 69 individual stakes winners and 14th Group One winners for his Waikato Stud-based, Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m) winning sire Savabeel (Zabeel), who stands for a fee of NZ$100,000 (plus GST). He also sired yesterday's Matriarch Stakes winner Savapinksi, who secured her first stakes victory yesterday.

Savabeel's other Group One winners include last Saturday's Myer Classic (registered as Empire Rose Stakes) (Gr 1, 1600m) winner Shillelagh, ATC Champagne Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) winner Pasadena Girl, Kawi and Lucia Valentina, both of whom are multiple winners at the elite level.

Chittick paid tribute to Ellis for his contribution to New Zealand racing.

"(Embellish) is the highest priced yearling we've ever sold and obviously there are expectations for a horse like that and for Te Akau to buy him, David and all his team that do such an incredible job, it's fantastic," Chittick said.

"You know, Savabeel is important for New Zealand, Waikato Stud is important for New Zealand, but David and Te Akau are so important for New Zealand, and to get results like that is what it's all about."

69 for Savabeel

The Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott-trained Savapinski (4 m ex Swarovski by Pins) took out the Matriarch Stakes (Gr 2, 2000m) at Flemington yesterday to provide Waikato Stud stallion Savabeel (Zabeel) with his 69th stakes winner. The lightly raced mare, who was second in the Tesio Stakes (Gr 3, 1600m) at Moonee Valley at her previous start, beat Payroll (Not A Single Doubt) by two and three quarter lengths, with Token Of Love (Al Maher) a further length adrift in third. Savabeel was crowned New Zealand champion sire for the third consecutive season in 2016-17 and is currently standing for NZ$100,000 (plus GST).

20 for Makfi

The Tony McEvoy-trained Run Naan (2 c ex Raneen by Perfectly Ready) won the Maribyrnong Plate (Gr 3, 1000m) at Flemington yesterday to provide Makfi (Dubawi) with his 20th individual stakes winner. The colt, who is raced by Sheikh Mohammed Bin Khalifa Al Maktoum, beat the James Cummings-trained Encryption (Lonhro) by a neck under Andrew Mallyon, with McEvoy's Belzella (Bel Esprit) a further length and a half behind in third. Former Westbury Stud shuttler Makfi was sold to the Japan Bloodhorse Breeders' Association to stand there last year.

Vengeur Masque takes out Queen Elizabeth

Vengeur Masque (6 g Monsun - Venetian Beauty by Lear Fan) missed out on a start in the Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) on Tuesday but gained compensation when landing VRC Queen Elizabeth Stakes (Gr 3, 2600m) at Flemington yesterday. The Michael Moroney-trained six-year-old, who was narrowly beaten in the Lexus Stakes (registered as Hotham Handicap) (Gr

3, 2500m) last weekend when trying to gain a start in the $6,000,000 showpiece, beat Grey Lion (Galileo) by three quarters of a length under Patrick Moloney, with Wheal Leisure (Artie Schiller) a further half a length behind in third.

Moroney looking forward to next Melbourne Cup

Michael Moroney is still feeling disappointment that Vengeur Masque missed the Melbourne Cup earlier this week, but he is looking forward to targeting the race next spring with the progressive six-year-old. "The disappointment for us is that we didn't make the Melbourne Cup," Moroney said. "I really felt it was the first of probably the next two years that he was going to be a Melbourne Cup chance. I felt he would have really run well but we just missed out. He's just got stronger this year and he'll get better. I think next year he's going to be better again."

Appleby announces Qewy retirement

The Charlie Appleby-trained and Godolphin-raced Qewy (Street Cry) has been retired after finishing sixth in the VRC Queen Elizabeth Stakes at Flemington yesterday. The eight-year-old gelding, who won his third stakes race in Australia when landing the Bendigo Cup (Gr 3, 2400m) on 1 November, was beaten around seven lengths in the $300,000 Group Three. "We are delighted with the job he has done for us," Appleby said. "He has become a bit of a local favourite down here but he's done more than enough. We'll take him home with us and find him a nice home." Qewy won six of his 29 career starts for prize money earnings of $898,605.

Five for Pierro

Kentucky Breeze (3 g ex Tahni Girl by Redoute's Choice) won the Emirates Airline Handicap (registered as VRC Springtime Stakes) (Listed, 1400m) at Flemington yesterday to provide Coolmore stallion Pierro (Lonhro) with his fifth stakes winner. The Levi Kavanagh-trained gelding beat Muraaqeb (Snitzel) by a head under jockey Corey Brown, with the same distance back to Sirconni (Nicconi) in third place. Pierro was champion first season sire in Australia by earnings last season and he is currently standing for a fee of $49,500 (inc GST).

Gelding operation proves key for Breeze

Flemington-based Levi Kavanagh said the decision to geld the unbeaten Kentucky Breeze was helping the promising three-year-old fulfil his potential on the track. "He was a mad colt at the time so I took him back to our farm, ended up gelding him and he relaxed really nicely," Kavanagh said. "The guys have been patient and now he's won two from two and he's a stakes winner so it's all working out well. I've only been training a couple of years. I've only purchased three horses from the sales so far, one is a city winner, one is this one and the other is showing plenty of promise."

Fastnet Tempest to stay in Australia

The OTI Racing-owned Fastnet Tempest (Fastnet Rock) will remain in Australia and continue his career with Lindsay Park. The gelding took out the Melbourne's Own 3AW Trophy (1600m) at Flemington yesterday to give British trainer William Haggas his first winner in Australia, and he could have his final start for the trainer in the Eclipse Stakes (Gr 3, 1800m) at Sandown Hillside next weekend. "It's great for William Haggas, this is his first win in Australia," OTI's Terry Henderson said. "And young Michael Kent has done a terrific job bringing this horse through quarantine. They all should be congratulated."

Country Cups for Oncidium Ruler

Trainer Michael Kent is planning a country Cups campaign for Oncidium Ruler (Strategic) after the gelding won the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation Plate (2000m) at Flemington yesterday. The six-year-old beat Knowable (Hinchinbrook) by a long neck in the $120,000 race and could tackle the Ballarat Cup (Listed, 2200m) and Pakenham Cup (registered as Werribee Cup) (Listed, 2500m) in the coming weeks. "The race that will really suit is the Pakenham Cup which is two weeks after Ballarat," Kent said. "It's 2500 (metres) on a beautiful big sweeping track which would suit him right down to the ground."

Four jockeys suspended at Flemington

Dwayne Dunn, Katelyn Mallyon, Kerrin McEvoy and Ben Melham were each handed suspensions at Flemington yesterday. Dunn was handed a 14-meeting suspension for two separate careless riding offences, including one for his ride aboard Chautauqua (Encosta De Lago) in the Darley Classic (registered as VRC Stakes) (Gr 1, 1200m). Mallyon was suspended for 11 meetings for careless riding, while McEvoy received eight meetings for the same offence. Melham was suspended for eight meetings for breaching whip rules aboard The Taj Mahal (Galileo) in the Emirates Stakes (registered as LKS Mackinnon Stakes) (Gr 1, 2000m).

Winx could make European debut in Lockinge

Champion mare Winx (Street Cry) could commence a European campaign in the Lockinge Stakes (Gr 1, 1m) at Newbury in May next year. Nick Smith, Ascot's director of racing, has laid out several options to Chris Waller for Winx's route through to Royal Ascot, and she could potentially run in the Lockinge as a stepping stone to the Queen Anne Stakes (Gr 1, 1m). "The bottom line is if they come, and they decide to have a prep race, the Lockinge is of significant interest as it is run on a straight track which would give her experience before Royal Ascot," Smith told the Racing Post. "Chris Waller was particularly interested in that."

Silverstream takes out Lee Steere Stakes

The Adam Durrant-trained Silverstream (6 m Al Maher - Speedy Bell by Brocco) flew home late to win the Lee Steere Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) at Ascot yesterday. The in-form six-year-old mare, who won the Northerly Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) at her previous start, produced a stunning late finishing kick to run down Great Shot (Magnus) by a head in the final strides to lift the $250,000 Group Two. The odds-on favourite Scales Of Justice (Not A Single Doubt) was keen in the early stages and, having held every chance in the straight, finished a close third.

Railway Stakes next for Silverstream

Co-owner Bob Peters was pleased with the victory of Silverstream in the Lee Steere Stakes at Ascot yesterday, and he confirmed that the mare was likely to head to the Railway Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) at Ascot on 25 November next up. "I think a couple of the others pulled themselves undone which helped us," Peters said. "(The Railway) is the way she is going to go now. She had a go at the mares last year. She is six now and hasn't got long to go, so we will have a try."

34 for Al Maher

The Daniel and Ben Pearce-trained Money Maher (3 c ex Treasury Notes by Special Bond) took out the Fairetha Stakes (Listed, 1400m) at Ascot yesterday to provide Al Maher (Danehill) with his 34th stakes winner. The colt, who was third in the WA Sires' Produce Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) as a juvenile, beat Achernar Star (Gingerbread Man) by two lengths under Jarrad Noske, with Reykjavik (Artie Schiller) a further three quarters of a length behind in third place. Al Maher is standing at Emirates Park under the Aquis Farm banner for a fee of $13,200 (inc GST).

Gatting returns to form

The Darren McAuliffe-trained Gatting (4 g Hard Spun - Stubborn by Lonhro) regained the winning thread at Ascot yesterday when landing the Ascot Gold Cup (Listed, 1800m). The four-year-old, who ran out a commanding winner of the WATC Derby (Gr 2, 2400m) at Ascot in April, beat Dark Alert (Testa Rossa) by half a length under William Pike in the $100,000 race, with Ihtsahymn (Ihtiram) a further neck behind in third place. Gatting will now head towards the $1,000,000 Railway Stakes at Ascot in two weeks' time.

Promising start for Dynamited

The Godolphin-raced two-year-old Dynamited (Exceed And Excel) made an impressive winning debut over 1100 metres at Rosehill yesterday. The colt, who was third in a Warwick Farm barrier trial last month, showed his inexperience before the race but finished strongly to beat Secret Lady (Choisir) by half a length under Tye Angland. "He was a bit hot-headed in the stalls, that's why he had two handlers," said Godolphin stable representative Nacim Dilmi. "He's going to learn a lot from that race. He'll be better behaved when he has his next start."

Bon Amis remains unbeaten

Four-year-old sprinter Bon Amis (Bon Hoffa) stretched his unbeaten record to four when successful at Rosehill yesterday in a Benchmark 75 Handicap (1100m). Trained at Newcastle by Jason Deamer, Bon Amis was having his first test at metropolitan level but proved too strong after being backed from as much as $1.75 into $1.30 favourite. Ridden by Rory Hutchings, Bon Amis defeated Blowing Kisses (Redoute's Choice) by one and three quarters of a length, with Magicaz (Magic Albert) and Curdled (All Too Hard) dead-heating for third. "We've taken the easy steps, baby steps, to get here and today was the day that he had to really show up and put his foot down," Deamer said.

Spell for Unforgotten

Chris Waller has confirmed the progressive filly Unforgotten (Fastnet Rock) will head for a spell after she brought up a hat-trick at Rosehill yesterday. The three-year-old beat Cajetan (Pierro) by two and a half lengths over 1500 metres, and her trainer believes she will improve further in the autumn. "That'll be her last run for this prep. We'll give her a very short break and then back in for the autumn," Waller said. "Being by Fastnet Rock and out of a Galileo mare (Memories Of You), it's just a dominant cross. I think you'll see it come out in the autumn."

Vassal returns to form

Trainer Chris Waller has credited his new Gold Coast stable for the turnaround in form of stayer Vassal (Dansili), who broke through in a Benchmark 85 Handicap (2400m) at Rosehill yesterday. Ridden by Tye Angland, Vassal defeated Victorian-trained stayer Lycurgus (Star Witness) by a short head. "Travelling a horse to a different environment is the easiest way to keep them interested," Waller said. "The team did a great job with him, sending him down in such good condition." Waller said Vassal, who relocated to the Gold Coast three months ago, will now be aimed at a similar staying test. "He's been racing well, he's a fit horse. It was a perfect ride," Waller said. "It was a good fight, it's the best I've seen him fight for a long time."

Munce delivers on call with Dazzling Red

Trainer Chris Munce's promise to Singapore-based owner Melvin Foo that he would win a Saturday race with Dazzling Red (Red Dazzler) was honoured at Doomben yesterday. Dazzling Red stormed home under Jeff Lloyd to beat the favourite Miss Exfactor (Your Song) by three quarters of a length in the Broncos Superstore Handicap (1200m). "He ran a fast time when he won at the Gold Coast and fast time again at Beaudesert. He is really on the improve," Munce said. "I told Mr Foo that I would win a Saturday race with Dazzling Red and I don't think he believed me."

Moor receives whip breach ban

Daniel Moor has been suspended for his overuse of the whip after his mount was narrowly beaten at Rosehill. Moor was found guilty of striking Lycurgus 14 times before the 100 metres, nine more than he is allowed. The Victorian jockey will start his suspension on Wednesday and he will be out of the saddle until 29 November. Lycurgus, a $4.20 chance, was beaten a short head by Vassal in the 2400 metres race. Apprentice jockey Blaike McDougall was also suspended for four meetings after pleading guilty to careless riding on Wildflower (Magnus) in the Highway Handicap (1400m) at Rosehill.

Carnival crowd better than expected

The four-day Flemington carnival attracted a crowd of more than 310,000 people, a higher attendance than anticipated by the Victoria Racing Club (VRC). The VRC is currently undertaking renovations to a grandstand at Flemington, which led officials to believe attendances could fall by ten per cent on last year's figure of 319,000. The Melbourne Cup day crowd fell by 9,000 people, but VRC chair Amanda Elliott was not fazed. "It was a very cold day. We budgeted for between five and ten per cent down and that was the day that probably hit those targets rather than the other days," Elliott said. "Oaks day was actually above last year's figures. We're not worried at all. They're still so far the four biggest days in Australia by a long shot."

New Zealand

14 Group One winners for Savabeel

Embellish's (3 c ex Bling by O'Reilly) victory in the New Zealand Two Thousand Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) yesterday provided Waikato Stud stallion Savabeel (Zabeel) with his 14th individual Group One winner. The Stephen Autridge and Jamie Richards-trained colt showed a smart change of gear under Opie Bosson to beat stablemate Age Of Fire (Fastnet Rock) by a length and a quarter, with Ever Loyal (Sebring) a further half a length behind in third place. Savabeel currently leads Iffraaj (Zafonic) at the head of the New Zealand general sires' standings by earnings with NZ$814,470 in prize money.

63 for Testa Rossa

The Michael and Matthew Pitman-trained Enzo's Lad (5 g ex Sheerama by Catbird) took out the Pegasus Handicap (Listed, 1000m) at Riccarton yesterday to provide his sire Testa Rossa (Perugino) with his 63rd stakes winner. The five-year-old, who was racing second up having run second over 1200 metres on his return at Riccarton on 28 October, beat Don Carlo (Per Incanto) by a length and a quarter in the NZ$50,000 sprint, with Signify (Perfectly Ready) a further head behind in third. Testa Rossa is standing at Vinery Stud for a fee of $16,500 (inc GST).

Nine for Alamosa

Aspen Lass (5 m ex Tief by Viking Ruler) ran out a convincing winner of the Redwood Metropolitan Trophy Handicap (Listed, 2500m) at Riccarton yesterday to provide Alamosa (O'Reilly) with his ninth stakes winner. The Terri Rae-trained mare ran second in the Spring Classic (Listed, 2000m) at Riccarton last month and relished the step up in trip, beating Imperium (Encosta De Lago) by a length and three quarters, with Grazia (Savabeel) a further two and a half lengths behind in third. Alamosa is standing for a fee of NZ$8,500 (plus GST) at Wellfield Lodge.

Aspen Lass to be spelled

Aspen Lass will now be sent for a spell following her breakthrough stakes success in the Redwood Metropolitan Trophy Handicap at Riccarton. "She got back and was really relaxed and she got home easily over the top of them," winning rider Alysha Collett said. "She's got a good mentality and was off the bit all the way." Stable representative Ryan Thistoll added: "The small field helped her and she'll go to the paddock now for a well-earned break."

75 for Snitzel

Untamed Diamond (5 m ex Made Of Diamonds by Made Of Gold) ran out a narrow winner of the Legacy Lodge Sprint (Listed, 1200m) at Te Rapa yesterday to provide Australian champion sire Snitzel (Redoute's Choice) with his 75th individual stakes winner. The mare was seventh in the Swaynesse Stakes (Gr 3, 1215m) at her last start but took full advantage of a drop in class to beat Speech Craft (Oratorio (IRE)) by a head, with the same distance back to Ferrando (Fast 'N' Famous) in third place. Snitzel is currently clear at the top of the general sires' standings by earnings in Australia with $12,379,198 in prize money.

Railway Stakes possible for Untamed Diamond

Following her brave victory in the Legacy Lodge Sprint at Te Rapa, trainer Richard Collett is considering a tilt at the Railway Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) at Ellerslie on New Year's Day with the progressive Untamed Diamond. "It was a nice effort, she was all the better for her first-up run," Collett said. "She drew well and relaxed nicely and got the job done well. She'll definitely be nominated for the Railway now and I'll go home and work out how we get her there."

Asia

82 for Kitten's Joy

The promising Gendarme (2 c ex Believe by Sunday Silence) preserved his unbeaten record when landing the Daily Hai Nisai Stakes (Gr 2, 1600m) at Kyoto yesterday, in the process providing Kitten's Joy (El Prado) with his 82nd stakes winner. The colt, who made a winning debut at Hanshin in September, comfortably beat Katsujii (Deep Impact) by a length and a quarter under Andrea Atzeni, with Keiai Nautique (Deep Impact) a further two and a half lengths behind in third. Kitten's Joy will stand for a fee of US$60,000 at Hill 'N' Dale Farm in America next year. Click here to view the race replay.

Incantation wins fifth Grade Three

The Tomohiko Hatsuki-trained Incantation (7 h Sinister Minister - Original Spin by Machiavellian) secured his fifth career Grade Three success when landing the Hai Musashino Stakes (Gr 3, 1600m) at Tokyo yesterday. The seven-year-old entire, who has now won 11 of his 30 career starts, beat Sunrise Soar (Symboli Kris S) by half a length, with Akito Crescent (War Emblem) a further length and three quarters behind in third place. Incantation is one of two stakes winners for his sire Sinister Minister (Old Trieste). Click here to view the race replay.

International

124 for Fastnet Rock

The Hughie Morrison-trained Star Rock (3 f ex Starfala by Galileo) stayed on strongly from off the pace to win the Gillies Fillies' Stakes (Listed, 1m2f) at Doncaster yesterday, in the process providing Coolmore's Fastnet Rock (Danehill) with his 124th stakes winner. The filly moved smoothly into contention under PJ McDonald and outstayed the keen going favourite Vintage Folly (Makfi) to win by three quarters of a length, with Melesina (Dark Angel) a further two and a half lengths behind in third. Fastnet Rock is standing for a private fee.

16 for Dream Ahead

The Sir Michael Stoute-trained Dream Of Dreams (3 c ex Vasilja by Dansili) won the Wentworth Stakes (Listed, 6f) at Doncaster yesterday to provide Dream Ahead (Diktat) with his 16th stakes winner. The improving colt travelled strongly into contention under Jim Crowley and quickened clear in the closing stages to beat Perfect Pasture (Pastoral Pursuits) by a length, with Danzeno (Denounce) a further two lengths behind in third place. Aquis Farm shuttler Dream Ahead is currently standing for a fee of $19,800 (inc GST).

Haggle lands Prix Fille de l'Air

The Henri-Francois Devin-trained Haggle (4 f Pivotal - Barter by Daylami) stayed on strongly to win the Prix Fille de l'Air (Gr 3, 2100m) at Toulouse yesterday. The former Luca Cumani-trained filly was delivered late by Pierre-Charles Boudot and she won going away by a length from Son Macia (Soldier Hollow) in second, with Via Firenze (Dansili) a further three quarters of a length behind in third place. Haggle is one of 140 stakes winners for her Cheveley Park-based sire Pivotal (Polar Falcon).

Four for Silver Frost

The Fabrice Vermeulen-trained Latita (2 f ex Amazing Story by Cricket Ball) ran out an impressive winner of the Prix Bernard de Marmiesse (Listed, 1600m) at Toulouse yesterday to provide Silver Frost (Verglas) with his fourth stakes winner. The filly beat Yayajonh (Muhaymin) by two and a half lengths under Tony Piccone, with Fly D'Aspe (Planteur) a further three quarters of a length behind in third. Silver Frost's progeny are headed by the Group One winner Silverwave.

Size steams towards Hong Kong Mile with Western Express

By Andrew Hawkins

@anz_news

Western Express (Encosta De Lago) has the HK$23,000,000 Hong Kong Mile (Gr 1, 1600m) as his destination after narrowly scoring his first win for the season in the Class One Panasonic Cup Handicap (1400m) at Sha Tin on Saturday.

John Size's chestnut was sent out 2.7 favourite with Joao Moreira in the saddle upon his return to restricted company, having finished eighth in the Celebration Cup Handicap (Gr 3, 1400m) and fifth in the Sha Tin Trophy Handicap (Gr 2, 1600m) – both behind Beauty Generation (Road To Rock) – to start his term.

Settled just beyond midfield on the rail by Moreira, Western Express sprinted strongly once shifted into the clear at the 250 metres, although it was only right on the line that he overhauled Tony Cruz-trained pacesetter Wah May Friend (Martino Alonso), who was heavily backed into 10/1 late. The margin at the post was a nose.

"I didn't think we won, I honestly didn't," Moreira said. "I thought he was beaten with 50 metres to go and when we were about to cross the finish line, he started looking at the arch around the post, and it was like he took a step backwards.

"He won because of his size and he's a big horse, lovely horse, he tries hard and has plenty to come. We have not seen the best of him yet, I'm convinced of that."

Size indicated that Western Express, who was unbeaten from two starts in Australia as Cardless Cash, was on track to run in next Sunday's Jockey Club Mile (Gr 2, 1600m) before heading to the Hong Kong Mile on 10 December.

"He's a good doer, so I have no concerns about backing him up next weekend," he said. "It wasn't a particularly hard run today and he's hitting peak fitness, so that should only bring him on. We'll give him his test next weekend under the set weights and if he qualifies, then we'd hope to give him his chance in the Hong Kong Mile."

Western Express has only one placing to his name at 1600 metres and beyond from five attempts, but Size believes that the trip holds no fears for the Encosta De Lago (Fairy King) gelding.

"On paper, it definitely looks like 1400 metres is his best trip, he's four from six now at the distance," Size said. "I think he can run the mile, he might finish up with a better record at 1400 metres but you can't deny him running at 1600 metres. He deserves his chance again next weekend."

Another horse that still has designs on a Hong Kong Mile run is John Moore-trained Booming Delight (Fastnet Rock), with the handler suggesting that his three and a quarter length seventh should be ignored.

"Sam (Clipperton) came back and said that he was caught wide early and he had to make two runs on him mid-race, so with the big weight and down at 1400 metres, I think we just have to forget the effort," Moore said. "I've scratched him from the Jockey Club Mile, we'll still have Beauty Generation, Helene Paragon and Joyful Trinity there. We'll take Booming Delight straight to the Hong Kong Mile, hopefully."

Exasperating day for Moreira despite double

Western Express was one of two winners for Moreira, having earlier scored aboard Ricky Yiu-trained Indigenous Star (Exceed And Excel) in the Class Four Panasonic New Stars For Kitchen Handicap (1600m). However, it was a largely frustrating day for the Brazilian as odds-on favourites Gouten Of Garo (Per Incanto) (eighth), Eighty Eighty (Husson) (second) and Bravo Watchman (Congrats) (second) were all beaten.

Trainer Richard Gibson refused to entertain Hong Kong Classic Mile (Listed, 1600m) questions with emerging four-year-old Rattan (Savabeel), but was full of praise for the Savabeel (Zabeel) gelding as he made it four wins from nine starts with a last-to-first victory under top weight in the Class Three Panasonic Front Loading Washing Handicap (1600m).

Western Express

"It takes a good horse to win three races in a row in Hong Kong, not many are able to do it and he had to carry plenty of weight there but he still got the job done," he said of the Chad Schofield-ridden galloper. "He'll be up in Class Two now, but I wouldn't be game to say he couldn't do it. He's a horse that has put his hand up every time a question has been asked, so let's give him his chance – wherever that leads."

Many debutants could not win at Saturday's meeting, but one that did was Michael Freedman-trained Sparkling Dragon (O'Reilly). The O'Reilly (Last Tycoon) three-year-old was taken straight to the front by Clipperton from gate 14 and was not for catching, racing clear for a length and three quarter success.

"The barrier wasn't ideal, but he'd showed nice gate speed in both of his trials so we just thought, we may as well take a chance and go forward and see where he ends up," Freedman said. "He got across quite easily and showed that he's quite a progressive young horse. Sam made the comment though that he'd be even better when ridden in behind, because he was stargazing a bit in the straight today."

Also scoring a double among the riding ranks was Derek Leung, who took the Class Five Panasonic It Stick Type Vacuum Cleaner Handicap (1400m) on Gainfuljet (Choisir) for Benno Yung and the Class Three Panasonic IH Warm Jar Handicap (1200m) aboard Tony Millard's Golden Sun (Dutch Art). Millard himself had a brace, with World Record (Savabeel) justifying favouritism to win the last, the Class Three Panasonic Mini Ice Handicap (1400m).

Tapit mare in foal to Curlin tops Keeneland day four

By Ron Mitchell of Blood-Horse

@anz_news

Hip 1175 Tension

KEENELAND

She was the total package. Tension, a young daughter of leading sire Tapit (Pulpit) in foal to prominent sire Curlin (Smart Strike) lit up the Keeneland November Breeding Stock Sale bid board during the late stages of the fourth session, going for US$750,000 to Woodford Thoroughbreds.

Consigned as Hip 1175 by John Sikura's Hill 'n' Dale Sales Agency and sent through the ring during the final 15 minutes of the lengthy session, the five-year-old mare is out of Tough Tiz's Sis, a daughter of Tiznow (Cee's Tizzy) who was twice successful at Grade One level en route to earnings of US$903,792. Tension is a half-sister to Grade Two winner and track-record setter Tiz Midnight (Midnight Lute).

The marbled grey, who topped the second session of Book Two, was bred in Kentucky by Karl Watson and Paul Weitman.

"There wasn't much not to like about her," said Woodford's Matt Lyons. "She was a beautiful mare, maybe one of the best-looking mares in the whole sale, in foal to Curlin who has become an important sire. Hopefully she can make babies that look like herself.

"When the pretty ones walk in that look like that and they're in foal to a top sire, you expect to pay that much. We knew there were people sitting around here waiting so we knew it was going to be competitive."

Woodford Thoroughbreds led all buyers Friday with four purchases totaling US$1,270,000.

Sikura was euphoric in his description of the mare, who surpassed expectations in the sale ring.

"She was as good looking mare you put together—a magnificent specimen," he said. "It was the perfect recipe: a young foal in foal to Curlin on a first service, by Tapit and absolutely gorgeous. She's a standout mare and exceeded expectations."

Sikura said the mare's price was a reflection of the strong demand at Keeneland for the best offerings.

"Everything that is put forward that is the best, you get extra," he said. "That's the market reality and she was certainly on everyone's lists.

"She was unraced and we had some mares that were up earlier that were group winners and we thought she would stand out in this sale," Sikura said of the mare's placement in Book Two.

"There is money here all week—Book One, Book Two, Book Three. There is an educated and sophisticated group of people that buy horses here and whether they buy on Monday, Wednesday, or Friday doesn't make any difference. They are judging the value of the horse, not what day, and they are here for the duration."

Brisk commerce drove double-digit increases in gross sales and average and median prices during Friday's fourth session of the Keeneland November Breeding Stock Sale.

During the session, the second of the two-day Book Two, Keeneland sold 230 horses for a total of US$28,327,000, marking a 33.11 per cent increase in gross sales from the fourth session last year when 220 horses brought US$21,280,500. The average of US$123,161 rose 27.32 per cent from US$96,730 in 2016. The median of US$90,000 was up 20 per cent from last year's US$75,000.

"The figures were very positive today," Keeneland director of sales operations Geoffrey Russell said. "The most popular horses were young, good-looking mares that were well covered. Obviously the American Pharoah foal was of exceptional quality and was rewarded. The entire day from start to finish had great buzz and good bidding. Book Two was a success. On to Book Three."

Through the first four days of the sale, Keeneland sold 660 horses for US$144,097,000, a 7.53 per cent decrease from US$155,833,500 for 695 horses sold during through the corresponding period in 2016. The average of US$218,329 was 2.63 per cent below last year's US$224,221, while the median of US$130,000 was 4 per cent above US$125,000 in 2016.

The second high-priced American Pharoah (Pioneer of The Nile) weanling sold for US$375,000 to Chestnut Valley on Friday. Paramount Sales, agent, consigned Hip 1033, a son of the Giant's Causeway (Storm Cat) mare Meerkat Miss, a half-sister to European champion Hold That Tiger (Storm Cat) and Grade One winner Editor's Note (Forty Niner).

Two mares sold for US$425,000 apiece on Friday. Spendthrift Farm paid the amount for Airs, catalogued as Hip 804, a daughter of Harlan's Holiday (Harlan) and a sister to Japanese Grade Two winner Albiano in foal to Union Rags (Dixie Union).

Columbine Stable paid US$425,000 for Indian Brava, who was catalogued as Hip 975, a five-year-old stakes-placed daughter of Bernardini (A. P. Indy) in foal to Runhappy (Super Saver). Burleson Farms, agent, consigned the mare, a half-sister to stakes winner Way Striking (Smart Strike) from the family of Grade One winner By Land By Sea (Sauce Boat). She is out of stakes winner Indian Way, by Indian Charlie (In Excess).

Paramount Sales was the session's leading consignor, selling 26 horses for US$3,154,000.

Then followed: Chautauqua (AUS), Clearly Innocent (AUS), Rock Magic (AUS), Vega Magic (AUS), Super Cash (AUS), Missrock (AUS), Malaguerra (AUS), Redkirk Warrior (GB), Man From Uncle (AUS) & Spieth (NZ), last.

Analysis: Redzel took his imposing record to six successive victories in taking out this Group One sprint. Having his first run since winning The Everest (1200m) at Randwick on 14 October, he was smartly away and immediately took the lead, racing closest to the rails on the Grandstand side. Kerrin McEvoy was able to steady the early tempo but ran along on passing the 800m. He then safely held his opposition to score another impressive victory, his second at Group One level. Terravista, racing in blinkers for the first time showed a return to form. Having his second run this preparation, he settled in last place of the group on the Grandstand side, improved nicely between runners to challenge at the 100m. He then fought gamely for a very good second, beaten just under a length. Impending raced outside of the leader and eventual winner and fought on particularly well for a very good third. Chautauqua was near last of the Grandstand side runners, went to fifth of that group at the 100m and kept fighting on well for (2.6 lengths) fourth, failing to produce his renowned brilliant finishing burst. Clearly Innocent was in the middle of the Grandstand side ground and ran on really well for (2.8 lengths) fifth, just in advance of Rock Magic who did best of the Flat side runners in hold on well for (3.6 lengths) sixth.

Exceptional G1 sire

Analysis: Although given the best ride in the race, Embellish showed class in winning well here, his third successive win in four starts. He jumped with them and while there was some crowding early, jockey Opie Bosson found a lovely spot in third next to the rail before they started the bend. Bosson never moved until the top of the straight then cruised up to challenge the pacemaker (Ever Loyal). A shake of the reins at the 300m was enough to co-lead then Bosson got busy and they drew clear, having the race sewn up inside the 100m to win by an easy length and a quarter. After being well back turning for home Age Of Fire ran on very well the length of the straight for a nice second without looking like catching the winner. Ever Loyal led most of the way, gave the winner a brief tussle then barely held on for third from Te Akau Shark, who was handy enough at the 300m then found more and ran on well to almost claim third. The first four home were well clear of the rest.

Then followed: The Taj Mahal (IRE), Folkswood (GB), Cliff's Edge (AUS), Harlem (GB), Odeon (NZ), Sense Of Occasion (AUS), So Si Bon (AUS), Gailo Chop (FR) & Samovare (AUS), last.

Analysis: Japanese-bred entire Tosen Stardom, recent winner of the Toorak Handicap (Gr 1, 1400m) at Caulfield on 14 October, took out his second Group One race in Australia since joining the Darren Weir stable last year. He settled back in ninth place (on the rails), behind quite a good tempo (first 1400m 1:26.46) before improving, between runners) at the home turn but was blocked on straightening. Damian Lane finally angled him into clear running at the 200m and he then finished fast to score quite impressively. Happy Capper travelled well back in eighth place, one off the rails, before tracking up behind runners rounding the home turn. He then kept running on resolutely to take a good second. It's Somewhat raced in sixth place, one off the rails, improved (wide with cover) nearing the home turn. He was in a challenging position at the 200m and kept fighting well for a good third. Aidan O'Brien-trained The Taj Mahal raced fourth place (on the rails), got a split to challenge at the 300m and kept battling on well for (1.8 lengths) fourth in a good effort at his second Australian start. Folkswood was caught deep from his outside barrier (12) and settled in third place (trapped three wide, without cover). He challenged coming to the home turn and then held on very well for (1.9 lengths) fifth after a difficult trip, his wide barrier proving costly. The three-year-old Cliff's Edge raced in second place, moved up to the leader (Gailo Chop) at the 800m, took the lead at the 200m and then battled on well for a very good (2.1 lengths) sixth after running a bold race.

Then followed: Salubrious (AUS), Disposition (AUS) & Miki Two Toes (AUS), last.

Analysis: Consistent Adam Durrant-trained mare Silverstream took her record to eight wins and five placings from 24 starts in taking out this Group Two race. She settled nicely in fifth place, on the rails, behind a moderate tempo (first 800m 48.87). William Pike eased her deeper rounding the home turn, but she took a moment to wind up in the sprint home before coming with a strong late run to grab a late victory in impressive fashion. Great Shot was smartly away and went straight to the front. He was then able to steady the pace before being challenged coming to the home turn. He then fought back really well, only being overhauled on the post for a very good second. The favourite Scales Of Justice soon moved up to race outside the leader (Great Shot) but he raced quite keenly due to the slow mid-race tempo. He put pressure on the leader rounding the home turn and after quite a battle in the straight he held on for a close up third. The three-year-old Salubrious was third to the home turn and kept fighting on really well in the straight for fourth, beaten only a half-length.

WINNER

Analysis: Progressive mare Savapinski has now gone from winning a Class 2 (1600m) at Hawkesbury on 21 September at her fourth race start to take out this Group Two race three runs later. She worked from her outside barrier (11) to take the lead and then ran along at a good tempo. She grabbed a break on straightening and then fought back strongly for a good win, running the 2000m out well in an impressive effort. Payroll raced in last place in the 11-horse field, got between runners rounding the home turn, switched into clear running at the 400m and ran on well for a good second, without looking likely to trouble the winner. Token Of Love led in the early stages before tracking the front-running Savapinski. She moved up to that mare nearing the home turn and then kept battling on soundly in the straight to take the minor placing. Prompt Response had a good trip in fifth place, moved up at the 300m and then kept fighting on to finish (4.3 lengths) fourth, seemingly tested by the 2000m over the latter stages. Heaven's Above raced near the tail of the field, tracked up (three wide with cover) from the 800m. Put in a run on turning for home and kept battling on quite well, without threatening, to finish (4.6 lengths) fifth.

Then followed: Bionics (AUS), Final Choice (AUS), Really Swish (AUS), King (AUS), Northern Voyage (AUS) & Raise The Roof (AUS), last.

Analysis: Run Naan could hardly have been more impressive with a slashing win here. Rider Andrew Mallyon was in no hurry from barrier six and they settled second last (rails) at the crossing. On to the course proper he had to wait until the 300m before pulling out but once into the clear accelerated quickly, raced up to the leaders at the 100m and was travelling so strongly, was coming away at the line to remain unbeaten in two starts. Encryption had a great view, four deep at the 400m, made a solid run at the leaders from the 200m and looked a major chance until the winner flew by. Belzella was always handy, led or co-led at the 300m, was passed inside the 100m but fought back well to claim third from Bionics, who made a promising run from the 300m, flashing into fourth late.

Then followed: Violate (AUS), Gallic Chieftain (FR), Qewy (IRE), Kiwia (AUS), Bettyrae Ruby (AUS), Cool Chap (AUS) & Tunes (AUS), last.

Analysis: Vengeur Masque went straight to the front to lead by a length with a circuit to run and maintaining a solid tempo continued to lead down the back and deep into the home bend. Rider Patrick Moloney never moved until they straightened and even then merely shook the reins. Challenged at the 400m he kicked again to lead narrowly only to lose the lead at the 200m then fought back again to edge clear by three quarters of a length near the line for the win and very good staying effort. Grey Lion tracked the winner to the straight, got the split and challenged, led or co-led to the 200m but was outstayed. Wheal Leisure was handy turning in, had to wait for a run then ran on quite well without looking like catching the first two. The first three home were well clear of the rest.

Then followed: Arcadia Prince (AUS), Brutus Maximus (AUS), Vital Dancer (AUS), Debellatio (AUS), Turbo Power (AUS), Cognac (AUS), Captain Stirling (AUS) & Galveston Bay (AUS), last.

Analysis: Money Maher is now the winner of three of his four starts this preparation, advancing quickly after his first-up win in a 3-Y-O Maiden (1100m) at Northam on 31 August to take out this Listed race most impressively. He began well but was eased to settle in tenth place, behind a good tempo before switching deep rounding the home turn. He then sprinted quickly, hit the front at the 100m and then drew away to score easily. He looks a smart colt with a bright future. Achernar Star settled in fourth place, moved up well nearing the home turn, briefly took the lead in the straight but had no answer to the winner's late bid and then held on to take a sound second. Reykjavik raced in seventh place, improved behind runners at the home turn and kept battling on quite well in the straight to take the minor placing.

TESTA ROSSA

Over 73% Winners to Runners

Analysis: Honest Enzo's Lad took his record to four wins in 18 starts, scoring easily here. He settled midfield from barrier two with jockey Chris Johnson easing him away from the fence at the crossing. In traffic at the 400m Johnson waited then room opened up three out and they drove through to challenge. Enzo's Lad was cruising and had the field covered inside the 100m to win with plenty in hand by one and a quarter lengths.

Don Carlo was midfield and widest at the crossing, tried to get on terms with the leaders at the 300m, led briefly soon after but could not hold the winner. Signify was also wide at the top of the straight, kept up a solid run to the line but was unable to reach the first two from Morse Code, who led at the 300m then held on fairly for fourth.

Analysis: Previously stakes placed in Brisbane and a three-time Sydney winner, Untamed Diamond grabbed the lead late to claim her maiden stakes win and seventh in total. She was first away from the inside draw but soon after settled third (rails) starting the bend. Rider Trudy Thornton sat quietly until they straightened but waited until the 200m to throw out their challenge, drove through on the inside to co-lead at the 100m then stretched her neck just short of the post for a nice win. Speech Craft tracked the winner to the top of the straight, moved out four wide when they fanned then kept up a strong run to the line for a good second from Ferrando, who led turning in, looked to break clear at the 200m but was collared late for a well fought third. Chambord was doing his best work at the finish for a solid fourth.

Analysis: The WATC Derby (Gr 2, 2400m) winner Gatting, who was having his third run this preparation, put up a good effort in winning here, appreciating the step up to 1800m. He settled in fifth place, behind a slow pace (first 1200m 1:17.82) before improving (wide with cover) from the 800m. He continued to move up, as the tempo increased approaching the home turn, challenged nearing the 100m and then went on score a really good win. Dark Alert went to the front, steadied the pace and then fought back well in the straight, only behind overtaken in the closing stages for second, beaten a half-length. Ihtsahymn was near last early on but made an early move (wide) from the 800m. He was widest of all at the home turn and kept running on resolutely for a very good third.

Then followed: Mr So And So (AUS), Trekking (AUS), Tamasa (AUS), Andaz (AUS), Tezlah (NZ), Faolan (AUS), Surjin (AUS) & Double Jeopardy (AUS), last.

Analysis: The Levi Kavanagh-trained Kentucky Breeze advanced quickly after winning a 3YO Maiden (1100m) at Stawell on 23 October on debut to take out this Listed race at only his second start. He settled in sixth place, one off the rails, moved up well to challenge nearing the 200m and then lifted gamely under pressure to grab a narrow but good win. The Shadwell-raced colt Muraaqeb was ridden quietly and settled near the tail of the field and was last in the 11-horse field nearing the home turn. He went widest of all on passing the 400m and then came with a really strong finish, failing by only a long head in taking a very good second. Sircconi travelled well outside the leader (Double Jeopardy) at a reasonable tempo. He got to the front at the 300m and then battled on gamely for a close up third, staging a good effort under his (60kg) top weight. Of the others, the well-supported Darren Weir-trained Tamasa, a winner of his first two starts, raced in seventh place on the rails but failed to gain clear running at any stage in the straight and appeared to go to the post full of running in finishing an unlucky (2.1 lengths) sixth.

Analysis: Aspen Lass dropped out to last in the small field of seven starting the bend out of the home straight. She remained at the rear down the back, around the big bend and into the home straight before rider Alysha Collet pulled widest to challenge. Still last at the 300m she then settled down to go after the leaders, gradually hauling them in and taking over inside the 100m only to race clear and win easily, her fifth win (maiden stakes win) in 16 starts. Imperium had the run of the race in third, took over once they straightened and went for the line, looked the winner at the 200m but was out-finished, holding out her stablemate Grazia, who tracked her into the straight but was not able to get on terms, holding on best of the rest for third.

Analysis: The Godolphin-raced colt Dynamited impressed in scoring in good style on debut. He began well and travelled nicely outside the leader (Secret Lady) at a reasonable early tempo. He put pressure on the leader from the 600m, lifting the tempo, got the upper hand at the 100m and then went for score a promising win. The Gary Portelli-trained filly Secret Lady went to the front and fought gamely in the straight for a good second, also on debut. Another Godolphin runner Rheingau raced in third place on the rails, took a while to pick up in the straight before battling on again well to take the minor placing, looking suited to further. The Peter and Paul Snowden-trained filly Sangita raced in second last place in the nine-horse field, put in a good run from the 300m and then fought on quite well in the sprint home to finish (3.6 lengths) fourth.
