A return to Lindsay Park's country training base at Euroa is a key factor in an expected turnaround in form for Darley Classic (registered as VRC Stakes) (Gr 1, 1200m) contender Redkirk Warrior (Notnowcato).

Unbeaten in two starts at Flemington, including in this year's Newmarket Handicap (Gr 1, 1200m) down the straight course, Redkirk Warrior ran tenth in the $10,000,000 The Everest (1200m) at Randwick on 14 October.

A Group One winner for Lindsay Park, Vega Magic ran fifth in the Manikato Stakes under lights on 27 October after suffering interference early in the race, which was also marred by the late scratching of Chautauqua (Encosta De Lago), a $7 chance in the Darley Classic.

The favourite for today's $1,000,000 Group One race is the last start The Everest winner Redzel (Snitzel) ($5), a five-year-old trained by Peter and Paul Snowden who remains unbeaten at his past five runs.

Ben Hayes told ANZ Bloodstock News yesterday that Redkirk Warrior, who will be ridden by Regan Bayliss, had excelled since returning to the stable's private training complex in north east Victoria.

"He has a really good straight record and he has thrived since returning to the farm. Every time we have travelled him to Sydney he has underperformed, so I think he can bounce back in this race," Hayes said.

"Regan's decision not to appeal his suspension in hindsight was a good decision because if he lost the appeal he wouldn't have been able to ride Redkirk Warrior and his mount in the Melbourne Cup (Ventura Storm) didn't perform."

On Wednesday, Luke Nolen earned the call-up to partner Redkirk Warrior's stablemate Vega Magic in the Darley Classic after regular jockey Craig Williams lost an appeal against a careless riding suspension.

Vega Magic has drawn barrier four in the field of 14, with straight course winners emerging on both the inside and grandstand side of the track so far during the Flemington carnival.

Hayes was also prepared to dismiss Vega Magic's last start performance in the Manikato Stakes when a beaten favourite after being in the barriers for a long time and suffering interference at the hands of the winner Hey Doc (Duporth).

"He had four genuine excuses, he missed the start, got smashed on the corner, probably didn't handle Moonee Valley under lights and he got galloped on as well," the young trainer said.

"He has been doing well at the farm and I really do think he will bounce back. That was his only poor run for the stable and he has shown no signs of being overdone (this preparation). The only query is the straight, but you've got to find out."

Lindsay Park has a string of runners on the final day of the Melbourne Cup carnival today including one-time Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) contender Harlem (Champs Elysees).

The Melbourne Cup plan for Harlem, who won the Naturalism Stakes (Gr 3, 2000m) on 23 September, was shelved after the European import was unplaced in the Lexus Stakes (registered as Hotham Handicap) (Gr 3, 2500m) last Saturday.

The six-year-old entire loomed as the winner on the home corner before fading to finish sixth behind Cismontane (High Chaparral).

Harlem is running in today's Emirates Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) (registered as LKS Mackinnon Stakes) over a distance Hayes believes will prove to be the horse's optimum trip.

<< Continued from page 2 "We just feel that every time we have tried to take him out in trip he has loomed up on the bend and not finished off," Hayes said.

"His best run was in the Naturalism Stakes over 2000 metres, so we are going to run him in the 2000 metres race. He went straight back to the farm after (the Lexus Stakes) and played around with him on the water walker since then."

Harlem, who will be ridden by Bayliss, is joined in the Emirates Stakes by stablemate Samovare (Savabeel), a four-year-old mare who was initially being aimed for the Matriarch Stakes (Gr 2, 2000m) against her own sex.

To be ridden by Dwayne Dunn, Samovare was runner-up in the Coongy Cup (Gr 3, 2000m) last start at Caulfield on 21 October.

"Originally, we were going to run her in the Matriarch, but we decided to run her in the Emirates because it is worth $2,000,000 compared to $300,000 in the mares' race," he said.

"With no Winx, the Emirates is a winnable race."

Cool Chap (High Chaparral), a winner of the VRC St Leger (Listed, 2800m) as a three-year-old at Flemington, will run in the VRC Queen Elizabeth Stakes (Gr 3, 2600m) for Lindsay Park.

The five-year-old gelding ran fifth in a small field last start in the Moonee Valley Gold Cup (Gr 2, 2500m) on 28 October.

"It will be interesting to see him over the trip, which he has performed well over before, and we have been putting him over some jumps, changed his training around and we are going to ride him cold," he said.

Lindsay Park will also have three-year-olds Muraageb (Snitzel) and Faolan (Sebring), who won his first start at Kilmore on 24 October, in the Emirates Airline Handicap (Listed, 1400m) and two-year-old filly Final Choice (Nicconi) in the Maribyrnong Plate (Gr 3, 1000m) at Flemington.

Final Choice, who will be ridden by Nolen. Ran fourth in a juvenile trial over 800 metres at Cranbourne on 18 September.

"She is going well. We think she is an early type who has speed and she has done well at home," he said.

Two for Spirit Of Boom

Eureka Stud's first season stallion Spirit Of Boom (Sequalo) sired his second winner this season when Legal Ties (2 f ex Lantern Court by Chester House) was victorious at Rockhampton yesterday. Trained by Lyle Rowe, Legal Ties was a $25,000 Magic Millions Gold Coast March Yearling Sale graduate from the Myall Lodge draft. Ridden by Justin Stanley, Legal Ties ($1.45 favourite) defeated Gracie Belle (Top Echelon) by one and a quarter lengths, with Streamliner, also a daughter of Spirit Of Boom, another length back in third. Spirit Of Boom, who stands for a fee of $11,000 (inc GST), sired his first winner last Saturday when Ef Troop won at Doomben. Ef Troop is trained by Tony Gollan, who also prepared the stallion.

Winx remains world's best turf horse

Champion mare Winx (Street Cry) remains the world's highest rated horse on turf following the latest release of the World's Best Racehorse rankings, but she is still second to Arrogate (Unbridled's Song) overall despite that horse's run of defeats. The former Bob Baffert-trained colt was retired after finishing fifth in the Breeders' Cup Classic (Gr 1, 10f) at Del Mar last weekend but leads the standings on a rating of 134, with Winx rated 132. Champion Stakes (Gr 1, 1m2f) winner Cracksman (Frankel) is third on 130, ahead of Gun Runner (Candy Ride) (129) and Enable (Nathaniel) (128).

Straight to suit Redzel

Co-trainer Paul Snowden believes today's Darley Classic (registered as VRC Stakes) (Gr 1, 1200m) favourite Redzel's (Snitzel) best performance was in last year's Mumm Stakes (Listed, 1000m) down the Flemington straight. Snowden's view has not altered despite Redzel stringing five wins together including a victory last start in the $10,000,000 The Everest (1200m). "The day he beat Terravista here was his career best and I'll hang on to that," Snowden said. "It's the hardest track to race on, especially a sprinter that's a fast sprinter. They get it wrong and they fall apart quickly."

Chautauqua chasing first Darley

Multiple Group One-winning sprinter Chautauqua (Encosta De Lago) is yet to win at the elite level down the Flemington straight over 1200 metres but co-trainer Wayne Hawkes believes the seven-year-old is capable of breaking through at the track today. The gelding, who ran fourth in The Everest, was a controversial late scratching from the $1,000,000 Manikato Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m). "He's come through really well," Hawkes said. "His work has been great. He's not on fire but he's the next best thing, I reckon. He doesn't work any better than he did on Wednesday morning. So he is in career-best form but it's an amazing game, he hasn't won a race this preparation which is quite amazing."

In Her Time excelling in Melbourne

Manikato Stakes runner-up In Her Time (Time Thief) is thriving in Melbourne, according to her Newcastle-based trainer Ben Smith. The five-year-old mare, who has had the bar plates removed for the Darley Classic, galloped well at Flemington Thursday with race day jockey Corey Brown in the saddle. "I've basically been guided by Corey. I've told him what I need to do to get her right for the race and I took on his experience and we decided it was best to keep her fresh and keep her happy," Smith told Racing.com. "They are the best sprinters in the country around at the moment. You could run the race ten times and get ten different winners. It's that sort of race."

Tom Melbourne scratched from Emirates

The Chris Waller-trained Tom Melbourne (Dylan Thomas) was scratched from the Emirates Stakes (registered as LKS Mackinnon Stakes) (Gr 1, 2000m) yesterday after being found to be lame. The OTI Racing-owned European import was runner-up to stablemate Shillelagh (Savabeel) in last Saturday's Kennedy Mile (registered as Cantala Stakes) (Gr 1, 1600m) at Flemington and was due to back up today. A veterinary inspection found Tom Melbourne to be lame on the off foreleg.

Gingernuts to make most of back up plan

The Caulfield Cup (Gr 1, 2400m) was the initial target for Group One winner Gingernuts (Iffraai) but after a key lead-up race was postponed, the New Zealand-trained four-year-old's aim was altered. Gingernuts, who won the Rosehill Guineas (Gr 1, 2000m) in the autumn, is having his first spring run in Australia in today's Emirates Stakes. He took out the Windsor Park Plate (Gr 1, 1600m) in September and was most recently seen running second in the Livamol Classic (Gr 1, 2040m) at Hastings. "We had to change our plans but we changed them because we didn't want to risk anything," co-trainer Stephen Autridge said. "There were suggestions we could still come and run in the Caulfield Cup but we hadn't planned to do it the way we would have had to do it. We were happy to stay home another couple of weeks, run in that Group One which he just got beaten in and then come over."

Dee excited by Te Akau connection

In-form jockey Michael Dee has picked up the ride on the Te Akau Racing-owned Gingernuts in today's Emirates Stakes after Hugh Bowman was suspended, forcing him to miss the ride on the gelding. Dee, who won the Kennedy Mile last Saturday at Flemington, was apprenticed to Te Akau Racing for a short time before the New Zealander moved to Victoria. "It's probably more thrilling for me the idea of winning for Te Akau rather than the prize money I might win," Dee told Racing.com. "When Hugh got suspended my manager chased the ride and I was lucky enough to get selected."

@anz_news

It's Somewhat on trial for Perth

Trainer James Cummings hopes Doncaster Mile (Gr 1, 1600m) winner It's Somewhat (Dynaformer) can cement plans for the Perth summer carnival with a strong performance in today's Emirates Stakes. The seven-year-old gelding has been lightly raced this spring, running tenth in the Sir Rupert Clarke Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) before a third-placed performance in the Crystal Mile (Gr 2, 1600m) at Moonee Valley on 28 October. "His run in the Crystal Mile at Moonee Valley where he was second-up at weight-for-age was a solid one," Cummings said. "I think the fast-run nature of that race is going to help him stepping up to a mile-and-a-quarter and he's going to be really peaking for Perth in the Kingston Town."

Clapper back for Emirates

Epsom Handicap (Gr 1, 1600m) winner Happy Clapper (Teofilo) returned to trainer Pat Webster's Randwick stables after a roughhouse run in the Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m) which led to jockey Damien Oliver being suspended. Webster was unsure whether the seven-year-old would return to Melbourne this spring, but yesterday said the gelding had shown no ill effects from his last start and would line up in today's Emirates Stakes. Blake Shinn returns to the saddle.

Odeon to back up at Flemington

James Boag Premium Stakes (Listed, 1800m) winner Odeon (Zacinto) will back up in today's Emirates Stakes after his impressive two length victory at Flemington on Tuesday. The Mathew Ellerton and Simon Zahra-trained four-year-old will face his first weight for age test in the Group One race today with Chris Symons maintaining his association with the horse. "He's pulled up really well," Zahra said. "We've cotton-woolled him a lot, so it's time to throw him in the deep end a little bit. He's probably not quite a weight-for-age horse as yet, but he needed that run the other day. He was just a bit on the tubby side and had a good blow and he's pulled up unbelievably."

Kiwi to take on Qewy again

The Darren Weir-trained Kiwia (Reset) is set to clash with the Charlie Appleby-trained Qewy (Street Cry) once again in the VRC Queen Elizabeth Stakes (Gr 3, 2600m) at Flemington today. The four-year-old was a head second to his rival in the Bendigo Cup (Gr 3, 2400m) at his last start, and jockey Damian Lane is expecting another close race. "Qewy was tough in the Bendigo Cup and I think if the race was another lap I wouldn't have got past him," Lane said. "He really kept pulling something out every time I got closer to him. If I get a kinder run than him on the day, you never know."

King out to make immediate impression

Unraced two-year-old King (Written Tycoon), a $1,000,000 Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale buy for James Harron Bloodstock, will have his first start in today's Maribyrnong Plate (Gr 3, 1000m) for trainers Peter and Paul Snowden. It is a race that Peter Snowden says nearly did not eventuate for the expensive colt, who won a Randwick 745 metre barrier trial on 17 October. "Certainly the application of blinkers have turned him right around," Snowden said. "He was about five minutes off getting on the float to go out. I was a bit disappointed with his work but one morning I tried blinkers on him and it made a hell of a difference. His trial at Randwick proved that and then I trialled him again at Flemington last Friday and he went excellent."

Straight test for Northern Voyage

Northern Voyage (Choisir) will also have his first start in the Maribyrnong Plate at Flemington today after pleasing trainers Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott in a gallop on Tuesday. A $450,000 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale graduate from the Widden Stud draft, Northern Voyage will be ridden by Stephen Baster in the Group Three race, without having any experience down the Flemington straight course.

Portelli to unveil Choisir juvenile

Trainer Gary Portelli is hoping Secret Lady (Choisir) can produce the speed she has shown in two barrier trial victories when she has her first start at Rosehill today. The two-year-old filly will run against her own age over 1100 metres today against seven rivals, with apprentice Lee Magorrian taking the ride from barrier four. "The mother was pretty quick and it looks like this girl has the same sort of speed. She'll jump and run," Portelli said. Secret Lady was the $3.30 second elect yesterday behind the Peter and Paul Snowden-trained Sangita (Sebring) ($2.80), who ran third in in her first start at Canterbury last month.

Stonebrook steps up in distance

The in-form Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott believe a step up in distance for lightly raced Stonebrook (Hinchinbrook) can see the four-year-old return to winning form. The gelding was beaten for the first time last start in a Benchmark 83 Handicap (1400m) when dropping back in distance at Randwick on 28 October. At Rosehill today, Stonebrook, who will be ridden by Josh Parr, steps back up to 1500 metres in the same grade of race. Waterhouse and Bott also considered running Stonebrook over 1800 metres but decided against it. "The 1500 is a more suitable option at this point in his preparation. No doubt we'll get further and probably up to 2000 metres in time," Bott said.

Magic Millions aim for Curdled

Winning Edge Stakes (Listed, 1350m) winner Curdled (All Too Hard) is expected to find a Benchmark 75 Handicap (1100m) at Rosehill today too short, but trainer Peter Robl says it is an important starting point for the three-year-old. The gelding, who was his sire All Too Hard's (Casino Prince) first stakes winner, is being aimed at the Magic Millions 3YO Guineas (RL, 1400m) at the Gold Coast in January. "He's always shown us good ability from day one. We have a good opinion of him without getting carried away," Robl said. Robl says Curdled, who has only raced on rain-affected tracks, has deliberately been given only one barrier trial to prepare for his first start back. "They may be a bit sharp for him on a good track over 1100 metres so we've elected to leave him a bit on the fresh side," he said.

Kaiser Franz resumes at Doomben

Talented middle distance horse Kaiser Franz (Savabeel) will resume in an open handicap (1350m) at Doomben today, but trainer Robert Heathcote laments the closure of Eagle Farm for the seven-year-old. Last preparation, Kaiser Franz won the Premier's Cup (Gr 3, 2200m) at Eagle Farm at big odds. "He went up 13 ratings points for the Premier's Cup win. But he was one of the few horses to handle Eagle Farm and now it is closed for who knows how long," Heathcote said. "His rating would be fine if he were able to race at Eagle Farm but while he has won twice at Doomben he is nowhere near as effective there." Kaiser Franz, who has not raced since finishing midfield in the Ipswich Cup (Listed, 2150m) in June, will be ridden by Emma Ljung.

Browne to ride Crack Me Up

Jockey Damian Browne has been booked to ride the in-form top weight Crack Me Up (Mossman) in today's $60,000 Benchmark 85 (1200m) at Doomben by Liam Birchley, with the Eagle Farm-based trainer encouraged by the rider's record on horses at the head of the handicap. "He has got 63 kilograms which we expected because of his high rating," Birchley said. "I suppose I could have used a claiming apprentice but really having Damian is like having a claim. Damian has lovely balance and gets horses travelling smoothly. It is why he wins on so many top weights."

Max Dynamite, Tiberian to run in Hong Kong

European raiders Max Dynamite (Great Journey) and Tiberian (Tiberius Caesar) are set to run at next month's Hong Kong International Races at Sha Tin. The Willie Mullins-trained Max Dynamite, who was second in the Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) two years ago, returned to finish an excellent third in the Flemington showpiece earlier this week, while French Group Two winner Tiberian came home in seventh place. Both horses are expected to have a tilt at the Hong Kong Vase (Gr 1, 2400m).

Marmelo to return to UK

Trainer Hughie Morrison has confirmed that Marmelo (Duke Of Marmalade) will return to the United Kingdom where he will be spelled at his owner's property. The Group Two-winning colt ran twice during the spring carnival, finishing sixth in the Caulfield Cup (Gr 1, 2400m) and ninth in Tuesday's Melbourne Cup, and his trainer has confirmed that he would like to bring the horse back to Melbourne next spring.

Symons distances himself from doping probe

Melbourne Racing Club (MRC) chairman Mike Symons yesterday moved to distance himself from an alleged doping scandal that could engulf Victorian racing. Racing Victoria stewards are currently investigating trainer Robert Smerdon whose horse Lovani (Lonhro) was scratched from a race at Flemington on 7 October after it was alleged the four-year-old mare was illegally treated on race day with an oral paste. RV stewards are interviewing a number of parties including Aquanita directors, of which Symons is one, it was confirmed yesterday. "I have absolutely nothing to hide. I told (chief steward) Terry Bailey he could have my phone, my records, the lot. I know absolutely nothing of any alleged doping of horses. I am utterly distressed that I've been dragged into it," Symons told Racing.com.

New Zealand

Sensei to continue stable's winning form

The promising Sensei (Dream Ahead) will bid to continue the good run of the Michael and Matthew Pitman stable when he lines up in the New Zealand Two Thousand Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) at Riccarton today. The three-year-old has won two of his three starts this preparation and finished second in the Barneswood Farm Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) on 21 October, and Michael Pitman is hopeful the colt can see out the Guineas trip. "I've never won so many races prior to the Cup meeting in my career," he said. "At this stage the mile is right at the end of his range, but he has been nice and settled in his trials and in his races. He's got a huge amount of speed and can run great sectionals."

Patience paying off with Elusive Treasure

Co-trainers Trevor and Martin Cruz are beginning to see their patience with Elusive Treasure (Northern Meteor) pay dividends, with the gelding bidding to secure a hat-trick over 1200 metres at Te Rapa today. The Cambridge-based brothers have produced the five-year-old to win his last two starts at Avondale and Te Rapa respectively. "He's needed time, as a yearling he was 16.1 hands – he's massive and a lot of people were put off by his sheer size, but I liked him," Trevor Cruz said. "I think he's quite exciting this guy and he's versatile as far as tracks go."

High hopes for Sacred Star

Dual Group One-winning eight-year-old Sacred Star (Flying Spur) is nearing a return to the track. The gelding has been off since finishing seventh in the Glasshouse Handicap (Listed, 1400m) at the Sunshine Coast in June 2016, and his trainer Tony Pike has earmarked the Railway Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) at Eilerslie on New Year's Day as a potential starting point. "I saw him today for the first time in six months. He had a big blow and he's still big in condition but all going to plan, we'd like to run fresh-up in the Railway," Pike said.

Logan's move to Singapore confirmed

Group One-winning Ruakaka-based trainer Donna Logan was on Thursday officially confirmed as a licensed trainer in Singapore. Logan had earlier been granted a trainer's licence by the Malayan Racing Association, but this week the Singapore Turf Club approved her application for stables at Kranji racecourse, granting her access to 36 boxes. "It's quite daunting really, I'm nervous and excited, but I know I'm ready for this challenge at this stage of my life," Logan said. "My daughter Sam has proven she's a very good trainer in her own right and my son Robert is grown up as well so this is the time to do it. I take over the boxes on 1 December and will basically start training up here as of 1 January. Graeme Forbes will be my assistant trainer."

Gibbs to take over Logan's NZ stable

Donna Logan has been training in partnership with Chris Gibbs in New Zealand, who will take sole charge of their Ruakaka stable. "Chris had to be happy to do that and he is. I've got great faith in him and it will be another string to our bow," Logan said. "I think it will be a happy and rewarding move with benefits for both our existing New Zealand clients and new ones." Logan has trained more than 850 winners and 60 at stakes level including Group One winner Volkstok'n'barrel (Tavistock).

Tinsley calls it quits

Palmerston North-based jockey Hayden Tinsley has decided to retire from riding having struggled with his weight. The 43-year-old

Tinsley rode nearly 1,500 winners during his career, with 18 winners at Group One level. "It's been in the back of my mind for a few months and I decided finally in the last couple of weeks," Tinsley said. "I've had enough of the wasting and during the winter it got to me, that and the lack of rides. I didn't have the enthusiasm to carry on."

First winner for Saxton

Debi-Lee Saxton saddled her first winner as a trainer at Avondale yesterday, courtesy of Belle Volant's (Danroad) maiden victory over 2100 metres. The seven-year-old Danroad (Danehill) mare won the opening race on the card, the Friends Of Football Maiden, by two and a quarter lengths from Verdant (Redwood) to provide the Byerley Park-based trainer with her breakthrough success. Belle Volant was having just her second start for Saxton and opened her account at the 25th attempt.

International

26 for Aussie Rules

Against Rules (5 m ex Around Me by Johannesburg) won the Prix Denisy (Listed, 3100m) at Saint-Cloud yesterday to provide her late sire Aussie Rules (Danehill) with his 26th stakes winner. The Stephane Wattel-trained five-year-old mare, who hails from the same family as Group One winners Hydrangea (Galileo) and The United States (Galileo), beat Morgan Le Faye (Shamardal) by a length and three quarters, while Nabunga was a further three lengths adrift in third place giving Aussie Rules the first and third home. Former Lanwades Stud stallion Aussie Rules died last year at the age of 13.

Battle Of Midway to WinStar

Battle of Midway (Smart Strike), the winner of the Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile (Gr 1, 8f) at Del Mar on 3 November, has been retired from racing and will take up stud duties in 2018 at WinStar Farm. The colt, who is co-owned by WinStar and Don Alberto, amassed US$1,249,949 in prize money and will stand for a fee of US$20,000. "We are extremely proud of Battle of Midway and the tremendous performance he put forth in the Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile," said Elliott Walden, WinStar president and CEO. "WinStar and Don Alberto are very committed to supporting Battle of Midway with world-class mares, because we both believe he possesses the pedigree, looks, conformation, and elite miler speed to become a very important sire."

Batsford Stud to stand son of Deep Impact

Danon Ballade will become the first son of Deep Impact (Sunday Silence) to stand in the United Kingdom next year after he was relocated to the Gloucestershire-based Batsford Stud. The nine-year-old had been standing at Allevamento di Besnate in Italy and was one of the first of Deep Impact's stallion sons to enter stud in Europe. "We are absolutely delighted to have the first son of Deep Impact to stand at stud in the UK. This means that breeders now have the opportunity to tap into this exciting bloodline without having to transport their mares to Japan," Alan and Tim Varey said. Danon Ballade will stand for a fee of £4,000.

Booming Delight

HKJC

Booming Delight (Fastnet Rock) shoulders top weight in the Class One Panasonic Cup Handicap (1400m) at Sha Tin today as trainer John Moore looks towards the Hong Kong Mile (Gr 1, 1600m) for the talented British import.

The four-year-old was a strong-closing second in the Oriental Watch Sha Tin Trophy Handicap (Gr 2, 1600m) last time, a head behind stablemate Beauty Generation (Road To Rock). The gelding will line up in the field of ten off a career-high rating of 109.

"His last run was a beauty," Moore said. "I think he's the one to beat in the race."

Booming Delight raced with merit last term when his four wins included the Lion Rock Trophy Handicap (Gr 3, 1600m) under today's rider Sam Clipperton. Those efforts suggested that the Fastnet Rock (Danehill) gelding might be capable of stepping into the high grades, and Moore is confident his charge will do just that.

"He's definitely taken the next step from where he was last season. He's found his feet here now and he's improved for it. He's done everything right and I'm delighted with his progress so far. He's close to getting his place in the Mile in December," he said.

Moore entered Booming Delight for next week's Jockey Club Mile (Gr 2, 1600m), the prime lead-up race for the 10 December showcase, but opted for this weekend's Panasonic Cup instead.

"He won't be running next week in the Jockey Club race, if he runs as I expect him to tomorrow he'll go straight to the Hong Kong Mile with a barrier trial beforehand," he said.

The Panasonic Cup has attracted a classy field of protagonists. Moore will also saddle Magic Legend (Red Element), while champion trainer John Size and champion jockey Joao Moreira will team up with the smart prospect Western Express (Encosta De Lago). Exultant (Teofilo) was third in the Irish 2,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1m) as Irish correspondent in May and makes his first start for Tony Cruz.

Also set for the fray is the David Hall-trained Simply Invincible (Rios), a stalwart of such events and a tough opponent to crack.

A three-time winner in Hong Kong and a Group One scorer in New Zealand pre-import, the six-year-old possesses a sharp turn-of-foot, which jockey Derek Leung is hoping to utilise to its optimum. The bay was a smart third last start behind the impressive rising star Nothinglikemore (Husson).

"Simply Invincible doesn't have a very good draw (barrier eight) but he can jump quickly and has natural speed," Leung said. "The key is to not use him too early, though, because then he won't finish. I'm hoping we can get in and find cover, so I can use his good turn of foot. If we can get the right spot, he's a very good chance."

Another that will likely be seeking cover from an outer starting gate is Limitless (Lope De Vega), drawn nine. The Caspar Fownes-trained four-year-old showed in seven Hong Kong starts last term that he has an abundance of ability, curbed by a few quirks.

The British import, successful in the 2016 Britannia Handicap (1m) at Royal Ascot, in which Booming Delight was sixth, has proved difficult to settle in his races, and has a tendency to hang in down the home straight.

"He's a bit quirky but he did everything right when I jumped him out of the gates yesterday morning and he feels very well," said jockey Chad Schofield. "He's a horse that is quite keen and needs to be switched off then saved for a good finish."

Schofield gets the race ride for the first time, having missed out when the gelding, then trained by Peter Ho, was scratched at the start before the Chairman's Trophy (Gr 2, 1600m) last April.

"He's proved that he's up to winning a race like this, we've just got to make sure he does everything right," the rider said. "The horse seems to be in a good frame of mind at the moment. I think Caspar's got him in shape to run a good race first up."

The Panasonic Cup field also features the admirable New Asia Sunrise (Written Tycoon), as well as Racing Supernova (Duporth) who was runner-up to the exciting Fifty Fifty (Thorn Park) at his last outing. Wah May Friend (Martino Alonso), a course and distance winner, is set to have the services of leading apprentice Matthew Poon, while the Moore-trained People's Knight (Exceed And Excel) will aim for a seventh career win at start 28.

US$1,000,000 bid secures Fools In Love at Keeneland

By Ron Mitchell of Blood-Horse

Hip 514 Fools In Love

KEENELAND

Fools In Love (Not For Love), the dam of Group Two winner Seahenge (Scat Daddy), was knocked down for US$1,000,000 to Cheveley Park Stud, the highest price early during the 9 November third session of the Keeneland November Breeding Stock Sale.

Consigned by Lane's End and catalogued as Hip 514, the 11-year-old daughter of Not For Love (Mr. Prospector) sold barren on a cover to Speightstown (Gone West).

After a protracted bidding duel that at one point had multiple bid spotters covering multiple buyers, Cheveley Park Stud emerged victorious.

"We're here to buy some special pedigrees and special mares," said Chris Richardson, managing director of Cheveley Park Stud. "She's a proven producer and has good connections to the UK. To whom she'll be bred to, we're not sure.

"I think that was a very full price (for not being in foal). It's nice to buy mares in foal, but she's a foundation mare and she has plenty of years ahead of her. We can cover her early next year," Richardson said.

Fools In Love, a half-sister to 2015 Louisiana Derby (Gr 2, 9f) winner International Star (Fusaichi Pegasus) and a sister to the stakes-winning D C Dancer, has three foals of racing age and all three are stakes calibre.

Her first foal is the Grade Three-placed Urban Bourbon (City Zip), and her second foal is stakes-placed Frank's Folly (Mineshaft). Her third foal, Seahenge is the "obvious connection" as far as Richardson is concerned.

On 16 September, Seahenge won the Champagne Stakes (Gr 2, 7f) and later ran third at Newmarket behind US Navy Flag (War Front) and Mendelssohn (Scat Daddy) in the Dewhurst Stakes (Gr 1, 7f).

US$800,000 Curlin mare heads to Shimokobe Farm of Japan

As the Keeneland November Breeding Stock Sale moved into Book Two during the third session, the Shimokobe family showed their affinity for a well-bred young mare who has already produced a foal that is succeeding on the track.

Curlin Hawk, a seven-year-old Curlin (Smart Strike) mare offered as Hip 459 by Taylor Made Sales Company, is destined for the historic Shimokobe Farm in Japan after the family, with Nobu Araki's Polo Green Stable as agent, purchased her for US$800,000.

Curlin Hawk has an eminently successful female family and is a half-sister to dual Classic winner and champion Afleet Alex (Northern Afleet) and to Grade Two winner Unforgettable Max (Northern Afleet). Afleet Alex won the 2005 Belmont Stakes (Gr 1, 12f) and Preakness Stakes (Gr 1, 9f), after finishing third in the Kentucky Derby (Gr 1, 10f). He also won the 2004 Hopeful Stakes (Gr 1, 7f), as well as two Grade Two races. He currently stands at Gainesway Farm. Afleet (Mr. Prospector), the sire of Northern Afleet, stood in Japan beginning in 1990 and lived there until his death at age 30 in 2014.

Curlin Hawk's first foal is Seabhac, a Scat Daddy (Johannesburg) colt who won the Pilgrim Stakes (Gr 3, 8.5f) at Belmont Park in September after the November Sale catalogue was published.

"She had a lovely face and was strong walking," Yukio Shimokobe said, adding that he was unaware of the significant family update with Seabhac until he was informed by Taylor Made personnel.

Yukio Shimokobe, a graduate of the Kentucky Equine Management Internship, attended the sale with his father, Toshiyuki Shimokobe, and younger brother, Takayuki Shimokobe. While Yukio is the general manager of Shimokobe Farm, Takayuki conditions the horses in their training program. The 80-year-old operation has about 140 horses overall. Their family was among the first to purchase horses from Keeneland for export to Japan.

According to Taylor Made's Mark Taylor, the update of a graded stakes winner was "huge" for Curlin Hawk.

"Getting that graded stakes winner underneath her was everything," Taylor said, adding the mare's attributes were among the reasons she was placed in Book Two.

Record for seven-figure horses equalled

Session topper Fools In Love was the 18th horse to bring US$1,000,000 or more during the first three sessions of the 2017 November Sale, equalling the number of seven-figure horses recorded during the initial three sessions last year.

Cumulatively, Keeneland has sold 430 horses for US$115,770,000, a 13.96 per cent decrease from last year's gross of US$134,553,000 for 475 horses. The average price of US$269,233 is down 4.96 per cent from US$283,269 in 2016, while the median of US$157,500 is a 7.35 per cent decrease from US$170,000 last year.

On the first of two days of the Book Two portion of the sale, Keeneland sold 229 horses for US$31,774,000, up slightly from the corresponding session in 2016 when 222 horses brought US$31,634,000. The average of US$138,751 was 2.63 per cent below US$142,495 last year. The median of US$120,000 increased 17.07 per cent from last year's US$102,500.

"Today's session had a lot of different buyers, along with some new people coming into the market," said Geoffrey Russell, Keeneland's director of sales. "But still we have some people left over from Book One who are shopping away. There is plenty of action in the barns, and people are pleased with what they're seeing out there."

Your horse. Our passion.

ANZ BLOODSTOCK NEWS

Once upon a time, I was fortunate enough to have paid employment on racing's electronic media platforms. That means I had a couple of gigs on the radio and the telly.

Steve Moran

🐦 @stevem_moran

It was nice while it lasted, although I did much prefer radio to television. I did constantly think to myself "what, these people want to pay me perfectly good money to rabbit on about horse racing. I can do that!"

The only downside to that level of public exposure, albeit in a relatively small world I hasten to add, was that you were very much open to scrutiny. Criticism actually. And the level of vitriol, on occasions, was such that you'd be absolutely taken aback.

In those days, people put pen to paper and went to the trouble of walking down to the post office to despatch their epistle via snail mail. They had to really hate you to go to that trouble.

Sometimes, the correspondence might be mildly amusing if delivered with good humour rather than invective. Sometimes it was befuddling. I had one solicitor's letter demanding that his client be reimbursed the $4,000 he'd lost on a horse I'd apparently said 'would win'.

The claimant, as the radio station's lawyer noted, shot himself in the foot by saying he'd had $2,000 each way on the horse. He, therefore, hadn't truly been swayed by me that it would win. Nothing came of it.

But generally the correspondence was downright vitriolic. One four page letter arrived and I admit, at first, I chuckled as I read page one where the writer had accurately identified the odd foible of one or two of my colleagues. However, the following three pages were

"TRUTHFULLY, I GOT SICK OF THE SOUND OF MY OWN VOICE ON OCCASIONS. I SHUDDERED TO THINK WHAT THE AUDIENCE WAS THINKING."

'dedicated' to me and, paraphrased, read as 'I hope you burn in hell.'

Thus I feel for those so exposed these days as a vicious Tweet is much easier to send than a handwritten letter.

And I learned to be a little forgiving of on air gaffes from others. It is very easy to blurt out something stupid when you have a producer or director, via an earpiece, telling you to 'keep talking' when you've already said everything you felt was worth saying.

On one such occasion, I declared Roman Arch (Archway) couldn't win the 2003 Toorak Handicap (Gr 1, 1600m). I said it for no apparent reason. Home it steamed at 20/1. Truthfully, I got sick of the sound of my own voice on occasions. I shuddered to think what the audience was thinking.

That experience has me circumspect in terms of criticising what is on offer these days from Pravda, that is Racing.com.

So, we'll start with the positive. Sam Doran's recently aired doco-feature on former jockey Frank Reys is the best piece of racing television screened for quite some time. Please sir, I want some more.

The introduction of "After The Last" is commendable. It's well produced, presented and informative and vaguely resembles 'real' television.

Pleasingly, the ridiculous 'Bullring' has been axed. Memo, corporate bookmakers' representatives. Please try to tell me something of interest. "There's been good money for so and so,' is meaningless drivel. Where's the 'bad' money gone? Probably be handy to know which horse the more nefarious members of our racing community are backing.

Only kidding. But surely there's more intelligence you can provide. Perhaps, revealing that a certain punter who has a fantastic strike rate betting on horses from certain stables, has backed so and so. Or that someone has heavily backed a horse in the Caulfield Cup (Gr 1, 2400m), for example, before it runs an imminent lead-up race.

Roman Arch

SPORTPIX

Better still, why don't you knock my socks off and get on air and say that said lead-up winner was 'unimpressive' and therefore we haven't cut its price for the Caulfield Cup which is what invariably happens without a bet being laid.

I digress. I'd like to see the Sunday morning show reintroduced with Jason Richardson (playing the professional host), Matt Stewart (who has the right feel for the man in the street) and Brent Zerafa (who likes to disagree with Matt). No major production costs there, I wouldn't have thought. And there are some improvements needed to the nuts and bolts of the website which I'm happy to run through, for them at any time.

As to two of the flagship shows, I have some issue with 'Get On' and 'That's Racing'. 'Get On' has descended into something of a giggle fest. I don't mind it being light-hearted but I'd just like to see a bit of vigorous form debate between David Gately and Clint Hutchison who are both good judges and seem to approach the form from differing perspectives.

'That's Racing' under utilises one of the smartest men in the Australian media in Ross Stevenson. Ross, really 'Zola the magnificent'? This show could really work in more the Graham Norton style with Ross and Hamish McLachlan interviewing two or three guests 'on the couch' and with only a small percentage of the conversation being devoted to horse racing.

Anyway, that's what I reckon.....without, I hope, any real or perceived vitriol.

Trainer Tan Kah Soon scores early first feature win

By Michael Lee

@anz_news

Clarton Super

STC

Tan Kah Soon is the latest new-generation trainer at Kranji to join the Group-winning club after Clarton Super (Swift Alliance) came from behind to land a stylish win in the S$350,000 E W Barker Trophy (SGP Gr 2, 1400m) on Friday night.

In the past, Singapore first-year trainers took a while to hit their straps, let alone open their 'black type' account, but a noticeable trend in the change of the guard has gained traction of late, with those young bucks taking little time to claim the big races - and a few scalps along the way.

Up until Friday, the former Darley Flying Start alumnus and Godolphin assistant-trainer had one solitary win to show for, Conatus General (Conatus) on 145 October. In one fell swoop, he has trebled the score (Golden Mile scored earlier on the card for Michael Rodd) in the space of three races, bagging a feature race in the process.

"I'm very happy, especially as he was a bit disappointing at his last start, even if I knew the big weight would be a concern. But I guess tonight's win has made up for it," said Tan as he referred to Clarton Super's last-start fifth in a Kranji Stakes C race over 1400 metres on 29 October.

"But he is a quality horse and with the light weight (Azhar Ismail rode him 1.5 kilos over at 51.5 kilos) helping, he proved it tonight, even if his prep leading up to tonight was probably not what we wanted.

"If he had won at his last start, I was actually thinking of running him in the Gold Cup, but it's worked out good in the end. I've won a Group Two race only two months after I started, I can't complain.

"I have to thank the owner (Pentagon Stable) for keeping the horse with me (used to be trained by his former boss David Hill), and of course my father and my family."

Unsung in the initial stages, Clarton Super ($51) lobbed along worse than midfield, three wide for Azhar while Pole Paradise (Shaft) gunned for the lead throughout but was unable to cross with White Hunter (Fastnet Rock) kicking up on the rails to keep him honest.

As the 14-horse field swung for home, it became increasingly clear the two leaders were about to call it a night, and the winner would come from elsewhere.

Trainer Shane Baertschiger's duo of Aramco (Magic Albert), the 3-1 favourite and Best Tothelign (Align) were among the first to pounce, but it was Tan's Clarton Super in his yellow and pink silks who was looming as the biggest threat on the outside.

Though a little awkward as Azhar pulled the trigger while trying to counter his inclination to lug in, the five-year-old was simply unstoppable when he unleashed his devastating turn of foot to sweep past his rivals one after another, going on to score by half a length from Fortune Winner (Include).

Aramco ran third another length away, with the winning time 1:22.17 for the 1400 metres on the Long Course.

Clarton Super's success also showed that the old and the new guard can combine to reap the rewards when it matters.

If Tan was at his maiden Group accolade while he was still making baby steps, veteran stalwart Azhar at 54, has been a regular fixture at such occasions over the three decades he had been shuttling between his Malaysian home and Singapore.

"This is incredible. I'm very happy I've won another Group race in Singapore, especially when I'm not getting any younger and the competition is so tough," said Azhar.

"Riding is more of a hobby now as all my kids are grown up. I want to stay fit and horse racing is also my passion.

"At his (Clarton Super) last run, my nephew (Amirul Ismadi) rode him and told me he felt flat. Tonight, he was different, I could tell from the moment I jumped on that he was back to his best, on his A-game.

"I also galloped him on Tuesday and the feeling he gave me was very good.

"He's a horse you have to switch off at the back, and stay on the outside and he will respond better, but he's also a horse who needs to chase something.

"Tonight, he had a few horses in front of him. You just have to time his run properly and he will do the rest."

1.00 Panasonic It Stick Type Vacuum Cleaner Handicap (Class 5) (3yo+) (Course A) (Turf) Winner £39,310.34

£91954.02 For 3yo+ Winning Controller's Handicap Mark 39 Penalty value 1st £39,310.34 2nd £15,172.41 3rd £7,931.03 4th £4,137.93 5th £2,413.79

Table of race results for the 1.00 Panasonic It Stick Type Vacuum Cleaner Handicap, listing horses, jockeys, and trainers.

BETTING FORECAST: 4 Telecom Boom, 5 Actuariat, 6 Real Deal, 7 Brilliant Monkeys, Winning Controller, 8 Gainfuljet, Victory Follow Me, 16 Gold Talent, 20 Born To Race, Happy Century, Victory Music, 25 Great Sky, 33 Magical Champion, No Laughing Matter. VERDICT REAL DEAL, who ran well over 6f when dropped to this class of race last month and might fare even better now back up in trip. Brilliant Monkeys looks interesting on his debut for a trainer who has made an impressive start to the season. Good cases can also be made for Winning Controller, Telecom Boom and Actuariat.

1.30 Panasonic Heat-Pump Air Conditioner Handicap (Class 4) (3yo+) (Course A) (Turf) Winner £52,413.79

£91954.02 For 3yo+ Travel Emperor's Handicap Mark 60 Penalty value 1st £52,413.79 2nd £20,229.89 3rd £10,574.71 4th £5,517.24 5th £3,218.39

Table of race results for the 1.30 Panasonic Heat-Pump Air Conditioner Handicap, listing horses, jockeys, and trainers.

Table of race results for the 2.00 Panasonic New Stars For Kitchen Handicap (Class 4) (3yo+) (Course A) (Turf) Winner £52,413.79, listing horses, jockeys, and trainers.

BETTING FORECAST: 3 Gouten Of Garo, 4 Tourbillon King, 5 Cheerfuljet, 8 Travel Emperor, 12 Fish N' Chips, Hot Hot Pepper, Massive Move, 16 Multimax, Richcity Fortune, Zero Hedge, 25 Buoyant Boy, Presidentparamount, Wish Come True, 33 Sports Master. VERDICT Gouten Of Garo won a trial here last month and the booking of Joao Moreira suggests a big run is expected on today's official debut. However, another chance is given to CHEERFULJET, who was a rather disappointing favourite over 6f at Happy Valley last month but still has very low mileage and might benefit from today's drop in trip. Tourbillon King went close over C&D three weeks ago and is respected.

2.00 Panasonic New Stars For Kitchen Handicap (Class 4) (3yo+) (Course A) (Turf) Winner £52,413.79

£91954.02 For 3yo+ Weight for age 3 from 4yo+ 2lb Great Treasure's Handicap Mark 55 Penalty value 1st £52,413.79 2nd £20,229.89 3rd £10,574.71 4th £5,517.24 5th £3,218.39

Table of race results for the 2.00 Panasonic New Stars For Kitchen Handicap, listing horses, jockeys, and trainers.

Table of race results for the 2.30 Panasonic Nano Hair Dryer Handicap (Class 4) (3yo+) (Course A) (Turf) Winner £52,413.79, listing horses, jockeys, and trainers.

BETTING FORECAST: 5-2 Ever Laugh, 3 Indigenous Star, 7 Viva Council, 10 Hit A Home Run, Master Bernini, 12 Destin, Great Treasure, 14 Play It, 20 Fine With Me, Gleanly Prize, Triumphant Light, 33 The Show, Unique Joyous, 66 Star Of Hong Kong. VERDICT Indigenous Star was placed over C&D when upped to 1m three weeks ago and might have more to offer but preference is for EVER LAUGH, who was strong in the closing stages when third over 7f here last month and, after only three starts, has plenty of scope for further improvement now upped in trip. Master Bernini has made progress for his new stable this season and also tries a new trip today.

2.30 Panasonic Nano Hair Dryer Handicap (Class 4) (3yo+) (Course A) (Turf) Winner £52,413.79

£91954.02 For 3yo+ Weight for age 3 from 4yo+ 1lb Sun Touch's Handicap Mark 60 Penalty value 1st £52,413.79 2nd £20,229.89 3rd £10,574.71 4th £5,517.24 5th £3,218.39

Table of race results for the 2.30 Panasonic Nano Hair Dryer Handicap, listing horses, jockeys, and trainers.

BETTING FORECAST: 5 Smart Charade, 11-2 Roman Impero, 6 Beauty Day, Sunny Orient, 8 Right Honourable, Sun Touch, 10 Ambitious Speedy, Royale Elegance, 14 Regency Darling, 16 Numero Uno, 20 Amazing Always, Dashing Dart, 33 Fresh Power, 50 Har Har Heart. VERDICT Two of the newcomers, Beauty Day and Smart Charade, are of interest but this might go to RIGHT HONOURABLE, who was competitive off much higher marks last season and now drops in class after a very respectable fifth over 6f last month. Sun Touch is not straightforward, but he's another class-dropper with possibilities.

3.00 Panasonic 4k Oled TV Handicap (Class 4) (3yo+) (Course A) (Turf) Winner £52,413.79

£91954.02 For 3yo+ Lucky Time's Handicap Mark 57 Penalty value 1st £52,413.79 2nd £20,229.89 3rd £10,574.71 4th £5,517.24 5th £3,218.39

VERDICT Plenty of disappointments line up in this and it would be no surprise if one of the three newcomers were good enough to take this in their Hong Kong debut. One that has the potential to improve is SUPER HOPPY who made his debut over C&D last month and put in a pleasing effort to finish fourth to Super Fluke and should be able to build on that. Iron Boy is interesting as he is now back down to his last winning mark so he should be showing more while Primo needs to bounce back from a poor display last time out to the form shown earlier in the season.

VERDICT Rattan hasn't looked back this season, winning both his starts comfortably, but he now faces his stiffest task at the weights, he's not helped by the draw and for that reason the vote goes to IMPERIAL GALANTRY who under the revised terms should have a lot to offer in this. Sergeant Titanium has run well this season and if building on his latest start should be competitive and rates as the danger.

VERDICT bRegency Bo Bo who has run well in all his three starts this season should once again be competitive despite a 5lb rise but that should mean that WORLD RECORD who was close up in third beaten less than 1l recently should be getting revenge under the revised weights. Sure to come on to that seasonal return, he gets the vote over G-One Lover who did well to chase home Starlight last month and will relish the return to 7f.
