REKINDLING LIGHTS UP FLEMINGTON WITH THRILLING CUP WIN

Joseph O'Brien denies father Aidan in $6,000,000 showpiece

By Tim Rowe

The 24-year-old former jockey turned trainer Joseph O'Brien denied his father Aidan a first win in the Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) at Flemington yesterday when Rekindling (High Chaparral) showed an impressive turn of foot to run down Johannes Vermeer (Galileo) in the closing stages to land the $6,000,000 handicap.

<< Continued from page 1 The four-year-old entire edged clear to beat Johannes Vermeer ($13) by a long neck, and in the process gave jockey Corey Brown a second Melbourne Cup victory.

The Willie Mullins-trained Max Dynamite (Great Journey) was two and a half lengths back in third place, completing an Irish-trained trifecta, while the Australian Bloodstock-owned and Darren Weir-trained Big Duke (Raven's Pass) was fourth, another two and three quarter lengths away.

Rekindling ($15) won the Curragh Cup (Gr 2, 1m6f), defeating Melbourne Cup rival Wicklow Brave (Beat Hollow) by half a length and was then runner-up to Order Of St George (Galileo), a horse trained by Aidan O'Brien, in the St Leger Trial (Gr 3, 1m6f) on 19 August.

O'Brien, who also became the youngest ever trainer to land the Melbourne Cup, said it was at the suggestion of part-owner Nick Williams to target the Flemington showpiece with Rekindling.

"He is not a big horse, 420 kilos, but he is an easy horse to train," O'Brien said.

"Nick suggested he would be an ideal horse for the Cup. We just keep him fresh and keep racing him.

"I'm almost speechless. He was brilliant and an unbelievable ride by Corey."

Aidan O'Brien has prepared a record 27 Group / Grade One winners in 2017. The second placing was O'Brien Sr's best result in a Melbourne Cup since his first starter in 2007 when Mahler (Galileo) finished third.

Brown, who rode Shocking (Street Cry) to win the Melbourne Cup in 2009, chased the ride on Rekindling six weeks ago and was delighted when Williams confirmed O'Brien had agreed to secure the lightweight jockey.

"I can count on one hand the number of times I've worn these colours," Brown said.

"But my manager and I picked this horse out as a lightweight chance and I sent my resume in to Mr Williams. He contacted Joseph in Ireland and got back to me within 24 hours.

"It was great knowing that far out I was on a horse who was a really good hope in the race.

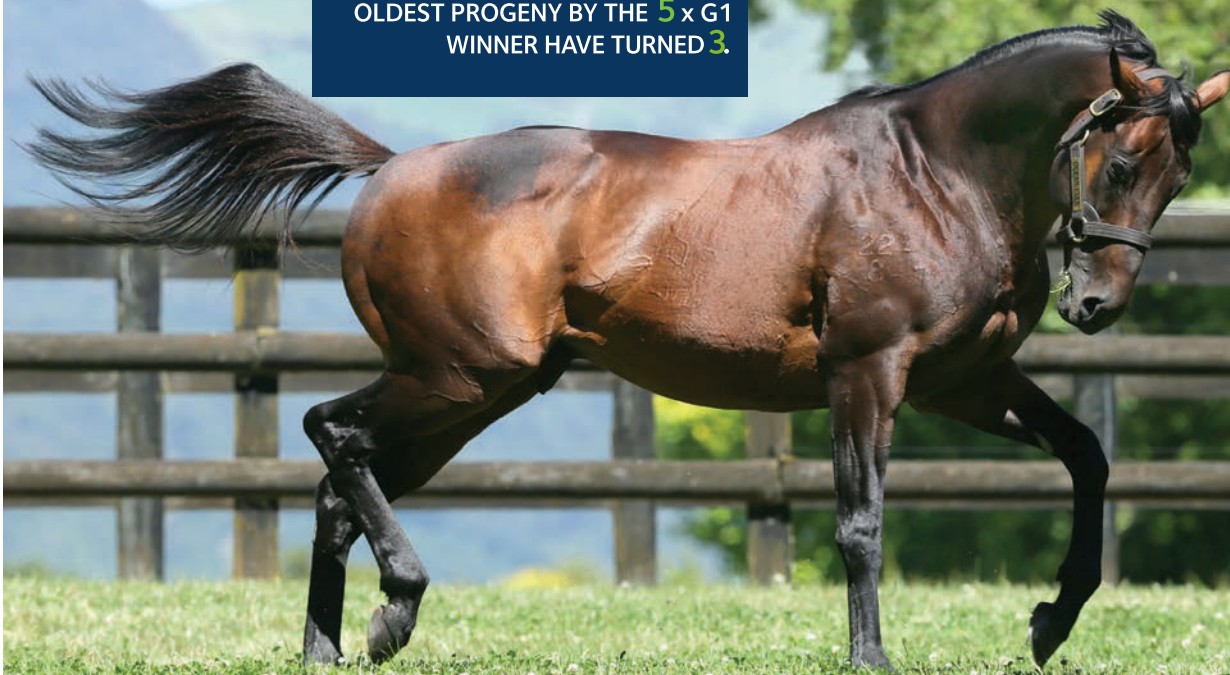

"I was so happy to get the ride and so happy to win."

"I've won some big races in the nine months since I've been back but I still feel like I haven't found my place yet," Brown said.

"This feels quite surreal and it's a different feeling from my first Melbourne Cup. It's hard to explain but my family is here and my daughters are old enough to appreciate it now. It is so special."

Corey Brown

SPORTPIX

From barrier four, Brown had Rekindling settled in tenth spot on the fence enjoying a nice run, although the jockey said the early stages of the race did not pan out as he expected.

"I was concerned in the first furlong because there was more early speed than I thought there would be," he said.

"There was a bit of confusion in front of me so I just let the horse relax and get into his rhythm. He was always travelling and I felt he was the winner a furlong out."

Ben Melham rode Johannes Vermeer, who was runner-up in the Caulfield Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) and third in the Caulfield Cup (Gr 1, 2400m), and said he thought he was the winner with 200 metres to go.

"We had a good run throughout the race. I was spending the money at the furlong, I thought we were home but probably the weight was the difference," Melham said.

Eight-year-old gelding Max Dynamite ($20) ran third in the Melbourne Cup, having finished runner-up to Prince Of Penzance (Pentire) in 2015.

Jockey Zac Purton said the veteran stayer, who mixes Flat racing with jumping, had performed well but was no match for Rekindling and Johannes Vermeer.

"It was an excellent run, very brave. He took the tight run when I asked him to and I thought when he got through there he'd really fight but it was a terrific effort anyway," Purton said.

Max Dynamite's two stablemates Thomas Hobson (Halling) (sixth) and Wicklow Brave (tenth) also earned $125,000 prize money each by finishing in the top ten.

Big Duke ($21) was the best-performed of trainer Darren Weir's three runners in the Melbourne Cup, finishing fourth, with stablemates Amelie's Star (Testa Rossa) ($21) and Humidor (Teofilo) ($11) finishing 14th and 19th respectively.

A European import purchased by Australian Bloodstock last year, Big Duke was one of two horses in the race for the syndicator, with the Andreas Wohler-trained Red Cardinal (Montjeu) ($16) finishing 11th.

Brenton Avdulla rode Big Duke and for a fleeting moment thought he could win the race.

"He was awesome. I had a perfect run and followed Corey (Brown) through and I thought I was half a chance on the corner but he ran out of his skin," Avdulla said.

CELEBRATING 150 YEARS

Williams praises Rekindling's trainer

Rekindling's victory was Williams Sr's sixth win in the Melbourne Cup, which started with Just A Dash (Whiskey Road) in 1981, and third in the past six years.

Williams, who owned six runners in yesterday's Melbourne Cup, also won the race in 1985 with and the John Meagher-trained What A Nuisance (St Puckle), Efficient (Zabeel) in 2007, Green Moon (Montjeu) in 2012 and Almandin (Monsun) last year.

Almandin, who was a well supported $7 equal favourite with the

Joseph O'Brien, Lloyd Williams and Corey Brown

SPORTPIX

Hughie Morrison-trained Marmelo (Duke Of Marmalade), finished 12th yesterday after being caught wide throughout for jockey Frankie Dettori.

"Gee, I love standing up here on this stage," Williams said.

"This is an amazing day for me because here is a young horse and an even younger trainer.

"We are very, very fortunate to be here on this iconic race day for Melbourne which I hope one day might be a national holiday."

As well as runner-up Johannes Vermeer, Williams had US Army Ranger (Galileo) ($71) finish 18th, with Bondi Beach (Galileo) ($71) and Gallante (Montjeu) ($91) tailing the field in 22nd and 23rd spot respectively.

Williams said Rekindling would be spelled at his private training centre at Mount Macedon, west of Melbourne, before returning to Ireland to be aimed at the Gold Cup (Gr 1, 2m4f) at Royal Ascot next year.

"(Rekindling) will have a little while on the green grass at Macedon Lodge and then Joseph has to prepare him for the Gold Cup," Williams said.

"He is an extraordinary young trainer. He's close to being able to walk on water. It's great to see his career kicked off seriously here."

"It's nice for Rekindling to have his day in the sun"

Meanwhile, Rekindling (4 c High Chaparral - Sitara by Salse) has now won four of his ten starts with prize money of $4,123,308.

Of those five winners, Rekindling has won three stakes races, the Curragh Cup and the Ballysax Stakes (Gr 3, 1m 2f) to go with his Group One victory in the Melbourne Cup, while his brother Golden Sword (High Chaparral) is a Group Three winner who was also runner-up in the Irish Derby (Gr 1, 1m 4f).

Skimmia (Mark Of Esteem), an unraced half-sister to Rekindling, is also the dam of US Listed winner Julie's Love (Ad Valorem) and the stakes-placed Julissima (Beat Hollow) and second dam of fellow German stakes-placed winning juvenile Julio (Exceed And Excel). Also hailing from Redkindling's family is Champion Older Female in Ireland of 2014, Irish Oaks (Gr 1, 1m 4f) winner Chicuita (Montjeu) and Alexandrova (Sadler's Wells), the Champion 3YO Filly in Great Britain and Ireland in 2006. The Champion Older Male Stayer in Germany in 2016 Alex My Boy (Dalakhani), a son of Alexandrova, also features in the Melbourne Cup winner's pedigree.

In an Australian connection, the Darren Weir-trained Tall Ship (Sea The Stars), a European import for OTI Racing who won the Warrnambool Cup (Listed, 2350m) and the Werribee Cup (Listed, 2600m), is a son of Group One winner Magical Romance (Barathea), herself a daughter of Rekindling's second dam Souk (Ahoonora).

By the late Coolmore shuttle stallion High Chaparral (Sadler's Wells), who also sired Saturday's Victoria Derby (Gr 1, 2500m) winner Ace High, Rekindling is one of 108 individual stakes winners and 20 Group One winners for his sire.

Sitara, meanwhile, has a yearling colt by four-time Group One dual Derby winner Australia (Galileo) and a weanling filly by fellow Coolmore-based stallion Gleneagles (Galileo), who is set to go through the ring at the upcoming Tattersalls December Foal Sale and will be catalogued as Lot 886.

Rekindling himself was bred by in Somerset in the UK by the Pocock Family, who purchased his dam Sitara for 10,000 guineas at the Tattersalls December Mare Sale in 2002 from the Fittocks Stud draft and Nick Pocock, who runs Stringston Farm, told ANZ Bloodstock News yesterday they had tried to retain as much as the family as possible.

"We have a few of Sitara's daughters - Skimmia and Timely Words - here and Skimmia herself has done well as a broodmare, producing a stakes winner in America. We've collected a fair bit of the family - we try and keep as many of them as we can."

The Gleneagles foal the mare has will be going through at Tattersalls December mare sale and Pocock said that because the High Chaparral line works so well with Sitara the mare has been most recently been covered by one of his sons Toronado, who shuttles to Swettenham Stud for the Southern Hemisphere breeding season. Continued on page 8>>

"The mare is back in foal to Toronado, going back along the High Chaparral line, and generally the family works well with a bit of Darshaan in the progeny and Sitara doesn't have any Darshaan, so that's where we think High Chaparral works really well in that family.

"We felt High Chaparral has been a bit underrated with his horses in Europe and we loved him.

"Golden Sword was one from his second crop and he was a real tough horse and he always tried his heart out. He was second in an Irish Derby and he was always pacemaking at Ballydoyle and we felt that he probably could have got his day in the sun, but it's great that Rekindling has now done that to highlight what the mare can do," Pocock continued.

The son of High Chaparral (Sadler's Wells) also provided the Pocock Family with their first bred Group One winner and Pocock said it was thrilling to land this feat in a race with such a rich history.

"It's very exciting, it's the first Group One winner we bred and it's pleasing to do it in such a big race. Rekindling had really good form in Europe and we felt he would have his day in the sun, but it is nice to have such a big day in the sun for him," continue Pocock.

"We've never really known how big the Melbourne Cup really is until you watch the actual race and all the build-up and the hype before, it's kind of amazing really.

"It's lovely to have such a big one first time out and to have a young horse to do it as well is good. It is amazing to be part of the history it will be nice to have Rekindling in there now, written into the history books."

What the beaten jockeys said:

Ben Melham - Johannes Vermeer (2nd): "We had a good run throughout the race. I was spending the money at the furlong (200m), I thought we were home but probably the weight was the difference."

Zac Purton - Max Dynamite (3rd): "It was an excellent run, very brave. He took the tight run when I asked him to and I thought when he got through there he'd really fight but it was a terrific effort anyway."

Brenton Avdulla - Big Duke (4th): "He was awesome. I had a perfect run and followed Corey (Brown) through and I thought I was half a chance on the corner but he ran out of his skin."

Glyn Schofield - Nakeeta (5th): "Super run. He just kept coming strongly, it was a good run."

Ben Allen - Thomas Hobson (6th): "He probably switched off a bit too well, he just didn't pick up the bridle at all early. Once I steadied up they kind of sprinted away from us but I thought he ran really well."

Olivier Peslier - Tiberian (7th): "I hit the front a little bit too soon for me. From the straight he was coming well but just over the last 200m he weakened."

Dwayne Dunn - Libran (8th): "He ran really well, as good as he could run and to finish top 10 was a great effort."

Hugh Bowman - Marmelo (9th): "I expected a bit more. I had to make a little bit of use of him early but I had a nice position and he relaxed well. The pressure built a bit earlier than I would've liked I must admit but I thought he would've taken me a bit further."

Stephen Baster - Wicklow Brave (10th): "He ran well but he just didn't have any early speed so I ended up last and then I didn't get going until 650 and he got home good."

Kerrin McEvoy - Red Cardinal (11th): "He ran into it with nice aggression around the corner and got into the clear but I think he just felt the ground over the last furlong-and-a-half (300m). I think (the track being rated) a Soft 5 or a Soft 6 would be better for him out here."

Frankie Dettori - Almandin (12th): "I was stuck three-wide but the horse was flat. He never carried me today and ran like a flat horse."

Beau Mertens - Cismontane (13th): "I'm happy with the performance. Obviously a lot of good horses finished in front of him but he did the best he could."

Dean Yendall - Amelie's Star (14th): "I expected a bit more of a genuine tempo which got us stuck out (wide) and it wasn't ideal the run we had, I would've liked to have had a bit more cover during the early stages of the race. I was still patient as obviously I'd been trapped wide and I didn't want to get going too early so I let her be happy and let her work into it at the top of the straight but she just didn't see out the two miles (3200m) without that bit of cover. I'd like to have it over again and see if she'd be better with a bit of cover."

Cory Parish - Boom Time (15th): "It was probably just a bit too slow of a tempo for him. He's probably better suited at a mile-and-a-half (2400m) were there's a little bit more speed in the race."

Craig Williams - Wall Of Fire (16th): "It was a muddling, stop and start race and I thought my horse responded really well under those conditions. He came off the bridle at the 700m which is normally to his liking and when I cut the corner and balanced him up I expected him to stay on but he didn't stay on at all today so hopefully he comes through the race well. He just didn't run up to his European form."

Kathy O'Hara - Single Gaze (17th): "She was knocked around a lot in the race and never had a lot of luck in running. She was brave enough to run past a couple late but it was just too rough for her."

Jamie Spencer - US Army Ranger (18th): "He passed a few beaten ones but I never thought he'd win."

Blake Shinn - Humidor (19th): "He just doesn't run two miles (3200m), it's as simple as that. He gave me a nice ride throughout but when the pressure went on he didn't respond."

Damian Lane - Hartnell (20th): "He didn't see it out today. He settled in a lovely rhythm and at the 400 I knew he wasn't going to run (the distance) out."

Glen Boss - Ventura Storm (21st): No comment.

Michael Walker - Bondi Beach (22nd): "I don't think his mind really wants to be there at the moment. He tried to run through the fence for the first 50 metres of the race."

Mick Dee - Gallante (23rd): "He was very disappointing. The track was obviously a little bit too dry for him but I didn't expect him to go that badly."

Mossman mare Pedrena takes out Hong Kong Jockey Club Stakes

<< Continued from page 9 The Mick Price-trained four-year-old mare, who started as a $9 chance, defeated the Tony McEvoy-trained Cool Passion (Not A Single Doubt) ($9.50) by a half neck, with the Henry Dwyer-trained Swampland (Redwood) another one and a quarter lengths away in third place.

Pedrena, who raced once for a fourth at Caulfield as a two-year-old, was sparingly raced as a three-year-old having just two starts last spring and given starts last autumn and early winter.

In that time she won four races including a city success at Caulfield in May and Flemington in June before finishing second first up to Cool Passion in the Northwood Plume Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) on 14 October.

Jockey Michael Dee was able to settle Pedrena in eighth spot near the rail behind a solid tempo before showing a strong turn of foot to win the $200,000 race yesterday.

Dee, who rode the mare when she won her maiden at Cranbourne in October 2016, was again onboard yesterday, continuing the lightweight jockey's successful Spring Carnival.

Dee said Price had been a big supporter of his since moving to Melbourne from New Zealand, firstly as his master and now supporting him as a senior jockey.

"He's been a big supporter of mine so to get a Group race win for him is a huge thrill," Dee said.

"When I first came over I was with Mick and he was my main supporter. He still is one of my main supporters, so it's a huge thrill."

Dee's first Spring Carnival has included his first Group One win on Foundry (Galileo) in The Metropolitan (Gr 1, 2400m) at Randwick in September and another win on Shillelagh (Savabeel) in the Myer Classic (registered as Empire Rose Stakes) (Gr 1, 1600m) at Flemington on Saturday.

Dee finished last on Gallante in the Melbourne Cup.

"Obviously I would have wanted a better result in the Cup today," Dee said.

"But having a ride in it was the main thing and enjoying it was probably the best thing to do. At least now I can say I've had a ride in the Melbourne Cup which is probably huge for my CV."

The favourite for the race was the Jason Coyle-trained White Moss

(Mossman) ($3.60), who won the Nivison Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at her penultimate start at Randwick, but was caught in an awkward spot back in the field from barrier two and never got clear running.

The four-year-old daughter of Mossman (Success Express) finished second last, seven lengths behind Pedrena, with jockey Jason Collett telling stewards the Sydney-trained mare was on the wrong leg for the entirety of the race.

A $60,000 Magic Millions National Yearling Sale purchase by Price from the Twin Palms Stud draft, Pedrena (4 m Mossman - Hansom Cab by Awesome Again) yesterday continued her rapid improvement with recording her first stakes win and fifth from ten starts. The Group Three winner took her prize money earnings to $315,200.

Bred by the Esplin family, Pedrena is the first stakes winner for Hansom Cab (Awesome Again), an unraced half-sister to Dowager Stakes (Listed, 12f) winner Moments Of Magic (Danzig). Moments Of Magic is the dam of two stakes performers in the US including Grade One-placed Zann (Dynaformer) and the second dam of US Listed winner Mines And Magic (Mineshaft).

The Esplin family also bred and raced Coolmore Classic (registered as TAD Kennedy Stakes) winner Plucky Belle, also a daughter of Mossman.

Pedrena's third dam is the US Listed winner Out Cold (Etonian), who has produced eight foals to race for seven winners including Grade Two winners Ten Below (Avatar) and Fortnightly (Dance Spell).

Hansom Cab's now three-year-old son by Magic Albert (Zeditave) called Alberation was bought at the Magic Millions National Yearling Sale in 2016 by David Coles for $80,000 from the Esplins' Twin Palms Stud. She also has a yearling filly by Stratum (Redoute's Choice) and is due to foal this month to Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m) winner Adelaide (Galileo).

Now trading under Tartan Fields, the Esplin family also bred and raced White Moss.

Mossman is the sire of 37 individual stakes winners including five Group One winners. Star sprinter Buffering, Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Mossfun, Ofcourseican, Plucky Belle and Miss Mossman are all Group One winners by the Vinery Stud-based stallion.

Golden Slipper goal for Setsuna

In-form trainers Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott will set promising filly Setsuna (Choisir) for next year's Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) after the two-year-old took out yesterday's Ottawa Stakes (Gr 3, 1000m) at Flemington.

Setsuna, a last start winner of the Inglis Banner (RL, 1000m) at Moonee Valley, made it two wins from three starts and provided Waterhouse and Bott with back-to-back victories in the Ottawa Stakes.

The pair won the same race last year with Invincible Star (I Am Invincible), who was runner-up in Saturday's Coolmore Stud Stakes (registered as Ascot Vale Stakes) (Gr 1, 1200m) at Flemington.

Setsuna ($4.60), ridden by Stephen Baster, kicked strongly after going straight to the lead in the straight-track sprint for two-year-old fillies to defeat the Tony McEvoy-trained stablemates Roobeena (Exceed And Excel) ($10) by one and a quarter lengths with another first starter Aristocratic Miss (Foxwedge) ($14) another length away third.

Debutant Stakes (Listed, 1000m) winner Qafila (Not A Single Doubt) ($2.80 favourite) made up ground from back in the field to finish fourth.

Setsuna was runner-up to Satin Slipper (Pierro) in the Gimcrack Stakes (Listed, 1000m) at her first start at Randwick before winning her past two starts in Melbourne.

After yesterday's success, Bott confirmed the Darby Racing-owned filly would be spelled and aimed at the Golden Slipper Stakes in the autumn.

"I think she's proven herself well and truly this preparation and she's done enough so we'll look after her now," Bott said.

"We'll give her a good spell in the paddock and we'll bring her back for a Golden Slipper campaign.

"That should give her some prize money now to help qualify her into the Slipper."

The prize money won at Moonee Valley in the race restricted to Inglis graduates, however, does not count towards the Golden Slipper Stakes ballot order in March.

"I guess that was part of the reason why we wanted to come here today as well," Bott said.

"But she came out of that Moonee Valley race in such good order and she's an incredibly tough filly.

"She was very professional today so she's starting to put it all together.

Setsuna

"She's showed that natural speed and gave a good kick. She gave nothing else a chance to get into the race."

Passed in for $50,000 (reserve $55,000) by Manx Park at this year's Inglis Classic Yearling Sale, Setsuna (2 f Choisir - Longoria by Lujain) has now won twice from three starts and earned $259,200 in prize money.

Setsuna is a daughter of the Sydney-winning juvenile Longoria (Lujain), who has had five named foals to race, all winners, including Setsuna and Perth Listed winner Miss Solis (Oratorio (IRE)).

Setsuna's second dam, the winning mare Frontier Girl (Omicorp), is a three quarters sister to Queen Elizabeth Stakes (Gr 2, 2500m) winner Frontier Boy (Grosvenor) and a half-sister to Norman Robinson Stakes (Listed, 2000m) winner Dundas Lane (Vice Regal). Another half-sister, Passefleure (Vice Regal), is the dam of Melbourne Cup winner Jezabeel (Zabeel) and Tasmanian Derby (Gr 3, 2400m) winner Ashley Grove (Kaaestad).

Setsuna's dam Longoria has a yearling colt by So You Think (High Chaparral) and missed to Hallowed Crown (Street Sense) in 2016.

Standing at Coolmore for a fee of $29,700 (inc GST), Choisir is the sire of 86 individual stakes winners including 11 at Group One level. Last season, Choisir sired ATC Champagne Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) winner The Mission and Caulfield Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) winner Divine Prophet, who has been retired to stud at Aquis Farm in the Hunter Valley.

20 for High Chaparral

The late Coolmore stallion High Chaparral (Sadler's Wells) sired his 20th Group One winner yesterday when the Joseph O'Brien-trained Rekindling (4 c ex Sitara by Salse) ran out an impressive winner of the Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) at Flemington. The four-year-old colt showed an impressive turn of foot to run down Johannes Vermeer (Galileo), who was trained by O'Brien's father Aidan, eventually beating him by half a length with another two and a half lengths back to Max Dynamite (Great Journey) in third. Big Duke (Raven's Pass) finished two and three quarter lengths adrift in fourth. High Chaparral has sired 108 stakes winners overall and he died in 2014, aged 15.

Mullins vows to return to the Melbourne Cup

Trainer Willie Mullins has vowed to keep returning to the Melbourne Cup after he had to settle for another placing in the $6,000,000 race. Mullins had three runners in yesterday's race with Max Dynamite finishing the best of the trio in third, with the gelding having run second behind Prince Of Penzance (Pentire) in 2015. Max Dynamite's stablemates, Thomas Hobson (Halling) and Wicklow Brave (Beat Hollow) finished sixth and tenth respectively. "Max Dynamite looked like he had a great chance turning for home," Mullins said. "He was looking for room to get out and when he got out he just didn't have the speed of the younger horses. He got out and just didn't have the legs at this stage of his career to finish it off. But he ran a fantastic race and I was delighted with him."

Connections pleased with Nakeeta

Trainer Iain Jardine believes Nakeeta (Sixties Icon) would have fared better in the Melbourne Cup if he had drawn a better barrier. The seven-year-old gelding, who was attempting to be the first Scottish-trained winner of the race, started from barrier 19 under Glyn Schofield and put in a brave performance to finish fifth, six and a half lengths behind the winner Rekindling. "He didn't have the best draw in the world but he's come here and picked up some good prizemoney," Jardine said. "It was a fantastic run to finish fifth. We're happy enough but it could have much better as he had to sit and suffer from where he was early on. This horse is a good horse. His effort It gives us heart to come back with the right horse."

Nakeeta

Morrison: 'Marmelo didn't stay'

After being sent off the $7 joint favourite, the Hughie Morrison-trained Marmelo (Duke Of Marmalade) could only manage a ninth place finish and Morrison said his initial reaction was that the five-year-old stayed the distance, but despite this, he was not ruling out returning next year. Marmelo attracted the attention of punters off the back of his fast-finishing sixth place run in the Caulfield Cup (Gr 1, 2400m), but Morrison said yesterday he thought the entire had run 'flat'. "You would have to say on the form, he's run flat," Morrison said. "In my book he was beaten too far out. We were beaten two furlongs out and that's not him. He ran too well last time out. He runs well fresh and I always err on the side of caution. He looked like he didn't stay but hopefully we'll be back again next year."

Weir happy with Big Duke

With this year's Melbourne Cup was dominated by the international contingent, trainer Darren Weir was delighted with the performance of Big Duke (Raven's Pass), who finished fourth, the only Australian-trained horse to make it into the top ten. Weir said pre-race he was hoping for a top-ten finish with five-year-old gelding. "He's run a great race," Weir said. "He's usually so honest and to finish in the top five is a great result." Big Duke was one of three runners Weir saddled in the race. Humidor (Teofilo) was the most fancied, sent out at $11 but never raised his backers hopes finishing 19th while Amelie's Star (Testa Rossa) ($21) finished 14th.

37 for Mossman

In winning The Hong Kong Jockey Club Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) at Flemington yesterday, the Mick Price-trained Pedrena (4 f ex Hansom Cab by Awesome Again) provided the Vinery Stud-based sire Mossman (Success Express) with his 37th stakes winner. The four-year-old mare came into the race having finishing second first up to Cool Passion (Not A Single Doubt) in the Northwood Plume Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) on 21 October, but yesterday she was able to go one better when she reversed the form with the daughter of Not A Single Doubt (Redoute's Choice), eventually beating her by a head with just Swampland (Redwood). Mossman stands at Vinery Stud and covers a limited book of mares.

11 for Star Witness

Lightly raced three-year-old Our Crown Mistress (3 f ex Barangaroo by Fastnet Rock) yesterday completed her rapid progression with victory in the Lexus Hybrid Plate (Listed, 1400m) at Flemington, her sire Star Witness's (Starcraft) 11th stakes winner. The Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott-trained Our Crown Mistress, who was runner-up in a Bendigo maiden on 1 September, has strung four straight wins together, culminating in yesterday's Listed victory. Our Crown Mistress's sire Star Witness, who stands at Widden Stud in the Hunter Valley, is also the sire of the Listed winner's Group One-winning stablemate Global Glamour and Group Two-winning Vinery Stud-based stallion Star Turn. Star Witness's fee for 2017 is $33,000 (inc GST).

@anz_news

Three for Zacinto

The Inglewood Stud-based stallion Zacinto (Dansili) sired his third stakes winner when the Mathew Ellerton and Simon Zahra-trained Odeon (4 g ex Theatre Buff by Theatrical) ran out a comfortable winner of the James Boag's Premium Stakes (Listed, 1800m) at Flemington yesterday. The four-year-old gelding, who was last seen winning a Benchmark 84 (1700m) at Caulfield in October, and yesterday he was able to continue that winning thread when he beat Life Less Ordinary (The way you are) by two lengths with another quarter of a length back to Second Bullet (Encosta De Lago) in third. Odeon joins Group One winner Ugo Foscolo and Listed winner Zigwig as the Zacinto's other stakes winners.

Cup week win for Ellerton and Zahra

Earlier in the day, Mathew Ellerton and Simon Zahra were provided with the first leg of a Melbourne Cup day double when Prezado (Denman) beat the Godolphin-raced Bandipur (Commands) by just over a length in the Flemington Fling (1000m) yesterday. Zahra said it had been ten years since the pair were last successful during Flemington's biggest week of the year. "It shows you how hard it is," Zahra said. "We've had plenty of runners over the years and plenty of seconds but we just haven't been to get the win on the board. Luckily we had the right horse today."

Breakthrough win for Kah

Dollar For Dollar

SPORTPIX

Adelaide jockey Jamie Kah yesterday celebrated a win on the biggest stage, when she steered Dollar For Dollar (High Chaparral) to victory in a Benchmark 90 (1400m) at Flemington on Melbourne Cup day. Although she remains a freelance rider, Kah has the pick of the Tony McEvoy horses trained in South Australia and Dollar For Dollar will no doubt remain one of her favourites. "It does not get better than that, to hear the crowd as you cross the winning post first, it's unreal," Kah said. "And to win on this horse on such a big day is more exciting than anything. I just love him and I will be taking him when he finishes racing." After the race McEvoy was full of praise for the jockey: "She has soft hands and is so balanced," said McEvoy. "She is a real asset to my stable."

34 for Sebring

The Widden Stud-based stallion Sebring (More Than Ready) sired his 34th stakes winner yesterday courtesy of the Grant and Alana Williams-trained Mikimoto (3 f ex Stormy Nova by Metal Storm) retained her unbeaten record when she put in a fine display to win the Burgess Queen Stakes (Listed, 1400m) at Ascot in Perth yesterday. The three-year-old filly had no problems beating another daughter of Sebring, Art Series, by three quarters of a length with another half a length back to Sophia's Secret (Written Tycoon) in third. Sebring stands for a fee of $66,000 (inc GST).

Moreira injured in fall

Joao Moreira is returning to Hong Kong stiff and sore after a fall involving Regal Monarch (Notnowcato) at Flemington. The champion Hong Kong-based jockey suffered severe bruising to his left calf and right thigh in the fall on the home turn. Des O'Keefe, chairman of the Australian Jockeys Association, said Moreira didn't need to go to hospital for treatment. He said doctors were happy for Moreira to fly back to Hong Kong with fellow rider Zac Purton. Moreira was to ride Thomas Hobson (Halling) in Tuesday's Melbourne Cup and was replaced by apprentice Ben Allen.

Regal Monarch gone

Sadly, the Chris Waller-trained Regal Monarch, who was transported to a Werribee veterinary clinic, was humanely euthanised following a fall. Racing Victoria's chief vet Dr Grace Forbes said that, despite the best efforts of some of the state's leading equine vets, the injury was unable to be treated successfully. "Regal Monarch was immediately attended to by our veterinary team after a fall in Race 4 and was transported to the University of Melbourne Veterinary Clinic in Werribee for further assessment," Forbes said. "Our sympathies are extended at this time to the owners of Regal Monarch, trainer Chris Waller, and his staff who cared deeply for their horse and are naturally devastated by their loss." Owned by Highclere Racing, the son of Notnowcato won four races from his 17 starts.

Bowman and Williams suspended

Jockeys Hugh Bowman and Craig Williams will appeal careless riding suspensions handed out at Flemington on Melbourne Cup day. The pair were each suspended for 11 meetings, commencing after the Oaks meeting on Thursday, with a return date of 18 November. Bowman was suspended aboard Warranty (All Too Hard) in the Lexus Hybrid Plate (Listed, 1400m) for causing interference to Torvill (Not A Single Doubt), ridden by Jason Collett. "My point of view is there was no room for him and that is why I contact him," Bowman said. "When I move out he's ridden along onto heels. The head on makes it look a lot worse." Williams was suspended aboard Ozi Choice (Denman) for shifting in and causing interference to Snipfit (Snippetson), ridden by Luke Nolen at the 800 metre mark of the Lavazza Short Black (1400m).

First for Sizzling

Newgate Farm-based stallion Sizzling (Snitzel) sired his first winner when two-year-old Sugar Sizzle (2 f ex Sugar Rose by Exceed And Excel) won a maiden plate (900m) at Murwillumbah yesterday. Trained by Angela Plumb at the Gold Coast, the juvenile filly won by a short head against older horses in 54.20 seconds. Sugar Sizzle, a $55,000 purchase by Aquis Farm / Blue Sky Bloodstock from the Marquee Stud draft at the Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale in January, is from the first crop of BRC T J Smith Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) winner Sizzling, who stands for a fee of $16,500 (inc GST) in 2017.

$90,000,000 bet on Melbourne Cup

Australians have punted almost $90,000,000 with the TAB on the Melbourne Cup, won by Rekindling (High Chaparral). Although the outlay was down on the $94,500,000 wagered on last year's race, the other races on yesterday's card garnered more support than 12 months ago. "On our preliminary figures total TAB turnover on the Melbourne Cup was down 5.7 per cent, however turnover on the other nine races at Flemington was up 4.1 per cent," said Tabcorp's chief operating officer (wagering and media) Adam Rytenski.

The Everest to be run for $13,000,000

Racing NSW announced yesterday that it is increasing the prizemoney for The Everest (1200m) by $3,000,000 to $13,000,000. The Everest's prize money will increase by $1,000,000 a year to $15,000,000 in 2020, moving the purse ahead of the $US10,000,000 ($13,000,000) Dubai World Cup (Gr 1, 2000m) prize pool. "We greatly admire the Melbourne Cup for the enormous coverage it receives and the place it holds in Australia's culture," Racing NSW CEO Peter V'landys told The Daily Telegraph. "However, Sydney needs its own event. It has got to stop playing second fiddle to Melbourne. After all, Sydney is the world's greatest city and we should strive to have the world's great events."

All Too Soon could be aimed at Oaks

Trainer David Payne says three-year-old filly All Too Soon (All Too Hard), an impressive maiden winner over 1800 metres at Randwick yesterday, could target the ATC Australian Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m) next preparation. The filly has only had six starts and is a stablemate and owned in the same interests as Saturday's Victoria Derby (Gr 1, 2500m) winner Ace High (High Chaparral). "She had a few little setbacks and now she's strengthened up it's onwards and upwards," Payne said. "If she's up to it we can aim for the Oaks." Jockey Andrew Adkins was also impressed by the filly's win. "I didn't want to push her out or snag her back and she was happy to be where she was," Adkins said. "They went steady throughout and that's why I made a move a bit before the turn, her last 50 to 100 metres was her best. I can't see why she won't get a trip, she's lightly raced and still has plenty to offer."

Van Overmeire rides first Randwick winner

South African apprentice Jean Van Overmeire yesterday landed his first winner at Randwick when scoring the breakthrough victory on the Kris Lees-trained Doukhan (Dansili), a European import who had not won since June 2015. Doukhan settled back in the field, a position Van Overmeire said was far from desired. "My plan was to be midfield but I was back and I had to take a deep breath and accept where I was," Van Overmeire said. "They went quick then they eased up again but it suited my horse more than anything else."

Jennings scores on Star Sensation

Jockey Koby Jennings credits trainer Mark Newnham for helping rejuvenate the young rider's career and yesterday the pair combined for a win on three-year-old filly Star Sensation (Star Witness) at Randwick. The lightly raced filly made it three wins from seven starts when overcoming a slow getaway yesterday to win the fillies and mares benchmark 76 handicap (1300m). "Even riding her in trackwork before I knew the horse's name I said to Mark she's a pretty good horse," Jennings said. "So it's good to get the job done."

New Zealand

Group Three to Chance To Dance

A decision to apply blinkers to Chance To Dance (Teofilo) in yesterday's OMF Stakes (Gr 3, 2000m) at Ellerslie paid off, with the eight-year-old gelding winning the NZ$70,000 race. Trained by Stephen Autridge and Jamie Richards, Chance To Dance defeated Mime (Mastercraftsman) by a long head, with veteran Authentic Paddy (Howbaddouwantit) another one and a quarter lengths away in third. At his previous start, Chance To Dance ran second last in the Livamol Classic (Gr 1, 2040m) at Hastings on 22 October. "We were pretty deflated after the Livamol, we expected him to run really well," Richards said. "We changed things around a bit with him as he's an older horse now and the blinkers obviously sharpened him up."

Group Ones on cards for Rocanto

Yesterday's impressive Ellerslie winner Rocanto (Per Incanto) could target Group races this preparation after resuming with a half-length victory in a Rating 85 Benchmark Handicap (1200m). The Stephen Marsh-trained Rocanto could force his way into the Railway Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) on New Year's Day if he continues his progression in the next two months. "It's good to see him back and he should be a contender for all the major sprints," Marsh said. "The Railway is going to be a nice race for him."

Summer targets for Chocante

Brisbane Cup (Gr 2, 2200m) winner Chocante (Shocking) will be aimed at New Zealand feature races during the summer before a possible return to Australia in the autumn. The Stephen Marsh five-year-old raced four times in Sydney during the spring, which included a third placing in The Metropolitan (Gr 1, 2400m) at Randwick, before returning to Cambridge. Marsh said Chocante would be aimed at the Captain Cook Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) at Trentham and the Zabeel Classic (Gr 1, 2000m) on Boxing Day. "If he wins or goes very well in the Zabeel, which is his main goal, then we might take him back to Sydney in the autumn," Marsh said.

Sweet Leader on comeback trail

Talented four-year-old Sweet Leader (O'Reilly) is on the comeback trail after another forced break away from racing. The stallion underwent wind operations either side of his impressive win in the Cambridge Breeders' Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) in April at his last appearance, the third success of his five-start career. "He's coming up really well and he's looking good," said Andrew Scott, who trains in partnership with Lance O'Sullivan. "We might kick him off in the Counties Bowl on 25 November."

Charles Road back in work

Charles Road (Myboycharlie) has also returned to trainers Andrew Scott and Lance O'Sullivan's stables after a freshen up. The four-year-old gelding, who won the Manawatu Classic (Gr 3, 2000m) in the autumn, disappointed in three starts this preparation. He ran tenth in the Matamata Cup (Listed, 1600m) on 14 October, prompting connections to give the horse a short break. "He didn't come up as well as we had hoped in the spring and we found last year that his form got better when the weather warmed up," Scott said. "He's had a couple of weeks off and he came back into the stable this week."

Gelded Cha Siu Bao set for return

Four-year-old Cha Siu Bao (Smart Missile), who bucked in the New Zealand Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) at his last start in March, will resume at Te Rapa on Saturday. Cha Siu Bao was competitive in a number of stakes races as a three-year-old including finishing fourth in the New Zealand 2,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) at Riccarton last November to Ugo Foscolo (Zacinto). "We'll kick him off in the Rating 75 over 1400 metres," co-trainer Andrew Scott said. "He's coming up well and we're pretty hopeful he's going to be competitive."

Asia

Starlight ready for Happy Valley test

Following his impressive win on Nassa (Dynasty) in The Sa Sa Ladies' Purse (Gr 3, 1800m) on Sunday, Chad Schofield will be hoping to continue his good form when he partners Starlight (Red Element) in his Class Two debut over 1200 metres at Happy Valley today. The Dennis Yip-trained gelding will be looking to secure his fourth consecutive victory when he lines up in today's contest. "I rode him a lot before his first start, I was on in a number of trials and I then rode him in his first three starts," Schofield said. "I always really liked him but he just wasn't mature then. He seems to have really strengthened up and matured now, he's much more mature now. He felt terrific, he wasn't out to go quick but he felt like a happy horse."

International

19 for Le Havre

The David Menuisier-trained Havre De Paix (5 m ex Bridge of Peace by Anabaa) stayed on well for pressure to land the Prix Isola Bella (Listed, 1600m) at Saint-Cloud yesterday and in the process provided the Haras de la Cauviniere-based sire Le Havre (Noverre) with his 19th stakes winner. The five-year-old had not won since breaking her maiden in March last year and yesterday she was able to fend off the advances of Dallas Affair (Soldier Hollow) by a neck with another head back to Maimara (Makfi) in third. Le Havre's progeny are headed by three Group One winners: Le Cressonniere, Avenir Certain and Suedois.

25 for American Post

The Criquette Head-Maarek-trained Gaining (3 f ex Acquisition by Dansili) ran out a convincing winner of the the Prix Solitude (Listed, 2000m) at Saint-Cloud yesterday and in the process provided American Post (Bering) with his 25th stakes winner. The three-year-old filly was last seen running third in the Prix Charles Laffitte (Listed, 2100m) in her first stakes race appearance and yesterday she was able to make her stakes race breakthrough when she beat Flood Warning (Pivotal) by a length and quarter with another three and a half lengths back to Segra (Shamardal) in third.

Yeomanstown fees released

Dark Angel (Acclamation), currently the fourth leading sire in Europe by prize money, has been given a sizeable fee increase from €65,000 up to €85,000, after Yeomanstown Stud released 2018 nomination fees for its four-strong roster at Morrinstown Lattin Farm. "Dark Angel has had another sensational year at stud," said Gay O'Callaghan of Yeomanstown. "Proving himself once again as an established Group 1 producer siring three individual Group One winners this year alone. Battaash, winner of the Prix de l'Abbaye, and Harry Angel, who completed the July Cup-Haydock Sprint Cup double, showcased their scintillating speed this season while Persuasive, winner of the Queen Elizabeth II Stakes, was the epitome of toughness and durability." Click here to view the Yeomanstown Stud roster.

War Front to remain at US$250,000

Claiborne Farm have announced the fees for their 12 stallions, with the roster headed by War Front (Danzig), who will stand in 2017 for an unchanged fee of US$250,000. New to the Claiborne Farm next year will be Grade One winner Mastery (Candy Ride), who will be offered at an introductory fee of US$25,000. Meanwhile Flatter (A.P. Indy) has had a fee increase and will now stand for US$40,000, largely due to the exploits of his three-year-old son West Coast. The three-year-old landed the Travers Stakes (Gr 1, 10f) in August, before following up this victory in the Pennsylvania Derby (Gr 1, 10f) in September and he was last seen running third behind Gun Runner (Candy Ride) in the Breeders' Cup Classic (Gr 1, 10f) on Saturday.

The Irish were celebrating, the English were left lamenting (yet again) and most Australians - bar prominent owner Lloyd Williams - were left wondering what the hell is going on after yesterday's Melbourne Cup

Steve Moran

@anz_news

You all know the bare facts by now. Joseph O'Brien-trained the winner Rekindling (High Chaparral), upstaging his father Aidan with runner-up Johannes Vermeer (Galileo) - both horses raced by Lloyd Williams and partners and Williams now boasts six Cup winners as an owner.

It was, of course, a third win for the Irish following Dermot Weld's successes with Vintage Crop (Rousillon) and Media Puzzle (Theatrical). The 'rot' started with Weld and Vintage Crop in 1993 and was well and truly evident yesterday with Willie Mullins' Max Dynamite (Great Journey) completing an Irish trifecta in "Australia's race"!

The fact that the first three home were northern hemisphere trained should have surprised nobody. The score in Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) top three placings is now 16-14 in favour of NH-trained horses over the locals in the past ten years and that's from fewer runners.

The number of visitors is, however, increasing year by year and I doubt will decline even if English trainers might be getting a touch gun shy. The record of Great Britain trained horses in the Cup is now 0-64 (and that's excluding the Godolphin runners) but the quest endures and remains encouraged by Ed Dunlop, thrice, and Luca Cumani, twice, nearly pulling it off.

There were no fewer than 11 NH-trained runners this year and they filled eight of the first ten places. There's now been six winners, since Weld blazed the trail, of the race which VRC chairman Amanda Elliott yesterday described, somewhat ironically, as a 'rich mark of our national heritage'.

I'm not so sure that's still the case. By definition, the plethora of overseas runners means locally trained horses can miss a start in the Cup. That's obviously an issue for local owners and trainers and, indeed, for most casual punters who could be forgiven for asking 'who are these horses?'

"I'M NOT ONE FOR COMPLAINING BUT IT DOES SEEM TOO MUCH CREDENCE IS GIVEN TO THE OVERSEAS FORM."
MIKE MORONEY

There are dramatic changes afoot for next year's Melbourne Cup. "There will be a prize money increase for the Cup," VRC chair Amanda Elliott said yesterday, "plus a new race sponsor and the new grandstand. We will also be working with our partner TABcorp on the question of enabling emergency runners."

Provision for emergency runners is one of several key issues which needs to be part of the VRC's 2017 Melbourne Cup review. Another may well be whether there are too many overseas trained runners in the race?

The first question is whether too much emphasis is given to English and European form which is denying locally trained horses a start in the race courtesy of the handicapping? Do we need eleven overseas trained runners in the race?

The primary example is the in-form Vengeur Masque (Monsun) missing out on the Cup field for the second year running.

His trainer Mike Moroney, who won the Melbourne Cup in 2000 with Brew (Sir Tristram), is understandably annoyed but measured in his response. "I'm not one for complaining but it does seem too much credence is given to the overseas form.

"Our horse had 50.5 (kilograms) in last year's Caulfield Cup and ran an eye-catching eighth. He's since run second in a Group Three, the Queen Elizabeth and second in the Listed Mornington Cup and yet was given only 50 (kilograms) in this year's Cup. I think a horse from Europe with that Group and Listed form would have been given more weight," he said.

Post handicap release, Vengeur Masque won the Geelong Cup (Gr 3, 2400m) as did recent Melbourne Cup winners Dunaden (Nicobar) and Americain (Dynaformer). "I was then surprised he was given only a half kilogram penalty for that win. There were European horses above him in the weights and therefore in the field who are not stakes-winners," Moroney said.

They were Thomas Hobson (Halling), Wall Of Fire (Canford Cliffs) and Nakeeta (Sixties Icon). Yesterday's field also included four obviously out-of-form horses including the Williams' owned Gallante (Montjeu) and Bondi Beach (Galileo) who ran, very much, accordingly.

"It's a shame as I think he (Vengeur Masque) deserved his chance at the two miles. His Geelong Cup win and very close second in the Lexus (Stakes) on Saturday, showed how well he's going," Moroney said of the horse who is now likely to run in Saturday's Queen Elizabeth Stakes (Gr 3, 2600m).

Many a Melbourne Cup myth went out the window when Vintage Crop won in 1993. Another was dispelled this year with Rekindling winning at his Australian debut after 97 horses, post Vintage Crop, had tried and failed to win the Cup at their first run on Australian soil.

Yesterday's result also speaks again to the superiority of the European-bred staying horse but there can be no encouragement for locally bred and locally trained horses if a start in the Cup becomes harder and harder to secure.

I make no judgement as to whether the 'internationalisation' of the Cup is necessarily good or bad but it may just have spiralled out of control and is, at least, a matter worth considering in the annual Melbourne Cup review.

Let's make no mistake. The Melbourne Cup may stop Australia and New Zealand but not the rest of the world. It was run at 4am London time.

It's fine when the massive prize money goes to someone like Lloyd Williams, who is a major employer in the Australian racing industry, as was the case yesterday.

But the presence of the international runners adds nothing in terms of turnover or attendance and there may well be an argument for extending exemptions from the ballot to, perhaps, the first two placegetters in races like the Geelong Cup, Caulfield Cup and Moonee Valley Gold Cup (Gr 2, 2500m) and the Lexus Stakes (registered at Hotham Handicap) (Gr 3, 2500m).

This would suit local trainers and perhaps entice more visitors to run before the Cup which would be a god-send for local bettors.

There are other questions which may well be placed on the Cup review agenda. Should there be a panel of veterinarians to determine the soundness of horses after the controversial withdrawal of the Murray Baker-trained Jon Snow (Iffraaj)?

Baker was too diplomatic to publicly attack the decision but privately insists his horse was not lame and fit to run. "He doesn't trot up well when he's cold. That's just him. Like any other athlete, he's fine when he warms up," Baker said.

STEVE MORAN

It's a lot of pressure faced by one Racing Victoria veterinarian to make such a call. Surely a panel could be convened in such circumstances before major races.

Provision, too, for emergency runners must be vigorously pursued. This was highlighted again this year by the scratching of Who Shot Thebarman (Yamanin Vital) 48 hours before the race. Even the supposedly antiquated tote on English racecourses can cope with more than 24 runners.

"We will endeavour to have this resolved by next year," VRC chair Amanda Elliott said on Cup eve.

The VRC also needs to re-visit the changes to the conditions of application of penalties for the Caulfield Cup winner and consider whether provision needs to be made to allow the exclusion of out-of-form runners?

The Coolmore Stud Stakes (registered as Ascot Vale Stakes) (Gr 1, 1200m) is now recognised as one of Australia's stallion making races.

Originally for two-year-olds and named the Ascot Vale Stakes, it became a major sprint contest for three-year-olds in 1969 with that year's winner, champion sire Vain (Wilkes), establishing a high standard at stud for later winners to emulate.

Among those later winners to match or better Vain's breeding influence are champion sires Century (Better Boy) and Encosta De Lago (Fairy King) while a number of others such as Kaapstad (Sir Tristram), Zeditave (The Judge) and Bureaucracy (Lord Ballina) have been very useful sires.

More recent Coolmore Stud Stakes winners include Northern Meteor (Encosta De Lago), Star Witness (Starcraft) and Sepoy (Elusive Quality) while awaiting judgement are the 2013 winner Zoustar (Northern Meteor), 2014 winner Brazen Beau (I Am Invincible) plus last year's winner Flying Artie (Artie Schiller), currently standing his first season at Newgate Farm in NSW.

Last Saturday's renewal of the Coolmore Stud Stakes attracted a field of 20 down the straight course at Flemington and was among the most competitive and memorable as it produced a dramatic finish with superbly bred colt Merchant Navy (Fastnet Rock) darting through on the rails close to home to down the favourite, the filly Invincible Star (I Am Invincible), by a head with another high class filly, Formality (Fastnet Rock), just a short head away in third in a time of 1:09.10.

Merchant Navy had won his first four starts, two in black type company, but failed badly at his previous start in the ATC Golden Rose (Gr 1, 1400m) in Sydney on 23 September, but the blinkers added here and a freshen up enabled him to turn around his form and likely cement a future spot on the Coolmore Stud stallion roster as a successor to his father Fastnet Rock (Danehill), twice champion sire in Australia and already represented by successful young sire sons Hinchinbrook, Foxwedge, Smart Missile, Stryker and Your Song.

Merchant Navy

Saturday was another landmark day for Fastnet Rock as he also supplied three-year-old filly Shoals who defeated older mares to win the Myer Classic (registered as Empire Rose Stakes) (Gr 1, 1600m) to become the sire's 31st Group One winner among a grand total of 123 stakes winners worldwide.

Bred by Queensland resident Chris Barham who raced his dam Legally Bay (Snippets), a multiple stakes winner, Merchant Navy is essentially a product of NSW as he was conceived at Coolmore and born and reared at Segenhoe Stud, Scone, making $350,000 when included in Segenhoe's draft at the 2016

Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale in Sydney.

He is raced by a high powered syndicate which includes Coolmore, several people closely associated with Coolmore and Segenhoe manager Peter O'Brien who was deeply impressed by the colt from his earliest days and determined to take a share when he was sold.

Merchant Navy's dam Legally Bay was among the best juvenile fillies of her generation and later was able to match it with Australia's top sprinters, placing second in the T J Smith Stakes (then Gr 2, 1200m) and third in both the Oakleigh Plate (Gr 1, 1100m) and the Australia Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m).

Legally Bay comes from an outstanding female line and has proved a fine producer, especially when bred to Fastnet Rock. Before Merchant Navy, her ninth foal, she bred Jolie Bay (Fastnet Rock), winner of the ATC Roman Consul Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) and runner-up in the Coolmore Stud Stakes and stakes-placed Zara Bay (Fastnet Rock), a metropolitan winner in Sydney and Melbourne. Two other good winners out of the mare are Maroon Bay (Exceed And Excel) and Carbon Taikun (Lonhro).

Back in 1995 this writer was advising champion Brisbane trainer, the late Bruce McLachlan, in finding a filly for his client Ron Gilbert at the Inglis Easter Yearling Sale and we were able to buy Legally Bay's dam Decidity (Last Tycoon) who turned out to be a handy performer before becoming an even better broodmare as the mother not only of Legally Bay but also of five other winners headed by Group One winner Bonaria (Redoute's Choice) and Group Three winner Time Out (Rory's Jester).

Decidity is also second dam of Group Three winners Tessera (Medaglia d'Oro) and Montsegur (New Approach) so she has made her mark at stud.

This is an excellent family as Decidity is a half-sister to Classy Fella (Kenmare), a three-time stakes winner, and closely related to black type winners Twirled (Turf Ruler) and Noted (Vain). Class (Twig Moss), the third dam of Merchant Navy, is out of Pirouette (Planet Kingdom), a sister to two top class performers in Our Planet (Planet Kingdom) and Gypsy Kingdom (Planet Kingdom) and a three-quarter sister-in-blood to Group One-winning sire Ideal Planet (Planet Kingdom) descending from stakes winning imported mare Gypsy Moss (Mossborough).

Other notable winners from the family are Innocent King (Tolomeo), winner of the AJC Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) and the Rosehill Guineas (Gr 1, 2000m) and Royal Snack (Lunchtime), a multiple stakes winner of 15 races.

Merchant Navy certainly has the depth of pedigree to become a good sire with four crosses of Northern Dancer (Nearctic), a 5f x 4f double of the good Australian sire Twig Moss (Luthier) and further duplications of influential American sires Buckpasser and his father Tom Fool (Menow). A distant double of breed shaper Star Kingdom (Stardust) and at least 13 lines of unbeaten Nearco (Pharos) in Merchant Navy's background can only enhance his chances of proving successful at stud.

Pope feeling 'blessed' after acquiring Songbird for US$9,500,000

By Michele MacDonald

@anz_news

Hip 120 Songbird

FASIG-TIPTON

In a man's world dominated by the wealthiest and most accomplished breeders, Mandy Pope is boldly unafraid to reach out and take whatever horses she wants from the auction ring.

Saying that breeding elite horses takes a high degree of "just being ornery," Pope blew past a budget she had set with her accountant and spent US$9,500,000 million for two-time champion by Darley shuttler Medaglia d'Oro (El Prado) Songbird at the Fasig-Tipton sale on Monday.

Her spree marked the second time in five years that her desire for bloodstock diamonds brought her into a high-altitude orbit with owner Rick Porter. In 2012, she paid US$10,000,000 for Horse of the Year Havre De Grace (Saint Liam); both Songbird and Havre De Grace were raced by Porter and the mare was catalogued as Hip 120 on Monday.

"I'm very happy with that," said a smiling Porter after the sale of Songbird, revealing that his reserve price was less than US$5,000,000, just as it had been for Havre De Grace. "I wanted [Songbird] to stay in America, and I know Mandy will take good care of her."

For her part, Pope insisted that "I was not going to do it" when faced with the prospect that Songbird would cost in the same range as did Havre De Grace. She hesitated when the bidding stopped at US$9,200,000 but then took the plunge to make one more bid, which turned out to be the final one.

When asked why she kept going, Pope paused for several moments before offering a simple answer.

"Because she's awesome," Pope said of Songbird, a stunning bay four-year-old by Medaglia D'Oro who is marked with four socks and white splashed her face.

With the purchase, Pope increased her Whisper Hill Farm spending on elite bloodstock at Kentucky's November sales over the past five years to an eye-popping US$51,100,000 on 17 horses, acquisitions that also have included champion Groupie Doll (Bowman's Band) and Kentucky Oaks (Gr 1, 9f) winner Plum Pretty (Medaglia d'Oro). She said she could decide to breed Songbird to Galileo (Sadler's Wells) or Frankel (Galileo), but will consider possible matings further before making a decision.

The word "blessings" was repeatedly used by Pope and representatives from consignor Taylor Made Sales Agency in regard to the sale of Songbird, who became one of the most expensive fillies or mares ever sold in North America. Better Than Honour (Deputy Minister), dam of Kentucky Oaks winner Rags To Riches (A.P. Indy) and Belmont Stakes winner Jazil (Seeking The Gold), sold for a world record US$14,000,000 at this venue in 2008, although that transaction represented one owner buying out another.

During the previous year, Playful Act (Sadler's Wells) commanded a then-world record price of US$10,500,000 at Keeneland's September sale. In 2005, champion Ashado (Saint Ballado) drew a record bid of $9,000,000 at Keeneland.

The concept of blessings is particularly relevant to Porter, who has battled back against a life-threatening cancer and now is in remission.

"We're just thankful that Rick can be here," said Taylor Made's Mark Taylor, a close friend of the owner.

Wearing a red sweater, Porter sat only a few rows away from Pope in the overflowing sales pavilion when Songbird was led in, described by Fasig-Tipton commentator Terence Collier as "the gold standard for thoroughbreds". After all the bidding action by what Taylor speculated was by more than a dozen potential buyers, Porter gave a slight wave as onlookers clapped.

Pope indicated that she had previously suggested to Porter that they might start a partnership but that he "just grumbled."

Having to stand up to men in the breeding business is part of the challenge she has faced, Pope said, adding that "I never dreamed I'd be doing this." Ironically, her family business, Variety Wholesalers, is a massive retail chain that caters to budget shoppers in the southeastern area of the United States.

"I'm very lucky in so many ways that are hard to put into words. It's by the good grace of my family and God and everybody that has worked hard that I am here," Pope said, crediting her bloodstock advisers in Kentucky and Florida for their work with her thoroughbred business.

"I'm just very blessed. I will never forget that - it is the most important thing. I'm very humbled by all of this. I never expected to be doing this, I never dreamed I'd be doing any of this. I'm just very thankful to God and my family for everything."

Tepin rings the bell at US$8,000,000 at November Sale

By Alicia Wincze Hughes of BloodHorse

The Fasig-Tipton pavilion was still trying to catch its breath after witnessing a show for the ages by a champion filly. Just when the crowd had begun to digest the magnitude of what it had just happened, another high-profile girl entered from the back ring and turned the place on its ear once more.

On a record-setting evening within the famed auction house, two-time Eclipse award winner Tepin (Bernstein) did her usual routine of standing out even among the elite. Moments after fellow champion Songbird brought the house down, selling to Mandy Pope for US$9,500,000, Tepin established her own benchmark of excellence, selling to representatives of Coolmore Stud for US$8,000,000.

Consigned by ELiTE Sales on behalf of owner Robert Masterson, Tepin elicited the second-highest price of the evening after sauntering into the ring in her usual unflappable fashion. The daughter of Bernstein, who was catalogued as Hip 130 is currently in foal to Hill 'n' Dale stallion Curlin (Smart Strike) and is now slated to visit Coolmore's perennial sire Galileo (Sadler's Wells) according to MV Magnier, who signed the ticket following a heated bidding battle.

"It's a lot of money, but she's an excellent racehorse," Magnier said. "She's very good looking. She was a good two-year-old and she was good up to the age of five. It's a lot of money but... (trainer) Mark Casse did an unbelievable job with her through her career."

Norman Casse, son of and top assistant to his father, hustled down Interstate 64 after his flight from California arrived in Louisville at 5.30pm in order to be in the pavilion for the mare he oversaw for 23 career starts and six Grade / Group One victories. Standing alongside Masterson, Casse's emotions began to overtake him as he watched the bidding open at US$1,000,000 then climb in US$500,000 and US$200,000 increments up to $5,700,000.

After hitting US$6,000,000 and sailing right past that mark in a few more bids, Tepin reached some rarified air at US$7,000,000 with the action still heated around her. The half-sister to Graded stakes winner Vyjack (Into Mischief) still didn't turn a hair as the board climbed from US$7,700,000 up to its final destination and exited the ring as arguably the only being unmoved by her latest outing.

"I didn't think I'd get emotional, but I got emotional," Norman Casse said. "It's a cool thing to be part of something like that."

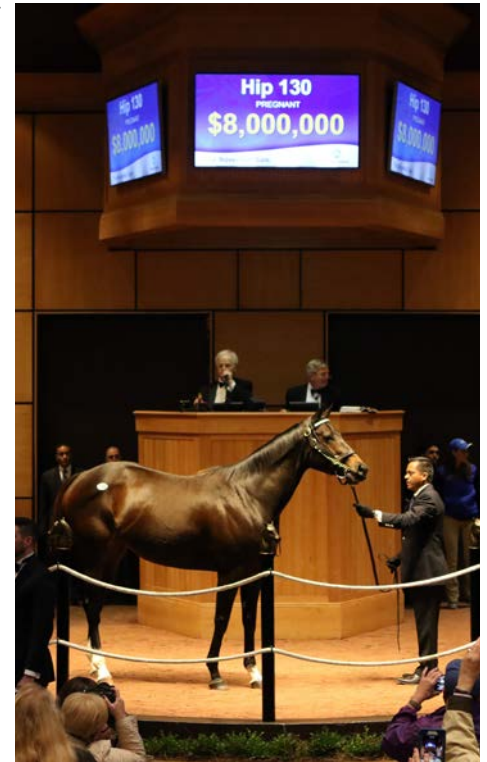

"(As a trainer), you just want to put them in a position to excel at the next level, whatever that may be. I feel like we did our job and now I feel that (Coolmore) will take the next step and they'll do a great job with her. I thought the realistic estimates were around US$6,000,000, so she went beyond expectations."

Bred by Machmer Hall, Tepin went from divisional queen to global superstar in four seasons of racing. In 2015, she earned her first Eclipse award for champion turf female on the strength of a campaign that saw her notch victories in the Just a Game Stakes (Gr 1, 8f) and First Lady Stakes (Gr 1, 8f) before beating her male counterparts in the Breeders' Cup Mile (Gr 1, 8f) at Keeneland.

In her five-year-old campaign she remarkably took her form to an ever greater level. After opening the year with four straight victories - including the Jenny Wiley Stakes (Gr 1, 8.5f) - Tepin traveled to Royal Ascot and made history as the first US-based horse to capture the Queen Anne Stakes (Gr 1, 1m).

She beat the boys again in the Woodbine Mile Stakes (Gr 1, 1m) that September, her third top-level victory in a third country last year. Though she finished second in the 2016 Breeders' Cup Mile, a second Eclipse award came her way in handy fashion.

"She's an exceptional horse and it will be a long time before we see another one like her," Norman Casse said. "I couldn't be more excited about her future."

Hip 130 Tepin

FASIG-TIPTON

"It has nothing to do with Elite Sales," added Bradley Weisbord of ELiTE Sales. "It's all about what this filly has accomplished on the racetrack. Mr Masterson deserves all the credit, what the team accomplished with her while she was racing is incredible."

Tepin is out of the Stravinsky (Nureyev) mare Life Happened and retired with 13 wins from 23 starts and almost $4,500,000 in earnings.

"The pressure is self imposed and... we take it really seriously when someone gives you a horse like Songbird or gives you a horse like Tepin to sell," said Fasig-Tipton president Boyd Browning jnr.

Coolmore Australia were also active at the sale on Monday night, purchasing Grade Three winner Lightstream (Harlan's Holiday), who was catalogued as Hip 89 for US$900,000 from the Taylor Made Sales Agency draft.

The mare is out of a half-sister Grade Three winner Port Roberto (Dynaformer).

Scone-based stud Kia Ora also made their presence felt at the sale, when they took home Enstone, a Grade Three-winning daughter of Tiznow (Cee's Tizzy), who was catalogued as Hip 167.

The filly is from the same family as Grade One winner Forest Secrets (Forest Wildcat) and Grade Three winner Rumor Has It (Awesome Again).

November Sale soars to record levels

By Ron Mitchell of BloodHorse

The queens of the track had already thrilled racing fans before being sent to Fasig-Tipton to be sold on 6 November during the opening session of the sales company's November sale.

With a packed house looking on, Songbird and Tepin did not disappoint in their latest outings.

Songbird, the US$4,600,000 earner and multiple champion, went to Mandy Pope's Whisper Hill Farm for US$9,500,000 and two-time champion Tepin brought a final bid of US$8,000,000 from Coolmore's MV Magnier.

Those two big-ticket mares fueled a record November sale, with gross receipts of US$74,200,000 for 115 horses sold - the highest in the sale's history according to Fasig-Tipton officials. The average of US$645,000 was third-highest ever and the US$250,000 median was second-highest ever.

The 26 horses that did not sell meant there was a clearance rate of 82 per cent.

While most consignors and buyers said the demand and high prices exceeded their most optimistic expectations, Fasig-Tipton president Boyd Browning said the numbers reflected the quality of the horses on offer.

"We had a remarkable catalogue," he said. "When people entrust their very best with you... and entrust the jewels with you, you get rewarded and have a great sale.

"We knew we had a really good catalogue and when you walked around the sale grounds and saw who was looking at the horses on a pre-sale basis, it was very, very encouraging and positive.

"At the end of the day we were dependent upon being able to put together a quality group of horses, and we were very fortunate and entrusted with a wonderful group of horses this year. And they sold remarkably well."

The atmosphere in the pavilion was electric, not unlike the autumn version of Fasig-Tipton's Saratoga yearling sale.

"The buzz in the pavilion and in the back walking ring was just exceptional," Browning said.

While the two top-priced individuals were among the highest in sale history, Browning said it was a rational marketplace.

"The market was very, very strong, but remains disciplined to an extent on the majority of the offerings. You had better make sure you don't have any glaring holes or deficiencies in your product or you're going to have some difficulty in the marketplace. It's not just the market has gone crazy and every horse is going to bring more than you hoped for."

With their single purchases, Whisper Hill and Magnier were leading buyers, respectively.

The leading consignor was Taylor Made Sales Agency, which offered Songbird, and had 20 sell for US$20,400,000 for an average price of US$1,000,000. ELiTE Sales, which consigned Tepin, had three head gross US$9,300,000 for an average price of US$3,100,000.

Betting: $15.00, $13.00, $21.00.

Then followed: Big Duke (IRE), Nakeeta (GB), Thomas Hobson (GB), Tiberian (FR), Libran (IRE), Marmelo (GB), Wicklow Brave (GB), Red Cardinal (IRE), Almandin (GER), Cismontane (NZ), Amelie's Star (AUS), Boom Time (AUS), Wall Of Fire (IRE), Single Gaze (AUS), Us Army Ranger (IRE), Humidor (NZ), Hartnell (GB), Ventura Storm (IRE), Bondi Beach (IRE) & Gallante (IRE), last.

Analysis: In a finish that saw the first 12 past the post bred in Europe, the Irish-trained three-year-old (by Northern Hemisphere time) Rekindling staged a strong staying effort in winning. Given a perfect trip by Corey Brown from barrier four, Rekindling travelled nicely in tenth place on the rails, behind a reasonable tempo, improved between runners nearing the home turn to be just behind the leading group on straightening. He went to second at the 200m and finished too well under his light weight (51.5kg) to win well. The Aiden O'Brien-trained Johannes Vermeer also had a good trip from a favourable barrier (3) racing in fifth place on the rails. He moved up well on turning for home, looked the winner when took the lead at the 300m and then fought back gamely at his first run beyond 2400m for (long neck) second. Another Irish-trained runner Max Dynamite, who was second in this race in 2015, completed a perfect result for Irish-trained runners in finishing third. He too had a good run from an ideal barrier (2) racing in seventh place on the rails before improving behind the leaders at the home turn. Zac Purton got him through a split, going to third at the 300m and he then kept fighting on gamely to take the minor placing. Big Duke raced in 12th place, on the rails, went between runners at the home turn going to sixth at the 300m and then kept battling on well for (5.7 lengths) fourth. Nakeeta was back in 17th place, went closer to the rails on turning for home, going to eighth at the 200m and then kept fighting on to finish (6.5 lengths) fifth. Thomas Hobson settled near last from his difficult barrier (20), improved (deep) nearing the home turn and kept running on well under his light weight (52kg) for (8.8 lengths) sixth. Of the other favoured runners, Marmelo had a good trip in fourth place before moving up well to take the lead at the home turn and then finished (9.9 lengths) ninth. Red Cardinal was near last before making some ground for (12 lengths) 11th, last year's winner Almandin was midfield and battled on for (12 lengths) 12th while Humidor (17 lengths) 19th and Hartnell (29 lengths) 20th appeared tested by the 3200m trip.

Analysis: Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott-trained filly Setsuna has followed her good debut second in the Gimcrack Stakes (Listed, 1000m) at Randwick on 30 September now with two impressive wins since going to Melbourne. She was quickly away here, travelled well in front before grabbing a clear break at the 200m and was not threatened from that point to score stylishly, dashing home in a quick 33.92 (last 600m). Tony McEvoy-trained filly Roobeena settled in seventh place, improved from the 200m getting to second at the 100m and then battled on really well for a promising second on debut. Her stablemate Aristocratic Miss raced in sixth place, moved to fourth at the 100m and then fought on nicely to take third, also on debut. The favourite Qafila did not show any early pace, travelled back in tenth place and caught the eye when clear in running on late for (2.5 lengths) fourth and should appreciate further. Yulong Monoceros was handy all the way and held on for (2.6 lengths) fifth while the Robert Smerdon-trained filly Havana
Heat did well in running on from last for (3.6 lengths) sixth in a promising debut and is a filly to watch.

Analysis: Caught wide throughout in the Livamol Classic (Gr 1, 2040m) at his previous start, Chance To Dance (barrier 1) was given the perfect run by jockey Opie Bosson, to win well here. A handy third (rails) rounding the far bend into the back straight, he settled beautifully. The pace eased at the 1200m and he remained a close third. When the leader (Saint Emilion) tried to break clear at the 600m, Bosson was aware and they accelerated also but did not catch him until the 150m then had to hold off several determined challenges, thrusting his neck out a couple of the strides from the line. Mime was fourth (one out) at the 600m, eased out another width turning in and kept up a strong run to the line but was outstayed - a solid effort. Hardy Authentic Paddy sat outside the lead practically all the way and never gave in the length of the straight to be a close third from Consensus, who was in behind the pace turning in and ran on for fourth. Pacemaker Saint Emilion held on well for fifth after leading to the 150m.

Australian Champion 2yo Sire

Analysis: The consistent Mick Price-trained mare Pedrena taking out her first stakes success in winning this Group Three race. She settled in eighth place, behind a strong pace (first 800m 46.85) before improving (wide with cover) rounding the home turn. She sprinted smartly, took the lead at the 200m and then fought back to win well. Cool Passion was back in ninth place, between runners, angled into clear running at the 300m, challenged at the 100m and then battled on well for a good (half neck) second. Swampland also raced back in the field, behind the good pace, and was still last nearing the home turn. She then went deep, put in a good run, going to fourth at the 100m before fighting on well to take a good third. Of the others, Improvement led the field at a strong pace and held for (2.3 lengths) fourth while the favourite White Moss raced in seventh place on the rails but was not fully clear in the straight before finishing (7.1 lengths) 12th.

Analysis: The progressive Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott-trained filly Our Crown Mistress capped her quick rise from winning a Sale 3YO Fillies' Maiden (1200m) in September to take out this Listed race and remains unbeaten at her last four starts. She began well from her inside barrier (1) and was well-rated by Stephen Baster in gradually moving through to lead. She then travelled well in front, got a break at the 300m and fought back gamely when challenged to score well. Shadwell-raced filly Luqyaa settled in second last place in the 11-horse field, tracked up behind runners rounding the home turn, sprinted smartly to challenge nearing the 100m and kept running on well for second, beaten a long neck. Warranty raced in ninth place on the rails, got between runners at the 300m and finished nicely for third when fully clear, late, to take a good third.

Analysis: Consistent four-year-old gelding Odeon followed his good recent win in a Benchmark 84 (1700m) at Caulfield to take out his first stakes race here. He had a good trip in fifth place, on the rails, before improving (deeper) at the home turn. He took the lead at the 200m and then went on to score comfortably, running the 1800m out well. Life Less Ordinary raced in back in 14th place, improved (under riding) between runners on straightening, got to eighth at the 200m and then kept running on well for second, looking suited to further. Second Bullet raced in seventh place, on the rails, stuck to the inner on turning for home and kept fighting on to take the minor placing. The favourite Lubiton was quickly away, again went to the front and then set a solid tempo. She was overtaken at the 200m before holding on for (3.9 lengths) sixth, looking tested by the 1800m journey, especially after setting a strong pace.

Margins: 0.8 lens, 0.4 lens. Time: 1:22.85(last 600m 35.37).

Betting: $2.80, $12.00, $3.80.

Then followed: Perfect Jewel (AUS), Showcase (AUS), Ocean Jewel
 (AUS), Rubia Miss (AUS), Necklet (AUS), Like A Butterfly (AUS), Demons 'N' Dust (AUS) & I Needa Cardy (AUS), last.

Analysis: The Grant and Alana Williams-raced filly Mikimoto remains unbeaten after three starts, stepping up to take out this Listed race in good style. She settled in seventh place (one off the rails), behind a good tempo (first 800m 47.48) before William Pike switched her between runners nearing the home turn. She got through to second at the 100m and then finished too well to score a smart win in good time (1:22.85). It was also an excellent ride by leading jockey William Pike. Art Series had a nice trip from her inside barrier (1) racing in third place on the rails. She put in a run on straightening and then kept fighting on to take second. Sophia's Secret raced outside the leader (Rubia Miss), went to the front on turning for home and held on well for third after running a bold race while the previously unbeaten Perfect Jewel was back in ninth place before running on well for (1.3 lengths) fourth, looking suited to further.

Analysis: Ocean Embers put up a good effort in winning here. Having her third run this preparation, she raced in the group nearer the grandstand side, travelling in midfield before moving up to challenge at the 200m. She took a clear lead on passing the 100m and then went on to win well. Faatinah also raced on the grandstand side, leading that group. He was headed at the 100m and then fought well for second. The favourite I Thought So raced close to the favoured grandstand-side group, went to third in that group at the 100m and battled on quite well for third while Calanda led the runners on the far side, was overtaken at the 100m and held on for (2.3 lengths) fourth, doing best of the horses that raced on that side of the track.

7.15 Tai Lam Chung Handicap (Class 5) (3yo+) (B Course) (Turf) 1mf

£91954.02 guaranteed For 3yo+ Gold Velvet's Handicap Mark 39 Penalty value 1st £39,310.34 2nd £15,172.41 3rd £7,931.03 4th £4,137.93 5th £2,413.79

Table of race entries for 7.15 Tai Lam Chung Handicap, listing horses, jockeys, and odds.

BETTING FORECAST: 7-4 Gold Velvet, 4 Le Pegase, 8 My Gift, Rock The Tree, 10 Holy Unicorn, 12 Double Point, My Folks, 16 Best Jade Triumph, 20 Jimson The Famous, Wealthy Fortune, 33 G-One Union, Savannah Wind.

VERDICT It's hard to get away from GOLD VELVET, who has benefited from a drop in class this season and posted a good effort when second at Sha Tin last month. My Gift and My Folks are others worth considering.

7.45 Shek Pik Handicap (Class 4) (3yo+) (B Course) (Turf) 5f

£91954.02 guaranteed For 3yo+ Dr Race's Handicap Mark 59 Penalty value 1st £52,413.79 2nd £20,229.89 3rd £10,574.71 4th £5,517.24 5th £3,218.39

Table of race entries for 7.45 Shek Pik Handicap, listing horses, jockeys, and odds.

Table of race entries for 8.05 Plover Cove Handicap (Class 4) (3yo+) (B Course) (Turf) 6f BETTING FORECAST: 5 Peace Combination, 6 Noble De Boy, 7 Elegance Promise, 8 Ever Strong, Lunar Zephyr, Paddington, 10 Don't Miss, Holee Money, Horse Prosperous, 12 California Aspar, Ocean Roar, 20 Sparkling Talent.

VERDICT In a very open race the vote goes to PADDINGTON, who was a bit disappointing over 5f three weeks ago but began the season with two good runs over that trip, has a good draw today and shows enough speed to suggest he'll be suited by today's drop back to 5f.

8.15 Plover Cove Handicap (Class 4) (3yo+) (B Course) (Turf) 6f

£91954.02 guaranteed For 3yo+ Leisureed Feet's Handicap Mark 59 Penalty value 1st £52,413.79 2nd £20,229.89 3rd £10,574.71 4th £5,517.24 5th £3,218.39

Table of race entries for 8.15 Plover Cove Handicap, listing horses, jockeys, and odds.

BETTING FORECAST: 5-2 Otouto, 7-2 Multigogo, 5 Leisureed Feet, 6 Formula Galore, 8 Our Honour, 10 Funny Buddies, Salsa Brothers, 25 Super Clan, 33 Elite Power, Starlot, 40 Celestial Arrow, 100 Wonderful Tiger.

VERDICT Derek Cruz's 5yo OTOUTO is 0-16 in Hong Kong but has run well twice over C&D recently and, from the inside stall, is fancied to capitalise on some help from the handicapper.

8.45 Kam Shan Handicap (Class 4) (3yo+) (B Course) (Turf) 1m

£91954.02 guaranteed For 3yo+ Mister Monte's Handicap Mark 60 Penalty value 1st £52,413.79 2nd £20,229.89 3rd £10,574.71 4th £5,517.24 5th £3,218.39

Table of race entries for 8.45 Kam Shan Handicap, listing horses, jockeys, and odds.

9.15 The American Club Challenge Cup (Handicap) (Class 3) (3yo+) (Course B) (Turf) 1m

£136886.10 guaranteed For 3yo+ Golden Harvest's Handicap Mark 76 Penalty value 1st £78,025.08 2nd £30,114.94 3rd £15,741.90 4th £8,213.17 5th £4,791.01

Table of race entries for 9.15 The American Club Challenge Cup, listing horses, jockeys, and odds.
