Pounamu (Authorized), a talented yet frustrating gelding banished to Perth as a maiden and once considered a Western Australian bridesmaid, yesterday caused a boilover in one of the state's premier races by claiming the Kingston Town Classic (Gr 1, 1800m).

The Alan Mathews-trained Pounamu escaped the early carnage in the Kingston Town Classic which saw $3.20 favourite Black Heart Bart (Blackfriars) severely hampered and rival jockey Willie Pike suspended for 28 days.

Pounamu ($21), meanwhile, settled back in the field for regular jockey Patrick Carbery before making his run out wide in the straight to win the $1,000,000 race by half a length over Material Man (Vital Equine) ($31) and three-year-old Achenar Star (Gingerbread Man) ($8.50) who was another short head back in third.

The Kingston Town Classic win of Pounamou, who won the Asian Beau Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) first up before making up ground to finish sixth in the Railway Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) on 25 November, continued the gelding's remarkable turnaround.

"He has been a nice horse who was a work in progress. He came here (to WA) and won a couple of races, then he became the biggest bridesmaid in Western Australia," Mathews told Sky Thoroughbred Central.

"He has finally got his head around what we want him to do and we haven't had a day where everything hasn't gone right and it is just wonderful.

"We always said he had the ability, but he just didn't have the concentration span to get his head around doing it at the right time, but he has done it in glimpses.

"We have set him for the race having him second up in the Railway and third up in this race and it has all gone to plan."

Pounamu's winning connections

WESTERN RACPIX

Pounamu, who started his career with Wyong-based trainer Allan Denham, was runner-up in the Spring Stakes (Gr 3, 1600m), third in the Gloaming Stakes (Gr 3, 1800m) and also contested the Spring Champion Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) as a three-year-old but could not break through.

He also raced against Group One winners Winx (Street Cry), Preferment (Zabeel) and Volkstok'n'barrell (Tavistock) but was eventually sent west after 13 winless starts in New South Wales after finishing fifth of sixth in a Canterbury maiden (1900m) in October 2015.

Mathews, who has managed to win nine races with Pounamu including three at stakes level, had the Perth Cup (Gr 2, 2400m) planned out for the gelding but was now unsure whether to press ahead to the feature race after yesterday's Group One victory.

The Muchea-based Mathews, who trains from a private property, praised his long-term stable jockey Patrick Carbery for his ride on Pounamu.

"We go back 15 or 16 years and jockeys have bad runs and trainers have bad runs, but we stick together and we work as a team," Mathews said.

Carbery, who has ridden Pounamu in 22 of his 23 race starts since the horse joined Mathews's stable, was delighted to secure the Group One win.

"We have won heaps of races together, Alan and I, and he always sticks solid with me," Carbery told Sky Thoroughbred Central.

"To win a Group One race for Alan and the team it means more to me. I don't know if he realises how much I appreciate how solid he has been (and) this is my way of paying him back."

Carbery said Pounamu had given him a great feel when cantering him to the barriers and the horse lived up to expectations with a trouble-free run.

"He got a bit further back than I wanted, but he doesn't like to be hustled and bustled and I tracked up Dougie Whyte (on Life Less Ordinary) and when he rolled off I got the nice run through," he said.

"He towed me into the race and he likes to be ridden like that. I guess his form turnaround is because of the way we are now training him and he is just so happy and the results speak for themselves."

Justin Warwick, the trainer of runner-up Material Man, was delighted with the gelding's performance.

HEAD PERSON PRE-TRAINING

Godolphin is the world's largest bloodstock operation. With a major presence in seven countries across the world, we are currently seeking a head person for our pre-training yard in Newmarket, UK.

Reporting to the yard manager, the successful applicant will be expected to ride and handle horses to the highest standard; break in and ride away yearlings and ride older horses. In addition, you may be asked to undertake general yard and maintenance duties as well as more specialised duties such as swimming horses, introducing them to the sea walker, stalls work, long reining etc.

The successful candidate must exhibit good leadership and communication skills. It is important you have a positive attitude towards the role and show respect and courtesy to fellow workmates.

In return, we offer a very competitive salary and benefits package and a first-class working environment, with excellent opportunities to learn and develop new skills.

To apply please send your CV and covering letter to: email uk-recruitment@godolphin.com, phone 01638 730070 or call in person at the Pre-Training Office, Gainsborough Stables, Hamilton Road, Newmarket CB8 0TE

Closing date for applications: 15 December, 2017.

"I didn't think he would go that well. I thought he was spot on for the race but I also thought there were some better horses in the race," Warwick said.

"He has surprised us all the way through but has a very good horse's record."

Completing an all-Western Australia-trained trifecta, three-year-old Achernar Star also pleased his trainer Simon Miller with the gelding's run.

"I thought on straightening, 'here we go' but I was watching the race (in the caller's box) so I couldn't lair up too much," Miller told Sky Thoroughbred Central.

"He has done (for the preparation). I don't know where we will go with him in the autumn but we have a nice horse on our hands."

Pounamu (6 g Authorized - Tangiwai by Street Cry) has now won nine races with 13 placings for prize money totalling $1,122,530, a feat that seemed unlikely when he arrived at Mathews' stable as a maiden.

The gelding, bred and owned by John Thompson who also raced Caulfield Cup (Gr 1, 2400m) winner Diatribe (Zabeel), is out of the twice-winning mare Tangiwai (Street Cry) who is a daughter of the Listed-winning Paul Cave-trained Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) placegetter Lahar (Kenare).

His third dam is the Listed winner Volcanic (Pompeii Court) who also produced the stakes-placed Lava Lady (Kenmare), a family that also includes Group Two winner Injustice (Straight Strike), who was champion New Zealand two-year-old.

Tangiwai, who died in October 2016, has a five-year-old winner Kokopu (Medaglia d'Oro) who has recently joined Mathews's stable after racing in New South Wales and an unraced three-year-old Weeping Waters (Medaglia d'Oro) who was runner-up in a Wyong barrier trial last week for trainer Nick Mitchell.

She also has a two-year-old filly by Darley shuttler Medaglia d'Oro (El Prado) but died before foaling to So You Think (High Chaparral) last year.

Pounamou is the fifth Group One winner for his former Darley shuttle sire Authorized (Montjeu) who stood in Australia for four years from 2009 to 2012.

Now standing at Haras du Logis at Normandy in France for €12,000, Authorized is also the sire of European Group One-winning import Hartnell and Spring Champion Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) winner Complacent who now stands at stud at Mapperley Stud in New Zealand for NZ$5,000 (plus GST).

Kawi bounces back in Captain Cook Stakes

New Zealand star Kawi (Savabeel) stormed back into something like his best form when he won his seventh race at the elite level with a tough performance in yesterday's Captain Cook Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) at Trentham.

The Allan Sharrock-trained seven-year-old sustained a long run for jockey Jason Waddell to win the NZ$200,000 Group One race to secure the 15th victory of his career and join outstanding mare Seachange (Cape Cross) on seven victories at the top level.

Kawi

RACE IMAGES

After settling back and wide, Waddell made a surging run on Kawi who was able to hold off the challenge of Consensus (Postponed) who finished one and a quarter lengths away in second.

Group One winner Sofia Rosa (Makfi) was another half length away in third place, a short head in front of Benzini (Tale Of The Cat).

"He's a very good horse – he sat four wide and that's not how we saw it, but he was tough enough," Sharrock said.

"He was travelling on the corner, it was a terrific effort."

Waddell said his pre-race plans went awry in the early stages of the race.

"Down the back straight we were all over the place, we had a good spot and then got shuffled back.

"I then rode him like the best horse in the race and kept him out of trouble and rolling along.

"When the speed went out of the race 700 metres from home I got going. It's a long way down that straight, but he's just a tiger."

Sharrock was non-committal about where Kawi would next run, suggesting the gelding could even be freshened up and aimed at the Telegraph Handicap (Gr 1, 1200m) in January.

"We could stay at a mile or go to 2000 metres or freshen him up and go for the Telegraph – he's a tractable horse," he said.

A winner of 15 races and ran nine placings from 37 starts, Kawi (7 g Savabeel - Magic Time by Volksraad) has earned career prize money of NZ$1,309,412.50, with seven of his victories at the elite level.

Kawi is one of four winners from five to race from his dam Magic Time (Volksraad) and is the second stakes winner in the first four generations on his female family, the other being Capture Him (Mr Prospector), a Listed winner in the US in the mid-1980s out of his fourth dam.

Further back this is the family of Group/Grade One winners in Flagbird (Nureyev), Mineshaft (A P Indy), Tomisue's Delight (A P Indy) and Mr Sidney (Storm Cat), who feature under Kiwi's fifth dam. Magic Time has a three-year-old filly by Zed (Zabeel) and a two-year-old filly by Rock 'N' Pop (Fastnet Rock), who was sold for NZ$40,000 to Anzac Lodge at this year's New Zealand Bloodstock Premier Yearling Sale from the Seaton Park draft.

Meanwhile, Kawi is one of his sire Savabeel's (Zabeel) 15 Group One winners and one of 69 individual stakes winners. New Zealand's reigning champion sire, a title he also won the previous two seasons, Savabeel enjoyed a Group One double last month when Embellish took out the New Zealand 2,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) and Hasahalo won the New Zealand 1,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) at Riccarton.

He stands at Waikato Stud for a 2017 fee of NZ$100,000 (plus GST). At the upcoming New Zealand Bloodstock Karaka Book One Sale, Savabeel has 76 yearlings catalogued at the January sale.

Promising filly Spring Heat lands Bonecrusher Stakes

Lightly raced three-year-old Spring Heat (More Than Ready) showed herself to be a filly on the rise after she produced a dominant breakthrough success in the Bonecrusher Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) at Ellerslie yesterday.

The Lance O'Sullivan and Andrew Scott-trained Spring Heat ($4.20), who was ridden by Australian jockey Jake Bayliss, progressed from her impressive maiden win at Hastings on 12 November to a Group Three win at her third start.

The daughter of More Than Ready (Southern Halo), who was runner-up at her first start on 22 September in a Taupo maiden over 1200 metres, surged home to defeat Xbox (Niagara) by two and a half lengths.

The Ben Foote-trained The Great Southern (Jimmy Choux) was another short-head away in third place, with the $2.50 favourite Prom Queen (Super Easy) a further three quarters of a length back in fourth place.

Scott and O'Sullivan have always held Spring Heat in high regard and they have earmarked the Eight Carat Classic (Gr 2, 1600m) at Ellerslie on Boxing Day as a potential target.

"I'll talk to Lance and he'll map out a plan, but the Eight Carat is probably the logical race," Scott said.

"She got a bit lost turning for home and got to the middle of the track and really quickened. It's really encouraging for the rest of the summer and the autumn.

"Jake's got a wonderful work ethic and he deserves everything he gets."

Bayliss moved to New Zealand last month after being offered a position with trainers Mike Moroney and Pam Gerard as well as O'Sullivan and Scott.

"This means the world to me, it doesn't matter whether it's in Australia or New Zealand - it's a Group Three race," he said.

Bayliss said he had to remain patient on Spring Heat, who was settled three pairs back on the rail before gaining clear room and showing an explosive turn of foot at the 250 metres to reel in the leaders.

"I had to bide my time and she's still very green, but when I gave her one around her backside she really knuckled down," he said.

Spring Heat (3 f More Than Ready - Emaurismo by Redoute's Choice), who was bought for $240,000 at the Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale in 2016 by Wexford Stables from the Sledmere Stud draft, has won two of her three starts for earnings of NZ$50,250.

Spring Heat is one of five winners for her unraced dam Emaurismo (Redoute's Choice), herself a daughter of the Silver Shadow Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) winner Katima (Zeditave).

The three-year-old filly's older sister is stakes-performer Southern Girl who ran fourth in the Triscay Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) for trainer Darren Smith at Randwick in 2014.

Also hailing from Spring Heat's female line are stakes-placed Keeping Up (Quest For Fame), Pago Pago Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) winner Deferential (Royal Academy) and this year's Canberra Guineas (Listed, 1400m) winner Eusebio (Benfica), Emaurismo's now two-year-old by Denman (Lonhro) was exported to China earlier this year after being purchased by Beijing Racing Stable for $52,500 at the 2017 Inglis Classic Yearling Sale from the Sledmere Stud draft.

The mare, whose Rubick (Encosta De Lago) foal born in 2016 was subsequently destroyed, has a filly by Shooting To Win (Northern Meteor) born on 19 October this year.

Sylpheed breaks through in Just Now Quality

Four-year-old Sylpheed (Real Saga) broke through at stakes level for the first time yesterday when she ran out a ready winner of the Just Now Quality (Listed, 1350m) at Doomben.

The Toby Edmonds-trained Sylpheed took out yesterday's $100,000 Listed race at her third start back from a spell and was rewarded for her consistent form having finished third last start in Ubet Classic (registered as Colin McApline Classic) (Listed, 1200m).

Yesterday's victory was Sylpheed's third win from 15 starts after registering four placings at stakes level, Sylpheed was the beneficiary of a smart ride from Toowoomba-based jockey Nozi Tomizawa.

Sylpheed ($13), who gained a rails run from barrier 12, defeated Denmagic (Denman) ($4.60) by one and a quarter lengths, with Sheiswhatsheis (Bernardini) ($13) another neck away in third place.

Edmonds said owner Tommy Sekiguchi was behind the decision to book Tomizawa to ride the mare. Tomizawa also rode at the Gold Coast and Toowoomba race meetings yesterday.

"Sylpheed is owned by Tommy Sekiguchi, who is based in Japan and has made his money through computers," Edmonds said.

"He has noticed on the internet Nozi riding winners around the place and sent us a Facebook message asking we book him. In fact, he was going to take the horse off us when we didn't book Nozi last start."

Edmonds said Sylpheed would now try to get into the Magic Millions series via a wildcard entry.

"She raced very well during the winter and was unlucky in a couple of races including the Queensland Guineas," Edmonds said.

"Her honesty has been rewarded today. It was good to get a win because we have had a bit of bad luck lately. Last time dad was away we won five races in a day at Caloundra and maybe he should stay away more."

Tomizawa said Sylpheed had had a good run along the fence in the final 200 metres.

"She did a very good job. That was one of biggest wins," he said.

Sylpheed started her racing career with Gai Waterhouse, winning her first start as a two-year-old at Wyong before running third to subsequent Stradbroke Handicap (Gr 1, 1350m) winner Impending and stakes winner Eckstein (I Am Invincible).

The four-year-old joined Edmonds' Gold Coast strable late last year and raced well during an summer an extended campaign without winning. Her campaign included placings in the Queensland Day Stakes (Listed, 1350m) and the Fred Best Classic (Gr 3, 1400m).

A $36,000 purchase from Book Two of the Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale in 2015 from the Raheen Stud draft, Sylpheed (4 m Real Saga - Domitilla by Strategic) has won three races with a further six placings from 15 starts. She has earned $215,900 so far in her career.

The second foal out of the three-time winner Domitilla (Strategic), who is a half-sister to BRC Champagne Classic (Gr 2, 1200m) winner Free Wheeling (Ad Valorem) and the stakes-placed Easy Drama (Real Saga), Sylpheed is the sole winner out of her dam.

As well as being related to the Darley-owned and raced Free Wheeling, Sylpheed's fourth dam is VRC Oaks (Gr 1, 2500m) winner and star mare Toltrice (Matrice), who produced Group One winner Seltrice (Selhurst) herself the grand dam of stallions Keltrice (Kemare) and Eureka Stud-based Red Dazzler (Red Ransom).

Domitilla has an unraced three-year-old filly by Rothesay (Fastnet Rock) called Dotti Dear who is in training at Eagle Farm with Barry Lockwood and a two-year-old colt called Golden Dice (Golden Archer). He was passed in at this year's Inglis Classic Yearling Sale by vendor Raheen Stud and the colt is now being prepared by Phillip Stokes in Adelaide.

Domitilla also has a yearling colt by Golden Archer (Rock Of Gibraltar) and a Zoustar (Northern Meteor) colt born on 18 September and was covered by Pride Of Dubai (Street Cry) on 1 October.

Sylpheed is the sixth stakes winner for the Eureka Stud-based stallion Real Saga (Tale Of The Cat) who has also sired Adrian Knox Stakes (Gr 3, 2000m) winner Candelara and Magic Millions 2YO Classic (RL, 1200m) winner Real Surreal. Real Saga, who stands for $9,900 (inc GST), covered 44 mares in 2016.

Five for Authorized

The Alan Mathews-trained Pounamu (6 g ex Tangiwai by Street Cry) came from the back to win the Kingston Town Classic (Gr 1, 1800m) at Ascot yesterday and in the process provided Authorized (Montjeu) with his fifth Group One winner. The six-year-old gelding was a first up winner of the Asian Beau Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) on 4 November and was last seen running sixth in the Railway Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) on 25 November and yesterday he beat Material Man (Vital Equine) by half a length with another short-neck back to Achernar Star (Gingerbread Man) in third. Pounamu joins Hartnell, Complacent, Ambivalent and Seal Of Approval as the sires other Group One winners.

38 for War Chant

The Yarradale Stud-based War Chant (Danzig) sired his 38th stakes winner yesterday when the Darren McAuliffe-trained War Room (3 g ex Impressing Matters by Viscount) retained his unbeaten record by taking out the Sir Ernest Lee-Steere Classic (Listed, 1400m) at Ascot yesterday. The three-year-old gelding came into the race having won his only two other career starts and he maintained that perfect thread when defeating the Godolphin-raced Gaulois (Street Cry) by a short-neck with another two lengths back to Reykjavik (Artie Schiller) in third. War Chant stands for a fee of $11,000 (inc GST) and he has 19 yearlings catalogued for the Magic Millions Perth Yearling Sale, which begins its two-day run on 19 February 2018.

Back-to-back stakes wins for Celebrity Dream

The Adam Durrant-trained Celebrity Dream (5 f Thorn Park - Valpolicella by Red Ransom) made it back-to-back stakes victories when she ran out a ready winner of the Jungle Dawn Classic (Listed, 1400m) at Ascot yesterday. A last start winner of the Jungle Mist Classic (Listed, 1200m), Celebrity Dream raced in fourth in the early part of the race and upon straightening she found a gap down the centre of the track to score a three quarter length victory over Fontainebleau (Alfred Nobel) with Top Of The Class (Star Witness) in third.

Five straight for Trap For Fools

The Lindsey Smith-trained Trap For Fools (4 g Poet's Voice - Old Money by Old Spice) secured his fifth win in as many starts and back-to-back stakes wins when he ran out a dominant winner of the WATC Towton Cup (Listed, 2200m) at Ascot yesterday. The four-year-old gelding was last seen winning the WATC Tattersall's Cup (Listed, 2100m) and yesterday he was able to add a second stakes victory to his CV when he scored a two and a quarter length victory over Angola (Helenus) with another short-neck back to Falcon Crest (Musket) in third. Trap For Fools is one of 11 stakes winners for former Darley shuttler Poet's Voice (Dubawi).

Six for Real Saga

The Eureka Stud-based stallion Real Saga (Tale Of The Cat) sired his sixth stakes winner when the Tony Edmonds-trained Sylpheed (4 f ex Domitilla by Strategic) won the Just Now Quality (Listed, 1350m) at Doomben yesterday. The four-year-old filly had run third in both starts this preparation, including in her most recent appearance in the Ubet Classic (registered as Colin McApline Classic) (Listed, 1200m) and yesterday she was able to score her first victory in stakes company when she defeated Denmagic (Denman) by a length and a quarter with another neck back to Sheiswhatsheis (Bernardini) in third. Real Saga stands for a fee of $9,900 (inc GST) and he has five lots catalogued for the upcoming Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale, which begins its four-day run on 10 January.

The Ben Currie-trained Cantbuybetter (6 g

Casino Prince - Lingerie Girl by Xaar) secured his second win at stakes level when he won the Brisbane Handicap (Listed, 1600m) at Doomben yesterday. The gelding's, whose stakes win came when he won the Members' Handicap (Listed, 1600m) at Doomben in May, and yesterday he defeated Hopfgarten (Mossman) by a head with the same distance back to Zahspeed (Speed 'N' Power) in third. Currie said after the race the gelding would now likely be aimed at the Bernborough Handicap (Listed, 1600m) at Doomben on 30 December.

Derby aim for Zofonic Dancer

Following Zofonic Dancer's (Zoffany) victory in the QTIS Three-Years-Old Handicap (1600m) at Doomben yesterday, trainer Robert Heathcote expressed his intention to now aim the gelding at the Queensland Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) on 9 June. Zofonic Dancer beat Boom Boom Epic (Sebring) by a neck with another half a length back to Magnufighter (Magnus) in third. "He is my Queensland Derby horse and the win today gives him enough money to make the field, taking the pressure off us," Heathcote said. "Zofonic Dancer can go for a spell now with the job well done. Not many horses win four of their first five starters."

Like A Carousel causes upset in Pakenham Cup

Like A Carousel (8 g Helike - Carnival Ride by Spinning World) proved that age knows no boundaries when he caused an upset when winning the Pakenham Cup (Listed, 2500m) yesterday. The Ken Keys-trained eight-year-old had not been successful since his win over 3200 metres at Sale in June and yesterday he put in a brave performance to beat Khartoum (Helenus) by a short-head with Oncidium Ruler (Strategic) another length and three quarters further back in third. "He's got unbelievable stamina and he's proved it today," Keys said. "I thought we were a sneaky place chance."

Amadeus wins lucrative VOBIS Gold Bullion

Trainer Mick Kent was pleased with the performance of Amadeus' (Amadeus Wolf) after he landed the lucrative VOBIS Gold Bullion (1400m) at Pakenham yesterday. The five-year-old entire beat Willi Willi (Mint Lane) who finished off well in his return to racing for second while favourite Burning Front (Primus) raced up on the pace and led into the straight before finishing another half-neck away third. "We had a bit of a throw at the stumps because he looked badly handicapped in the race but the VOBIS Gold money is so attractive," Kent said. "He won really well. He's got good ability. He had a bad injury a while ago and it's taken him a while to get back to his best form. He was unlucky last start (at Kyneton) but to beat those horses at the weights was a good effort."

Magic Millions aim for Bel Sonic

Bel Sonic (Bel Esprit) showcased his Magic Millions 3YO Guineas (RL, 1400m) claims when he won a Benchmark 70 (1000m) for three-year-olds at Pakenham yesterday. The three-year-old defeated Spirit Of Aquada (Bel Esprit) by half a length with just over a length back to Elite Legacy (Lope De Vega) in third and trainer Jason Warren is now seriously considering a trip to the Gold Coast on the 13 January. "He's got untapped ability," Warren's racing manager Gerard Tesoriero said. "He's a big gross horse and he takes a bit of work sometimes but he showed today that he got to them quite easily at about the 300-metre mark and then put the race away nicely. The little let up that he's had has definitely brought his maturity on."

Tried And Tired ends winning drought

Fresh from outriding his claim at Moonee Valley on Friday, apprentice Ben Allen rode Tried And Tired (Niello) to a surprise victory over 1200 metres at Pakenham yesterday, the gelding's first win since March 2016. The Jarrod McLean-trained eight-year-old gelding got the better of Proud Wolf (Amadeus Wolf) by three quarters of a length with another head back to short-priced favourite Jungle Edge (Dubawi) in third. "I galloped him the other morning and he galloped like a weapon," Allen said. "It's just getting him to try on race day.

I got into a good spot and got a stuck run into it. Once I peeled him out he let down well and put them away nicely."

First for Bryannbo's Gift

In winning the City Of Marion Stakes (Listed, 1200m) at Morphettville yesterday, the Will Clarcken-trained Steel Frost (5 g ex Horshee by Commands) provided Bryannbo's Gift (Zabeel) with his first stakes winner. The five-year-old gelding, who was having only his second start in stakes company, beat Casino Wizard (Any Given Saturday) by just under a length with another length and three quarters back to Sudden Wealth (Time Thief) in third.

Gongs retains her perfect record

The Godolphin-raced Gongs (Dawn Approach) showed she could be set for some high-class autumn targets including the biggest two-year-old prize of all, the Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) when she recorded the second victory of her career in the Merry Christmas ATC Members Handicap (1200m) at Rosehill yesterday. After making an impressive winning debut at Canterbury on 22 November, Gongs retained her unbeaten record when beating Orcein (Snitzel) by a length and a half. "She's got a touch of class and brilliance about her," Godolphin assistant trainer Darren Beadman said. "I'm a huge fan of Dawn Approach. I think he's got a very special filly here. The demeanour of the filly, she's nice and relaxed, she conserves her energy." The win provided Godolphin trainer James Cummings with the first leg of a winning double on the card after Drachenfels (Street Cry) followed up his stablemates win in a Benchmark 80 (1200m).

Stakes aim for Noire

Syndicator Denise Martin has already had Group One success with Foxplay (Foxwedge) and will be hoping he has another potential stakes winner by a daughter Foxwedge (Fastnet Rock) in the form of Noire, after he was left impressed with her win in the Owners Benefit Card Handicap (1400m) at Rosehill yesterday. The Chris Waller-trained four-year-old filly stayed on stoutly to beat Miss Ballantine (Redoute's Choice) by a length. "We think she can get to stakes level," Waller's racing manager Charlie Duckworth said. "She's taken forever to mature but she is what she is and there is plenty of upside. We will be looking at better races for her in about six months time."

Double for Spirit Of Boom

First crop stallion Spirit Of Boom (Sequalo) continued the good start to his career at stud when he was provided with a double at the Gold Coast yesterday taking his overall tally of winners to five. The first leg of the brace was provided by the the Les Ross-trained Holdin' My Own (2 f ex Imanoremiss by Made Of Gold) when she defeated Victory Liner (Foxwedge) by three quarters of a length in a 900 metre maiden. In the following race, the Garnett Taylor-trained two-year-old gelding Bold Aurora (2 g ex Arctic Eclipse by Spinning World) made a winning debut over 900 metres in a juvenile maiden, surviving a protest to be his sire's fifth two-year-old winner. Eureka Stud-based Group One winner Spirit Of Boom is currently the leading first season sire by winners and earnings and stands for 2017 fee of $11,000 (inc GST).

Pike cops month suspension

Perth's leading jockey William Pike was yesterday handed a 28 day suspension and fined $2,000 for careless riding aboard Perfect Jewel (Redoute's Choice) in the Kingston Town Classic (Gr 1, 1800m). The incident happened at the 1600 metre mark when Pike allegedly shifted when insufficiently clear of Achernar Star (Gingerbread Man) who was carried inwards causing Black Heart Bart (Blackfriars) to be tightened and checked severely and blunder. Pike, who pleaded guilty, begins his suspension today and will be able to return on 7 January.

Dunn suspended

Jockey Dwayne Dunn's visit to Brisbane for the Jockeys Origin series hit a hurdle when he was suspended for 13 days at Doomben. Dunn, who rode Pillara (High Chaparral) in the second heat on Friday, pleaded guilty to careless riding passing the 1600 metre mark when he allowed his mount to shift in when not fully clear of Beau Isa (Nothing To Lose). This led to Astronomic (Northern Meteor) to be severely checked when tightened for room between Beau Isa and the running rail. Dunn is suspended for 13 days, to commence at midnight on Sunday and finish on 23 December. He was able to ride for the remainder of the series on an automatic stay.

NSW take lead in Origin Jockeys

New South Wales (NSW) will take a narrow lead into the final day of the Jockeys Origin series after scoring a win and a third on the second day of the series at Doomben. New Zealand (NZ) were the leaders after the first day when Damian Browne won a heat and finished second in the other. NZ went into the second day leading Victoria who had a winner and a third on the first day by a point. But NSW made a move when Tye Angland drove Realing (Real Saga) to a win over Chamalu (Redwood), ridden by the All Stars Robbie Fradd, in the fourth race on Saturday. South Australia picked up two more points when Jamie Kah was third on Sharp Speedo (Captain Sonador).

New Zealand

178 for More Than Ready

The Lance O'Sullivan and Andrew Scott-trained Spring Heat (3 f ex Emaurismo by Redoute's Choice) ran out a convincing winner of the Bonecrusher Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) at Ellerslie yesterday and in the process provided Vinery Stud shuttler More Than Ready (Southern Halo) with his 178th stakes winner. The daughter of More Than Ready surged home to defeat Xbox (Niagara) by two and a half lengths with The Great Southern (Jimmy Choux) another half head away in third place. More Than Ready stands at Vinery Stud for a fee of $66,000 (inc GST) and he has 42 lots catalogued at the upcoming Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale in January.

22 for Showcasing

The Haunui Farm shuttler Showcasing (Oasis Dream) was yesterday provided with his 22nd stakes winner courtesy of Xpression's (2 f ex Xpress by Don Eduardo) win in the Wakefield Challenge Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) at Trentham. The two-year-old filly, who ran third on debut, beat Espumoso (Pins) by half a length with Bit Lippy (Showcasing) a further three lengths adrift in third. Showcasing has nine lots catalogued at next month's New Zealand Bloodstock (NZB) Karaka National Yearling Sale. Meanwhile, Xpression's sister is among the lots catalogued for Book Two NZB Karaka National Yearling Sale and she is listed as Lot 1077.

Break for Xpression

Following Xpression's maiden victory in the Wakefield Challenge Stakes at Trentham, co-trainer Guy Lowry said she would likely head for a spell with the Manawatu Sires' Produce Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) in the autumn a potential long term target for the two-year-old. "She's always been an intelligent horse and really settled after her run the other day. She learned a lot from her first start," said Lowry, who trains the filly with Grant Cullen. She'll probably have a bit of a break now," Lowry said. "We could look at the Manawatu Sires' Produce Stakes later on."

Gift Of Power in impressive Trentham victory

Group Two winner Gift Of Power (Power) staked her Railway Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) claim when she stormed back into form in the Kamada Park Handicap (1000m) at Trentham yesterday. The Graeme and Debbie Rogerson-trained three-year-old won first up this preparation and then disappointed on her next start in the James & Annie Sarten Memorial Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m). However, yesterday she returned to winner's circle when she beat Euphoria (Rip Van Winkle) by a decisive two lengths. "She's in the Railway and we'll see how she comes through this and that's the way we'll head," said part-owner Bailey Rogerson. "She's a horse with a very special place in my heart."

Volpe Veloce issues Railway Stakes warning

Following her victory in the Ray White NZ Handicap (1200m) at Ellerslie, Group Two winner Volpe Veloce (Foxwedge) is also likely to return to the track on New Year's Day for a tilt at the Railway Stakes. The four-year-old mare put in an impressive performance to beat the Stephen Autridge and Jamie Richards-trained pair, Group Two winner Heroic Valour (Fastnet Rock) and Group One Melody Belle (Commands), who finished second and third respectively. "I'm shaking, she did a lot wrong and still won," said Graham Richardson, who trains the mare with Gavin Parker. "That was amazing and it's definitely the Railway next. The second horse came out and looked to be travelling better, but she's very gutsy."

Asia

23 for Zenno Rob Roy

The Hirofumi Toda-trained Maitres d'Art (4 c ex Exhibit One by Silver Hawk) ran out a convincing winner of the The Chunichi Shimbun Hai (Gr 3, 2000m) at Chukyo yesterday and in the process provided Zenno Rob Roy (Sunday Silence) with his 23rd stakes winner. The four-year-old colt was able to put his last start failure in the Sekiya Kinen (Gr 3, 1600m) behind him and defeat Mikki Rocket (King Kamehameha) by a length and a half with another half a length back to Lord Vent d'Or (Daiwa Major) in third. Zenno Rob Roy stands at the Breeders Stallion Station in Japan.

Moreira retains faith in Seasons Bloom

Jockey Joao Moreira believes Seasons Bloom (Captain Sonador) can continue on his upward trajectory when he lines up in the Hong Kong Mile (Gr 1, 1600m) at today's Hong Kong International Race meeting at Sha Tin. Moreira, who steered the Danny Shum-trained gelding to a last start win in the Wealth Management Jockey Club Mile (Gr 2, 1600m) in November, believes there is still more to come from the five-year-old. "He has really come back a new horse this season; he wasn't quite the full product last year," Moreira said. "I couldn't be more confident than I am with him. He's a very nice, upcoming horse and I wouldn't be surprised if he wins."

Satono Aladdin ready for swansong

Japanese trainer Yasutoshi Ikee will be hoping Grade One winner Satono Aladdin (Deep Impact) can put two last start failures behind him when he has his final start in the Hong Kong Mile at the Hong Kong International Race meeting at Sha Tin today, with jockey Hugh Bowman aboard. Victory in this year's Yasuda Kinen (Gr 1, 1600m) in June was then followed by two more starts at Grade One level, where he finished last and most recently 12th in the Mile Championship (Gr 1, 1600m) at Kyoto. "Coming into the Hong Kong Mile, it is a quick turn around again and he has had to travel outside of Japan, so I have not asked him to work too hard. But we have been trying to build him up mentally. He looks well and is concentrating on his galloping with the addition of blinkers. I am happy him," Ikee said.

International

First for Finjaan

The Erasmo Lo Piparo-trained Pachinaaj (2 c Pachanga by Inchinor) ran out a narrow winner of the Criterium Dell'Immacolata (Listed, 1400m) at Siracuse on Friday and in the process provided Finjaan (Royal Applause) with his first stakes winner. The two-year-old colt, who was purchased by New Racing Factory for £6,000 at the Goffs Doncaster Silver Yearling Sale in 2016 from the Broughton Bloodstock, beat Da Non Credere (Bold Fact) by three quarters of a length with another Siciliano Bello (Lilbourne Lad) in third. Finjaan stands at Gazeley Stud in Newmarket.

Phiz realises €600,000 on first day at Arqana

At the time of going to press, the German-bred Group Three-placed mare Phiz (Galileo) was topping the first day of the Arqana Breeding Stock Sale in Deauville after James Delahooke went to €600,000 to secure the daughter of Galileo (Sadler's Wells) from the Ecurie des Monceaux draft. Catalogued as Lot 34, the mare is the dam of unraced two-year-old Cardew (Declaration Of War) and foaled a colt by Kingman (Invincible Spirit) in 2016, who was purchased by Kunimoto Tetsuhide for €340,000 at the Arqana August Yearling Sale.

Earlier this year, Phiz foaled a colt by Haras de Bonneval-based sire Siyouni (Invincible Spirit) and she was offered yesterday in foal to Le Havre (Noverre).

Sun Bloodstock purchase Mademoiselle Marie

Sun Bloodstock were also active on the first day of the Arqana Breeding Stock Sale in Deauville, purchasing Listed-winning mare Mademoiselle Marie (Evasive) for €120,000 from the draft of Hara du Hoguenet. Catalogued as Lot 77, the mare is half-sister to Listed winner Born Tobouggie (Tobougg), this is family of dual Grade One winner White Heart (Green Desert). Meanwhile, Australian-based Bloodstock agent Seamus Mills also made his presence felt, taking home Belfast (Manduro) for €35,000. The mare is a half-sister Group Three winner Don't Hurry Me (Hurricane Run) and Listed winner Bernay (King's Best) and she was catalogued as Lot 149.

Elm Park joins French stallion ranks

Elm Park (Phoenix Reach), who won the Racing Post Trophy (Gr 1, 1m) in 2014, has been sold to start his stallion career at Haras du Saz near Nantes in France in a deal brokered by bloodstock agent Richard Venn and he will be stand for an introductory fee of €3,000. Elm Park won five of his nine starts, including four at stakes level and amassed £279,829 in career prizemoney. "If Elm Park's progeny inherit his temperament and even half of his ability they will be in good standing. We will be supporting him with mares and look forward to seeing his progeny in the future," Elm Park's former trainer Andrew Balding said.

Death toll of horses in devastating blaze rises above 40

More than 40 horses are now believed to have died in the devastating barn fires that swept through the stabling area at the San Luis Rey Downs training centre in southern California on Thursday. As fundraising to help horses and humans affected by the tragedy soared to more than €400,000, Del Mar and Santa Anita became temporary homes to nearly 500 displaced thoroughbreds. California Horse Racing Board chairman Chuck Winner visited San Luis Rey Downs on Friday and told drf.com that attempting to put a precise figure on the number of horses killed was still impossible. However, trainer Scott Hansen has reported that 15 of his 30 horses died. "We don't know how many yet," said Winner. "The estimates are above 40 to 42, I think. Those are just estimates."

Hong Kong Cup (Gr 1, 2000m)

Blond Me (Tamayuz) (GB - Reportedly very fit, she did her final piece of work breezing around the all-weather track under work rider Leanne Masterton. She clocked 24.6 seconds (12.6, 12.0) for her final 400 metres. Sunday's rider, Oisin Murphy, said: "No one wants to be drawn high, but hopefully they'll go fast and I'll be able to get a good position. Andrew (Balding) is great to ride for and will leave it up to me. Blond Me has kept on surprising me, and seems in great form for this. Neorealism could be the one to beat."

Deauville (Galileo) (IRE) - Completed his preparations under Gary O'Connor with an undemanding gallop on the all-weather track going 400 metres in 27.6 seconds (14.6, 13.0).

Garlingari (Lingari) (FR) - Trainer Corine Barande-Barbe sent Garlingari out onto the turf track but work rider Zoe Gargoulaud asked no serious questions of the six-year-old. Barande-Barbe said: "Walking on grass is better for the horses than going on the artificial surface and, since you have the right to go on the turf course twice during the week, we thought we'd make use of it. He had a light exercise on it Thursday and this was just to go for a little stroll and to look at the public that had come out. There is no problem with him at all and he is ready to run."

Neorealism (Neo Universe) (JPN) - Cantered comfortably on the turf. Trainer Noriyuki Hori said: "The all-weather track seems to be slightly firmer than it was in April. The turf condition is much better and I have decided to work him on turf this morning. He had an easy canter, and all has gone smoothly. Even after the breeze, he has kept his good form and he is ready for Sunday."

Poet's Word (Poet's Voice) (GB) - Easy canter on the turf track this morning after his impressive 800 metre gallop yesterday. Trainer Sir Michael Stoute said: "It's a tough race, as it's entitled to be given its value, and the draw is less than ideal from this start (2000m). However, he's a very consistent fellow who's in good order and the team's been happy with him this week. Drawing widest of all remains the concern."

Poet's Word

Robin Of Navan (American Post) (GB) - On the all-weather track, he did some faster work than earlier in the week. He recorded 30 seconds (15.2, 14.8) for his final 400 metres.

Secret Weapon (Choisir) (HK) - Cantered on the small inner all-weather.

Smart Layer (Deep Impact) (JPN) - Cantered one and a half laps around the Sha Tin all-weather course. Trainer Ryuji Okubo said: "We sent her out today to keep her loose for the race tomorrow. She was moving quite well and seems to have really settled into her new surroundings well this year."

Staphanos (Deep Impact) (JPN) - Worked one and a half laps around the Sha Tin all-weather track, completing 800 metres in 57.4 seconds (15.6, 15.2, 13.4, 13.2). Assistant trainer Kazuo Fujiwara said: "He was very relaxed today. He is primed and ready for his race tomorrow."

Time Warp (Archipenko) (HK) - Cantered on the all-weather.

War Decree (War Front) (IRE) - Rounded off his preparations with a leisurely gallop on the all-weather track, clocked over 400 metres in 30.2 seconds (15.2, 15.0).

Werther (Tavistock) (HK) - Cantered two laps on the small inner all-weather under race day rider Tommy Berry. Trainer John Moore said: "He's done everything that we could ask of him. He worked well on Thursday - he just doesn't like getting beaten, he's all heart. After the gallop on Thursday, he did have a blow but he recovered very quickly. That gallop was important. Tommy's been on him every morning on the small track and he's in good form. He's got a good draw and I can see him getting the gun run and he's a big chance."

Hong Kong Mile (Gr 1, 1600m)

Beauty Generation (Road To Rock) (HK) - Cantered on the all-weather under jockey Derek Leung. Trainer John Moore said: "He's done well in the stable. He's going into the race with exemplary form." Jockey Derek Leung said: "He's fresh and happy, he's a really fit horse and I'm expecting him to run a big race."

Beauty Only (Holy Roman Emperor) (HK) - Cantered on the small inner all-weather.

Contentment (Hussonet) (HK) - Cantered on the small inner all-weather.

Trainer John Size said: "He wasn't training well when I started in August. He had a trip to Japan and a couple of months off and that looked like it wasn't enough time for him to recuperate, so I gave him another month. Since he started work and trialling again, he's been normal. He looks fresh and well and he's in good condition. I think he'll run well, he's lacking a race but this race has been won by a horse first-up before (Size's Glorious Days, who won fresh in 2013). He's won two international Group 1 races so with that, you'd think he's capable of winning a third."

Helene Paragon (Polan) (HK) - Cantered on the small inner all-weather under race day rider Tommy Berry. Trainer John Moore said: "His work over the past week hasn't been up to expectations. His barrier trial was poor - we thought that was down to the headgear but then his work on Thursday - that really wasn't the gallop we wanted. He didn't go and challenge his lead horse - even though that's a very good lead horse, he didn't travel upsides and get into the steel. From that point of view, the jury's out. It's a shame because his last run, he only bottomed the last 20 to 30 metres, giving five pounds to Seasons Bloom. We had very high hopes and just over the last week he's working lacklustre. It could be because he's a colt, but then he's always been such a level-headed horse, he normally concentrates and enjoys what he does. I just hope that we're wrong and on the day he races competitively and really hits the line."

Horse Of Fortune (Stronghold) (HK) - Cantered on the small inner all-weather. Trainer Tony Millard said: "I'm very happy. I think Horse Of Fortune is the dark horse in this race because he's certainly showed us that he's stepped up this season. His run behind Maurice last year (in the Cup) was a very good run and he comes right at this time of the year. He's exceptionally well. The draw is not the best."

Joyful Trinity (Zanzibari) (HK) - Cantered on the small inner all-weather. Trainer John Moore said: "He's been below his best so we're not sure how he's going to perform on the day."

Karar (Invincible Spirit) (FR) - Karar has been vying with Talismanic (Medaglia d'Oro) for the lightest workload this week and once again did a leisurely tour of the all-weather on Saturday, recording 800 metre in 1:01.4 seconds (15.8, 15.8, 15.0, 14.8). Joining trainer Francis Graffard on the rails to observe was Rupert Pritchard-Gordon, representative in France for owners Al Shaqab Racing and a regular visitor to Hong Kong. Owner's representative Rupert Pritchard-Gordon said: "It will be different to the Breeders' Cup where we had to take him back because of the wide draw whereas here, with quite a run to the turn, we'll probably look to make use of his low stall number [three] and then just see what is happening around him. He is a big-striding horse that is happy on or near the pace and, whether he is good or not, we will find out. We seriously respect the opposition and the local horses are at the top of their game this time of the year. Karar has run to his best form with his last two runs in the Prix de la Foret and the Breeders' Cup Mile, which was a hell of a run. But this is a different ball game and I think Helene Paragon is a great horse, while Lancaster Bomber always turns up."

Karar

HKJC

Lancaster Bomber (War Front) (IRE) - Had his final gallop on the all-weather track for Seamie Heffernan. Pat Keating, travelling head lad to Aidan O'Brien, said: "He's in good form. His draw may not be great, but I think he can hit the board."

Lightning Spear (Pivotal) (GB) - The four-time Group One-placed six-year-old limbered up on the all-weather under usual work rider Jenny Simcock, recording 30.8 seconds (15.4, 15.4) for 400 metres. Kevin Darley, international racing manager for Qatar Racing Ltd, said: "He is more relaxed now than earlier in the week and certainly looks well." Oisín Murphy, Sunday's jockey, commented: "He's right up to this level at his best, and I'm happy with my draw but we'll need luck."

Roly Poly (War Front) (IRE) - Completed her preparations with a breeze on the all-weather track under Richella Carroll going 400 metres in 25.2 seconds (13.0, 12.2). Pat Keating, travelling head lad to Aidan O'Brien, said: "Her draw is a problem, but if she can overcome that, she won't be far away."

Satono Aladdin (Deep Impact) (JPN) - Worked for a lap over the all-weather track. Trainer Yasutoshi Ikee said: "He has had a good preparation heading into Sunday's race. All has gone well. We have done our best and now we leave the rest to the gods."

Satono Aladdin

HKJC

Seasons Bloom (Captain Sonador) (HK) - Cantered on the small inner all-weather.

Sichuan Dar (Not A Single Doubt) (HK) - Cantered on the small inner all-weather. Trainer Tony Millard said: "Sichuan Dar has just amazed me, because he's got his confidence and he's just continued to improve. Beverly (Millard, who regularly rides his work) is very happy with him, she says he has found another leg. He just wants to go, he's like elastic. If Nash (Rawiller) can get him in the right place, then he'll be a chance, because he can finish off, he's got a proper turn of foot."

Western Express (Encosta De Lago) (HK) - Cantered on the small inner all-weather. Trainer John Size said: "He's only a lightly-raced horse so it's possible for him to improve again. He would need to improve a lot to win the race."

Hong Kong Sprint (Gr 1, 1200m)

Amazing Kids (Falkirk) (HK) - Cantered on the small inner all-weather.

Blizzard (Starcraft) (HK) - Cantered on the small inner all-weather. Trainer Ricky Yiu: "He's in good form for Sunday."

D B Pin (Darci Brahma) (HK) - Cantered on the small inner all-weather.

Lucky Bubbles (Sebring) (HK) - Cantered on the small inner all-weather.

Mr Stunning (Exceed And Excel) (HK) - Cantered on the small inner all-weather.

Not Listenin'tome (Dylan Thomas) (HK) - Cantered on the main all-weather under race day rider Tommy Berry. Trainer John Moore said: "He's done everything right. He's moving well, he seems to be peaking at the right time but he's just a length off the best."

Not Listenin'tome

HKJC

Peniaphobia (Dandy Man) (HK) - Cantered on the small inner all-weather.

Signs Of Blessing (Invincible Spirit) (FR) - After his Friday breeze on the turf Signs Of Blessing enjoyed a quiet morning back in the quarantine stables but trainer Francois Rohaut was able to report a clean bill of health, with the symptoms of travel-related stress from earlier in the week now all behind his charge. Rohaut said: "All the problems of earlier in the week are forgotten. He did a nice canter yesterday on the grass and I didn't need to see any more from him today. The vet gave me all the reassurance I needed yesterday evening and the horse is really very well. I am reasonably optimistic about his chances and it is now all up to Stephane [Pasquier] to do his job. I expect him to run up to form."

Stormy Liberal (Stormy Atlantic) (USA) - Cantered on the all-weather track and was again paddock schooled this morning.

The Right Man (Lope De Vega) (FR) - This year's Al Quoz Sprint (Gr 1, 1200m) hero finished off his preparation with an easy canter on the all-weather, watched by trainer Didier Guillemin and race day rider Francois-Xavier Bertras. Another interested spectator was Thierry Delegue of Pegase Bloodstock, part-owners of The Right Man.

Part-owner Thierry Delegue said: "The horse is in good condition and only ran on 1 November. He gets himself ready for a race very easily and doesn't take a lot of work. The horse was in really good shape when he went to Ascot but it was a very rough race and he suffered a pelvic problem. It was a bad experience and he was restricted to very light exercise for three or four weeks, which explains why he lacked a bit in Deauville."

Thewizardofoz (Redoute's Choice) (HK) - Cantered on the small inner all-weather.

Hong Kong Vase (Gr 1, 2400m)

Chemical Charge (Sea The Stars) (GB) - One of the first horses to arrive on the all-weather track, he looked in good shape, recording his final 400 metres in 24.4 seconds (12.8, 11.6). Those watching included Kevin Darley - international racing manager for Qatar Racing Ltd - and tomorrow's big race rider Oisin Murphy. Racing manager Kevin Darley said: "He's missed out on one or two opportunities because of slow ground this year. He'll like conditions here and should run well." Jockey Oisin Murphy said: "If Highland Reel runs up to his best he'll be hard to beat but he's had a tough season. And you have to respect Talismanic and Kiseki but I'm expecting a big show from Chemical Charge. He's ground-dependent and these conditions will suit."

Eagle Way (More Than Ready) (HK) - Cantered two laps on the small inner all-weather under race rider Tommy Berry.

Gold Mount (Excellent Art) (HK) - Cantered on the small inner all-weather.

Highland Reel (Galileo) (IRE) - Completed his preparations for Sunday with a breeze on the all-weather track under his regular rider Davy Bergin going 400 metres in 23.6 seconds (11.4, 12.2). Pat Keating, travelling head lad to Aidan O'Brien, said: "That's it. The work's all done now. He's our best shot and I think he can win on Sunday."

Kiseki (Rulership) (JPN) - Had an easy canter for a lap over the all-weather track, completing 600 metres in 45.2 seconds (16.4, 14.8, 14.0). Trainer Katsuhiko Sumii said: "I wanted to see for myself how relaxed he was during his canter and he looked very well."

Max Dynamite (Great Journey) (IRE) - Cantered on the all-weather track.

Smart Call (Ideal World) (GB) - The South African mare cantered on the all-weather track, clocking 26.2 seconds for 400 metres (13.4, 12.8). Trainer Sir Michael Stoute said: "She faces a tough assignment here but she's entitled to have her shot. She is better than how her form card looks. Nothing has really gone right for her since she's come to us. Things didn't go right first time out at York, nor at Deauville where she probably should have won and the ground was against her last time. She's well."

Talismanic (Medaglia d'Oro) (FR) - Among the likely favourites, Talismanic barely broke out of a galop de chasse (hack canter) under the watchful eye of trainer Andre Fabre, recording 1:17.6 seconds (15.6, 15.4, 16.0, 14.4, 16.2) for 1000 metres. Talismanic will be attempting to confirm Breeders' Cup Turf (Gr 1, 12f) form with Highland Reel, who Fabre views as the main obstacle.

Trainer Andre Fabre said: "It looks on form that Talismanic and Highland Reel are the horses to beat. It could be a tactical race between the two and I hope we are not too far from wherever he is."

Tiberian (Tiberius Caesar) (FR) - This year's Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) seventh completed two easy laps of the all-weather track, his final 600 metres of 43.4 seconds (14.6, 14.6, 14.2) topping him off nicely. The work elicited a thumbs-up from trainer Alain Couetil, who said simply: "Everything is fine."

Tosen Basil (Harbinger) (JPN) - Cantered one and a half laps around the Sha Tin all-weather course, completing his last 800 metres in 58.4 seconds (15.8, 15.4, 14.4, 12.8). Assistant trainer Kazuo Fujiwara said: "He was very relaxed out on the track today. He should be ready for a big performance tomorrow."

Table of race entries for 12.25 Fantastic Light Handicap, listing horses, jockeys, and odds.

BETTING FORECAST: 11-4 Circuit Hassler, 11-2 King Of Mongolia, 6 Sergeant Titanium, 8 Je Penze, Lotus Strikes Back, 10 Bring It On, 14 Amazing Agility, Hay Run, Victory Boys, 16 Cloud Nine, 20 Gorgeous Again, King's Man, 33 Let Us Win, 50 Tai Smart.

VERDICT The topweight Circuit Hassler is yet to hit the target after 13 Hong Kong starts but has been shaping very as though his time is near in recent weeks. He was placed in a Class 2 C&D event off today's mark when last in action and is taken to open his account today. Good cases can also be made for Sergeant Titanium and King Of Mongolia.

Table of race entries for 1.30 Flying Dancer Handicap (Class 1) (3yo+) (Course A) (Turf) Winner £148,902.82

BETTING FORECAST: 5-2 Bravo Watchman, 3 Simply Brilliant, 8 Always Win, Golden Sun, Key Witness, Winston's Lad, 16 Starship, 20 Arm Runda, Flying Lover, 25 Encouraging, Storm Signal, 33 Hard Promise, Mr Right, 100 Alcazar.

VERDICT Simply Brilliant is not opposed lightly after going close at Happy Valley on last month's Hong Kong debut but BRAVO WATCHMAN, who won the first three of his five starts, has run very well over C&D on both appearances this season and can get his head back in front today.

1.30 Flying Dancer Handicap (Class 1) (3yo+) (Course A) (Turf) Winner £148,902.82

BETTING FORECAST: 4-5 Nothinglikemore, 6 Racing Supernova, 8 Southern Legend, Winner's Way, 14 Dundonnell, 16 Dashing Fellow, Giant Treasure, 20 Jolly Banner, 33 Magic Legend.

VERDICT Racing Supernova has an appealing profile but it's hard to be swayed from NOTHINGLIKEMORE, who has impressed when winning all five of his starts and could be heading right to the top.

VERDICT Mr Stunning has been in excellent form over C&D lately and his old rival Lucky Bubbles, who went very close in this race last year, is also expected to be on the premises.

VERDICT Plenty of positives can be taken from the latest start of WAH MAY FRIEND who failed by a nose to hold Western Express over 7f and now dropping in grade he can be right in the mix despite a wide draw. Jing Jing Win put in a good effort in his first try in this grade when fourth to Beat the Clock and he can build on that to be competitive while Lockheed has been showing up well in recent trials and makes his Hong Kong debut.

VERDICT Plenty of these will fancy their chances but the benchmark is set by Werther, who continues to perform at the top of his game. There was lots to like about his recent success in the Jockey Club Cup where he stayed on too strongly for Time Warp, who has been improving all year. Neorealism is also of interest, having won a C&D Group 1 in April.

VERDICT Despite some solid international opposition this could go the way of SEASONS BLOOM, who is in sparking form this season having won both the Chief Executive's Cup and the Jockey Club Mile here. He looks progressive and gets the vote over Lancaster Bomber, who should be in the shake-up throughout under Ryan Moore. Helene Paragon looked to be coming back to the form that won him the Queen's Silver Jubilee Cup last season when chasing home Seasons Bloom on his latest start.

VERDICT Lots to like about the debut effort of Affluence Start over 6f at Happy Valley last month and with normal progress he should give a good account in this but the vote goes to TOP BEAUTIFUL, who has been solid in four starts in Hong Kong and a repeat of his second to Happy Agility over C&D last month should be good enough to take this. Spicy Sure put in his best effort on his latest start and can build on that to play a part in this.

VERDICT He's defied the handicapper more than one occasion this season but the move into this class might just halt the winning run of Rattan who is the perfect three from three in this campaign. TIME TO CELEBRATE is taken to come out on top following his pleasing effort in this grade when third to Pingwu Spark and a reproduction of that effort should be good enough here. Citron Spirit has been in good form this season and he should be competitive off this mark.

Hard graft pays for Pinhook Bloodstock

FEDERATION OF Bloodstock Agents AUSTRALIA LIMITED

www.bloodstockagents.com.au

Pinhook Bloodstock (FBAA) agent Dave Mee developed a sharp eye for a horse as a boy growing up in the South Island of New Zealand.

Mee tapped that vision to establish Pinhook Bloodstock in 2005 and the business has since snowballed into a successful network covering Australia, NZ and Asia.

"Both my Father and my Grandfather loved racehorses, my Grandfather more so with the pedigrees and Dad was an excellent hands-on horseman," Mee said recalling his days on the family farm near Ranfurly. "Dad always had a few in work and we operated a small stud for a time standing Skyhawk II who sired Caulfield Cup winner Hayaii.

"Back then, the vet only came out every couple of weeks so it was hands-on in every sense.

"I went to boarding school but horses had already piqued my interest and I guess there was no turning back after working for trainers around Wingatui during the holidays.

"I started out with Cambridge Stud," Mee recalled. "Sir Tristram was at the pinnacle and Zabeel was the new stallion on the scene. I also helped prep Octagonal for the yearling sales at Karaka.

"It introduced me to the commercial world of thoroughbreds as an 18-year-old. It was an education and a solid foundation to learn the ropes watching Patrick Hogan."

Eventually transferring to Australia, he worked at Widden Stud and also for John Ivill who was a breaker for Lee Freedman when FBI was top of the tree. "I was also doing a commerce and marketing degree at university but soon realised I wasn't cut out for an office job."

The travel-bug bit and Mee moved to Kentucky. "Wasn't that an eye-opener! I got a start with Taylor Made Agency and that involved taking 300 horses to both the Keeneland September yearling sale and the November breeding stock sale."

The sale volume was enormous and, as if that workload wasn't enough, Mee would annoy famed bloodstock agents like Richard Galpin and Ken McLean on his days off to learn more about the art of buying and selling.

A stint with leading Florida pin-hooker Eddie Woods followed and that was also a steep learning curve. "Eddie would have 100+ yearlings broken in and educated for 2YO Breeze Up Sales travelling to Ocala, Keeneland, Baltimore and California."

England was calling and, in particular Clive Brittain, who guided champion filly Pebbles, and trainer John Berry who was also a one-time Lord Mayor of Newmarket.

"It was an incredible experience working horses on the Newmarket Heath and, after coming back home, I returned to the USA as I always wanted to work for one of their larger stables."

Landing in LA, Mee found his way to Darrell Vienna's barn at Santa Anita but that job was cut short in September 2001. "You could cross the border to Mexico to renew your work permit but after 9/11 they changed the rules and I had to return to NZ."

Champion South African trainer David Payne was setting up in Australia and Mee became his right-hand man. "David's record speaks for itself. At that point, he'd trained nearly 100 Group 1 winners in South Africa and it felt right with him. I was six years at Randwick with David as well as stints riding trackwork for Les Bridge and Bob Pearse but I knew I always wanted to be a bloodstock agent.

"I was incredibly lucky, not everyone has the chance to work with key figures from every major thoroughbred producing country in the world - let alone from every discipline -- breeding, pinhooking, breeze -ups, breaking and training!

"In the earlier days, I was selling around 100 horses a year but in time the focus and business has changed to primarily International sales to Asia and developing the auction representation and management side of the business.

"I was fortunate to have John White helping me build the Hong Kong trade and Gordon Benson has been marvellous in Singapore and Macau."

Notable horses sourced include stakes winners in Hong Kong (Go Baby Go, Express Win), Macau (Elderly Paradise, Master Of Puppets) and Singapore (Mystic Power).

Mee lives on the NSW Central Coast at Avoca Beach with his French-born partner Anne-Laure and their children Francesca and Lucas. It's close to the Hunter Valley and 90 minutes down the Pacific Motorway to Randwick.

"I love horses and I love the range of interesting people in the game. All the hard graft is beginning to pay off and we have some exciting projects in the pipeline especially concerning Asia and overseas clients investing in the industry here."

Federation of Bloodstock Agents Australia (FBAA) was formed in 1988 to maintain, improve and develop the standards, status and services of bloodstock agents throughout Australia. Its members operate with the utmost integrity and professionalism and are bound by the strict Industry Code of Conduct.

Analysis: Pounamu, a first up winner of the Asian Beau Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) here on 4 November, stepped up two runs later to register his first Group One victory in 37 starts here. He settled back in second last place, tracking a good tempo, before improving nicely (with cover) rounding the home turn. He sprinted well nearing the 200m, hit the front at the 50m and then went on to record a very good win. Material Man raced in seventh place, between runners, moved up nicely at the home turn, challenged at the 100m and then battled gamely for a good second. The three-year-old Achernar Star raced in fifth place, on the rails, was shuffled back a bit at the home turn, got a split at the 200m, challenged shortly afterwards and then fought on gamely for a very good third. The filly Perfect Jewel raced in third place, on the rails, got along the inner and briefly hit the front at the 200m before fighting on for (1.5 lengths) fourth. It's Somewhat had a good trip in fourth place, one out and one back, briefly looked the winner when he moved up well to challenge at the 200m and then battled on for (2 lengths) fifth after seeming to have had every chance. The multiple Group One winner and favourite Black Heart Bart raced back in tenth place, on the rails, but was blocked nearing the home turn and then kept fighting on in restricted room in the straight for (5.3 lengths) ninth.

CONSENSUS for sale on gavelhouse.com

gavelhouse.com

Analysis: Kawi is back, the big horse proving too strong in the closing stages to add a seventh Group One to his record. He began fairly but was denied a nice position one off the fence in midfield and had to drop back passing the 1200m. Rider Jason Waddell took no chances at the 800m and pushed him three wide, gathered in the leaders near the last corner and was ready to pounce once they straightened. Now four deep, Waddell punched him out and they shared the lead at the 300m then Waddell asked the question and the big gelding responded by going clear and had them covered over the last 100m to win very well. From back of midfield Consensus didn't get away from the fence until the 600m then ran up before they straightened and tried to get on terms with the winner turning in, stayed within a half length until the 150m but was outstayed for a solid second. Sofia Rosa was last at the 800m, tracked the winner (wider) to the last corner but took a long time to balance before getting going late to run into third. Benzini was last at the 400m, threaded between runners soon after and ran on for fourth (late) from Authentic Paddy, who co-led turning in and battled away to hold fifth.

Then followed: Flaunt It Girl (AUS), King Louis (NZ), Imelda Mary (NZ), Peaceful (NZ) & Lite My Cigar (NZ), last.

Analysis: A strong finish for third on debut preceded another solid finish by Xpression in a nice win here. Dropping out to last from the outside barrier (8) jockey Samantha Collett switched to the rail until they reached the crossing then moved the filly out upon making the home straight. Presented with a lovely gap at the 300m she drove through, levelled up to the leader inside the 200m and gradually asserted herself over the last 100m to win well. Espumoso led at the crossing, still led at the 200m but could not go with the winner yet held on well enough for second, a half length away. Bit Lippy raced greenly turning in but settled down to run home well for third from Flaunt It Girl who was doing her best work at the finish, running on for fourth.

MORE THAN READY
Top 10 Sire by SW's of all time

Analysis: Last start maiden winner Spring Heat impressed greatly, running away with a quality win against a quality field for her first of perhaps many black-type wins. She drew an awkward barrier one, beginning well but drifted back to be sixth (of eight) at the 900m. Approaching the last corner rider Jake Bayliss moved her out but when they straightened pulled hard on the left rein and accelerated quickly, ran up to the leaders in a few strides then put them away impressively and with plenty in hand at the post. Xbox had little luck. Last at the 600m, he stayed close to fence turning in but did not find racing room until late, having to wait for the winner to race past before rattling home late for a nice second. The Great Southern co-led turning in, briefly took over at the 250m but was swamped by the first two yet held on well from Prom Queen, who also co-led and fought on well for fourth.

ANOTHER NZ BRED WINNER

Analysis: Recent winner of the Jungle Mist Classic (Listed, 1200m) at this track a fortnight ago, Celebrity Dream followed that with another smart stakes victory here, taking her record to seven wins (and four placings) from 14 starts. She settled nicely in third place (on the rails), behind a very steady tempo (first 800m 51.33) but was blocked nearing the home turn. William Pike steered her through a gap at the 200m, she then hit the front at the 75m before going on to score comfortably. Fontainebleau travelled well outside the leader (Patapus), challenged strongly at the 200m and then fought on well for second. Top Of The Class raced in fourth place, one out and one back, moved up at the home turn, challenged the 300m and kept battling on well for third.

Analysis: The progressive Darren McAuliffe-trained War Room is now unbeaten in three starts following recent wins at Northam and Bunbury in advancing to take out this Listed race in good fashion. He was smartly away and soon crossed to the front. He then steadied the pace (first 800m 50.19) was briefly headed on straightening but came again, fighting very back gamely in the sprint home to win narrowly but quite impressively. The Godolphin-raced colt Gaulois began well, was eased to settle in second place before moving up outside of the leader (War Room) at the 700m. He put the pressure on that runner rounding the home turn, took a narrow lead at the 300m and after quite a battle, he fought on well to take second in a most respectable performance. Reykjavik travelled well in fifth place, one off the rails, moved up nearing the home turn and kept running on well in the sprint home to take the minor pacing in a very sound effort.

Analysis: Trap For Fools winner of the Tattersall's Cup (Listed, 2100m) at this track on 25 November took out his second stakes success in recording his fifth successive win here. He began well and gradually worked to the front. He then travelled nicely at a moderate pace, until some challengers came nearing the home turn. He then dashed clear shortly afterwards and went on to score easily. Former Victorian-trained gelding Angola led early on before settling in third place, on the rails. He got along the inner on turning for home and battled on well for second, having no chance with the winner. Falcon Crest raced outside the leader (Trap For Fools), put some pressure on him approaching the home turn and then kept battling on in the sprint home for third, seemingly unsuited by the steady early pace.

Analysis: With four stakes placings to her record, typically strong finisher Sylpheed broke through for her maiden stakes win after a dream run in the straight to score win three in 15 starts. She was well back (rails) around the bend improving to fifth into the home straight but jockey Nozi Tomizawa continued to save ground and when the field fanned was presented with a lovely run then kept to the fence the length of the straight, accelerating quickly when challenged late to put the race away. Denmagic peeled out three and four wide rounding into the home straight, balanced then kept on strongly all the way to the line. Sheiswhatsheis had a clear lead turning in, still led at the 200m but was passed soon after yet held third quite well.

Analysis: The in-form Steel Frost has now won five of his six starts this preparation and he took his record to eight wins from 14 starts in taking out his first stakes victory here. He settled well in sixth place, behind a good pace before tracking up (with cover) nearing the home turn. He moved up quickly on straightening, hit the front at the 100m and drew clear to win well. Casino Wizard settled back in tenth place, improved between runners rounding the home turn, got a split to challenge nearing the 100m and then battled on well for second. Sudden Wealth, a stablemate of the winner, settled near the tail of the field, made ground between runners at the home turn and then ran on well for third.

Analysis: The first two home fought out a great tussle with Like A Carousel stretching his neck just short of the wire to win narrowly but well, his fourth win. He settled midfield, one off the fence down the back straight with rider Linda Meech waiting until they started the bend before moving forward. At the 600m they moved out another width which saw them five wide and challenging for the lead turning in. Into the straight and widest, Meech urged him along, drew the whip inside the 300m and doggedly chased after the leader, lunging a couple of strides from the post to win by a head. Khartoum took over narrowly turning in, still led or co-led at the 200m, tried to break clear but couldn't shake off the winner. The unlucky runner was Oncidium Ruler who switched ground several times in the home straight and never saw daylight until the race was pretty much over, emerging from the pack for third but too late.

CASINO PRINCE

Sire of 100 winners last 2 seasons.

Analysis: Cantbuybetter made it nine wins (second Listed stakes win) from 28 starts with a dashing rails finish. He began well to be second early then drifted slightly to wind up fifth, one off the fence at the 1000m. Keeping the leaders in view jockey Jamie Kah looked to challenge once into the straight but was momentarily blocked, switched back to the rail, accelerated along the fence to take the lead inside the 100m then held on gamely to the line. Hopfgarten lay third (rails) turning in, pulled out to challenge but didn't see the winner flash through along the fence, got going again late but the post came up first. Zahspeed led by three lengths at the 300m and still led inside the 100m but was swamped just short of the line for a good third.

Analysis: In an eight runner field that featured three Group One winners and two Group Two winners, Volpe Veloce, who won her first seven on end, returned to form to grab a desperate win here. She settled third (one out) after beginning well, pulled three wide turning in, couldn't get past the leaders at first but really got into her work late to snatch a nice win, her ninth in 12 starts. Heroic Valour surged into the lead at the 150m and looked the winner but the winner had the last say. Melody Belle led at the 200m and fought very well to the line for third while Rangipo kept up a solid run in the straight for fourth.
