Gold Coast-based trainer Toby Edmonds will attempt to cap a successful 2017 when he saddles the promising pair Whypeeo (I Am Invincible) and I Am Impinge (I Am Invincible) in the Vo Rogue Plate (Gr 3, 1350m) at Doomben today.

The trainer has always held a high opinion of Whypeeo, who bounced back from a disappointing reappearance third at Canterbury on 1 December to land the Gold Edition Plate (Listed, 1200m) at Doomben a fortnight ago.

Victory in that race set the three-year-old up for a potential tilt at a $500,000 bonus, provided he wins today and follows up in the Magic Millions 3YO Guineas (RL, 1400m) at the Gold Coast next month.

The progressive son of I Am Invincible (Invincible Spirit), who will race from barrier nine under jockey Jeff Lloyd, is yet to be tested over further than 1200 metres in six career starts, but Edmonds expects him to see out the 1350 metres this afternoon.

"It was a good tough win in the Gold Edition and he's made good progress since," Edmonds said.

"He was a bit new when he ran third first up at Canterbury but he's improved a lot since then.

"I can't see why he won't run the trip. He was strong enough at the end last start and Jeff (Lloyd) let him run well before the corner.

"If we can dictate up on the speed somewhere he should run well."

The New Zealand-bred I Am Impinge is also by Yarraman Park stallion I Am Invincible and registered an impressive last start success over the same course and distance as the Vo Rogue Plate on 20 December.

However, Edmonds believes the three-year-olds are completely different types, with I Am Impinge expected to come into his own in the autumn and winter.

"They may be by the same sire but they are totally different horses," Edmonds said.

"I Am Impinge is more of a winter, autumn horse but we're giving him his chance to run in the Magic Millions Guineas.

"He bounced back to form last start when we put blinkers on him.

"I think Whypeeo is our best hope. He's a far sharper horse."

Warwick Farm-based trainer Gregory Hickman will also be changing the routine of Pierata (Pierro) as the colt bids to reverse Gold Edition Plate form with Whypeeo, having finished a narrow second to his rival on 16 December.

Pierata ran out a ready winner of the Winning Rupert Plate (1200m) earlier this month in blinkers before his near miss behind Whypeeo with the blinkers removed.

With high temperatures expected in Brisbane today, Hickman will apply 'iced' ear muffs to the three-year-old colt before the start of the race in an attempt to keep his relaxed and fresh.

"I don't want to put blinkers on him again as they might wind him up too much," Hickman said.

"So, I'm putting ear muffs on him to go around to the barrier this time.

"It'll be a hot day and I'll put his ear muffs in iced water to keep them cold so he'll be nice and fresh.

"I did the same the day Private Secretary won up there last summer."

Meanwhile, the $2,000,000 Magic Millions 3YO Guineas is the ultimate goal for the Peter Robl-trained Sydney raider Curdled (All Too Hard), who will race from barrier eight in the Vo Rogue Plate for jockey Robbie Fradd.

The three-year-old gelding, who is raced by his breeder Segenhoe Stud, rounded out his two-year-old campaign with victory in the Winning Edge Stakes (Listed, 1350m) at Doomben on 24 June.

He has had two starts so far this preparation, when third first up at Rosehill and second at the same track in a four-runner race on 2 December, but Robl is keen to forgive him that latest defeat and was pleased to see him win a Hawkesbury barrier trial on 18 December.

"It was only a small field last time and he had no luck. He has won a trial at Hawkesbury since," Robl said.

"The horse is going well and I think the Vo Rogue is the perfect lead-up for the Magic Millions Guineas a fortnight later.

"He has $115,000 in prize money which should put him in the Guineas field. One thing if there is a bit of rain about on Saturday it won't worry Curdled."

Barrier concerns for Fullazaboot

After Fullazaboot (Sepoy) drew wide in barrier 11 of 13 in the B J Mclachlan Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) and the prospect of a wet track at Doomben today, trainer Stuart Kendrick now faces a tough decision whether to run the colt, who needs the prize money if he is to make the Magic Millions 2YO Classic (RL, 1200m) field. Fullazaboot is equal 13th in the current ballot order for the lucrative race at the Gold Coast on 13 January. "I can make up my mind as late as Saturday morning. I have the option of trialling him on Tuesday morning," Kendrick said. "By my count there are two horses above us definitely not running and a third unlikely. But there are plenty of races in Sydney where horse can jump us by winning or running second. It is a gamble either way but we might trial instead of running."

Zielke confident Hopes Eternal can return to form

Trainer John Zielke believes the break will have done Hopes Eternal (Jet Spur) good as he prepares to return in the B J Mclachlan Stakes at Doomben today, having not been seen since he surrendered his unbeaten run on his third start at the same track in November. "He had five weeks break but has pleased us since he came back. He had a jump-out and won it easily," Zielke said. The trainer also commented he was not disappointed with Hopes Eternal's last start defeat. "He had 59 kilograms and all the others had 54.5. They weight the good horses out of the two-year-old races quickly here. It is why we will be restricting him to set weights races."

Notonyourlife primed for Nudgee

Notonyourlife (Sebring) will look to secure a second win at stakes level before she retires to the breeding barn when she lines up in the Nudgee Quality (Listed, 1200m) at Doomben today. The mare, who is in foal to current leading first season sire Spirit Of Boom (Sequalo), landed her first stakes victory when she took out the Ubet Classic (registered as Colin McAlpine Classic) (Listed, 1200m) on 25 November. "Her owners (Eureka Stud) took a gamble racing on with her but it has paid off with a black-type win and I would like to get another one with her," Gollan said. "She will have one more run in the Magic Millions Fillies and Mares race and then go off to be a mum."

Kuro ready for Christmas Classic test

Returning to training in his own right has seen trainer John O'Shea reacquaint himself with Kuro (Denman), who he bought as a yearling with Jason Abrahams of Champion Thoroughbreds at the Karaka New Zealand Bloodstock Sale for NZ$170,000. Kuro will look to land his first stakes race since being transferred from Joseph Pride's stable to O'Shea's care in the Christmas Classic (Listed, 1200m) at Randwick today. "He was really good as a three-year-old then he lost his way a little bit as a four-year-old entire," O'Shea said. "It's taken a bit of racing to get himself back in the game but he's in good form."

Quackerjack looks to secure Magic Millions start

Quackerjack (Not A Single Doubt) will look to land a start in the Magic Millions 2YO Classic (RL, 1200m) at the Gold Coast on 13 January when he takes his chance in the two-year-old plate (1100m) at Randwick today. The colt, who broke his maiden on his second start at Illawarra on 16 December, is outside the first 16 so will need the prize money if he has any hope of making the field for the lucrative race. "There's quite a few above him on the order of entry that aren't going but he'd need the prize money and from a form perspective he'd need to win or run second to warrant going anyway," said trainer Mark Newnham.

Eckstein to front up in Christmas Classic

Eckstein (I Am Invincible) will also take her chance in the Christmas Classic at Randwick this afternoon, with trainer Kurt Goldman believing the mare is more forward this preparation than she has been in previous ones. The four-year-old mare has not been sighted since she ran second to Shoals (Fastnet Rock) in the Myer Classic (registered as Empire Rose Stakes) (Gr 1, 1600m) at Flemington in November and she will have the winkers applied in today's race which Goldman hopes will help the mare to concentrate.

Weight concerns for Music Magnate

The Bjorn Baker-trained Group One winner Music Magnate (Written Tycoon) will make his much anticipated return to the track in the Christmas Classic at Randwick today. The six-year-old has not been seen since he ran last in the Kingsford-Smith Cup (Gr 1, 1300m), after which he was found to have sustained an injury. Baker said he was pleased with the gelding's gallop on Tuesday and could not be happier heading in to today's race, while his only concern is the 61 kilograms the horse will have to shoulder.

Burrells in critical condition after fall

Apprentice Nyssa Burrells remains in intensive care after surgery to drain a brain bleed after a fall at Warwick Farm jump outs. Burrells underwent the operation after Friday's fall and Racing NSW said the next 24 to 48 hours were critical and she would be constantly monitored by doctors. Racing NSW's Dr David Duckworth said Burrells had other injuries which would be looked at later.

Small field sees Memory Bank head to Randwick

The prospect of a small field of just four rivals at Randwick will see the Lindsay Park-trained Memory Bank (Smart Missile) contest a Benchmark 76 (1300m) today rather than attempt to secure a fourth consecutive victory in Melbourne. Memory Bank was an acceptor at both Sandown Hillside and Randwick but was scratched from the Hillside programme yesterday morning. "We are going to go to Sydney, it is a smaller field, Melbourne has got the typical full house so we thought we would give Sydney a try which gives her a little practice before she goes up to Queensland," David Hayes told Racing.com.

Dornier to line up in Bagot

Having won the St Leger (Listed, 2800m) at Flemington on April, (Artie Schiller) will line up over the same course and distance when he takes his chance in the Bagot Handicap (Listed, 2800m) on New Year's Day. Trainer John Moloney said the gelding has been earmarked for the race all season and Moloney believes the gelding has turned a corner since he has had the blinkers applied. "We've been looking at this race all the way through and since we've put blinkers on him his form has been good," said Moloney. "I've been happy with the horse, no problem, but I think he's turned the corner since I put the blinkers on him."

Global Glamour on track for Magic Millions riches

Dual Group One winner Global Glamour (Star Witness) showed she was in peak condition ahead of her Magic Millions race day engagement when she also won her trial at Randwick yesterday. The Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott-trained four-year-old mare has not been seen since running ninth in the Myer Classic (registered as Empire Rose Stakes) (Gr 1, 1600m) at Flemington in November and will line up in the Magic Millions Fillies and Mares (1300m) at the Gold Coast on 13 January. Meanwhile, the Bjorn Baker-trained Egyptian Symbol (Stratum), who will likely clash with Global Glamour at the Gold Coast next month, also won her trial at Randwick yesterday. ## Bowman picks up ride on Jonker

Jockey Hugh Bowman will ride unbeaten colt Jonker (Spirit Of Boom) in the Magic Millions 2YO Classic (RL, 1200m) at the Gold Coast on 13 January, replacing provincial jockey Aaron Bullock. Bullock has ridden the David Atkins-trained colt to victory in both of his career wins, including the Wyong Magic Millions 2YO Classic (RL, 1100m) on his last start. "He's obviously a world-class jockey. They wouldn't be the only owners to make that decision," Bullock told Sky Sports Radio. "It's the nature of the game. It would have been a great opportunity but it's not meant to be. I totally respect the decision. They bought this horse 12 months ago with the idea of coming to the Magic Millions."

Paragon primed for stakes test

Trainer John Sargent hopes the combination of a seasoned stayer, an in-form jockey, a light weight and a small field can see Paragon (Reaan) take out the Tattersalls Club Cup (Listed, 2400m) at Randwick on Monday. The gelding will carry 53 kilograms in the race and, with Tim Clark on holiday, leading Sydney apprentice Rachel King takes the ride. "It's a rise in class for him but he's won over the distance at Randwick. He's got a low weight and the fields are small at the moment so there's no reason to shy away from them," Sargent said.

Nomothaj impresses in Randwick trial

The stakes winning Lindsay Park-trained Nomothaj (Snitzel) was impressive when winning her barrier trial at Randwick yesterday, wearing blinkers for the first time ahead of her tilt in the Magic Millions 2YO Classic at the Gold Coast on 13 January. Jason Collett rode Nomothaj in the trial and was impressed with his first experience on the Maribyrnong Trial (Listed, 1000m) winner. "They wanted her to have a good hit-out with the hood on for the first time and I thought she trialled very nicely," Collett said. "It was the first time I've ridden her so I don't have anything to judge it against but to me she felt very strong. She was wide for the most part and then skipped away, she feels ready to run a big race in Queensland."

Snippets honoured at Magic Millions raceday

The Magic Millions Sprint (1200m) will be raced next month at the Gold Coast in honour of Snippets (Lunchtime), who scored a runaway win in the inaugural Magic Millions 2YO Classic in 1987. "This is the only race on our $10,000,000 day named after a horse," Magic Millions managing director Vin Cox said. "It's fitting that it's Snippets – the original champion of Magic Millions, sold at our very first auction and the horse who helped an incredible innovation become reality. We thank the Augustine family for donating the original trophy to be used as the perpetual trophy for the Magic Millions Snippets – we can't wait for this new presentation in just over two weeks time."

Step up in trip to suit Gris Dame

The step up to the 2000 metres in the Royal Stakes (Gr 2, 2000m) on New Year's Day is expected to suit the promising three-year-old Gris Dame (Reliable Man). The Stephen Autridge and Jamie Richards-trained filly made her debut at Tauranga in October before breaking her maiden the following month, and she was last sighted bouncing back from a below-par run at Hawke's Bay to finish third in the Eight Carat Classic (Gr 2, 1600m) on Boxing Day. "She went a big race after she had us scratching our heads with the previous run," Richards said. "The stock of Reliable Man look very exciting and she'll appreciate the 2000 metres."

Rae hopeful of Absolut Excelencia's chances

Co-trainer Kenny Rae is expecting a big run from the consistent eight-year-old gelding Absolut Excelencia (Excellent Art) when he lines up in the Kurow Cup (1400m) at Kurow today. "I said to (jockey) Terry Moseley that the horse had trialled up well and he'd go a nice race," said Rae, who trains with his wife Lisa and their daughter Krystal Williams. "I stayed out of the Timaru Cup with him, I thought that field was a bit too strong, and he's done well and he's definitely got a good chance."

Mallyon on Te Akau Shark

Katelyn Mallyon will join fellow Victorian-based jockeys Regan and Jake Bayliss at the New Zealand summer carnival when she rides New Zealand Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) hopeful Te Akau Shark (Rip Van Winkle) in a lead-up race at Hawke's Bay on New Year's Day. The promising three-year-old lost his unbeaten record when fourth in the New Zealand 2,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) last time and will tackle the Hastings Cup (1300m). "The horse is by no means screwed down, but he's done some nice work at home and he's got a few miles in his legs," co-trainer Jamie Richards said.

Impressive debut win for Spanish Whisper

The Peter and Dawn Williams-trained two-year-old filly Spanish Whisper (Lope De Vega) created a favourable impression when winning by three lengths on her debut over 1200 metres at Ellerslie yesterday. "She's a lovely filly and I think we'll press on with her, she's got a bit of length and scope about her," Peter Williams said. "She settled nicely and I was a bit worried about how she would settle. She handled everything very well." Raced by her breeders Daniel and Elias Nakhle and Darren Brady, her yearling half-brother by Foxwedge (Fastnet Rock) will be offered as Lot 134 at the forthcoming New Zealand Bloodstock National Yearling Sale.

Autumn plans hatched for Sultan

Trainer Shaun Ritchie is planning an autumn campaign with the talented Sultan Of Swing

(Bachelor Duke), after the five-year-old made a winning reappearance over 1200 metres at Ellerslie yesterday. "He does sprint well fresh, but I thought he might find a couple of the others a bit quick with his top weight and happily he's proved me wrong," Ritchie said. "A nice mile race with a light weight in the autumn might be his go, he wouldn't want too many on the hard tracks as he feels his feet a bit."

Asia

Berry looks forward to Helene Paragon ride

Helene Paragon

HKJC

Jockey Tommy Berry is looking forward to riding top weight Helene Paragon (Polan) in a strong renewal of the Chinese Club Challenge Cup (Gr 3, 1400m) at Sha Tin on New Year's Day. The John Moore-trained gelding ran third in the Hong Kong Mile (Gr 1, 1600m) at his last start and will face 11 rivals in the HK$3,000,000 feature, including Beauty Only (Holy Roman Emperor) and Contentment (Hussonet).

"Helene Paragon's definitely the best horse in the race but the weight will bring him back to them a bit," Berry said. "But this bloke has carried weight before and run well."

Ruthven primed for Hong Kong debut

Meanwhile, the former Ciaron Maher-trained Queensland Derby (Gr 1, 2200m) winner Ruthven (Domesday) is set to make his Hong Kong debut over 1400 metres at Sha Tin on New Year's Day. Berry believes that Ruthven is among Moore's leading contenders for the Four-Year-Old Classic Series. "John has a few very nice types and Easy Go Easy Win won well the other day, but Ruthven and Good Standing are probably the two of his that stand out at the moment," Berry said. "Ruthven's obviously got a lot of quality about himself and he's had two trials that have put him in good stead for the weekend."

Freedman confident Mr Clint can go well

Trainer Lee Freedman is confident that the promising Mr Clint (Power), the horse who gave him his first winner in Singapore in September, can run well first up at Kranji on New Year's Day in the Happiness 2018 Stakes (1200m). "Mr Clint is racing again after three months. The El Dorado winner beat him over a mile at his last start," Freedman said. "He was my first winner here in Singapore and I've always had a high opinion of him. He is only a three-year-old and has grown a lot during his break. I'm very happy with the way he has come along and I hope he puts up a good run first-up on Monday."

Buyers will be greeted barring withdrawals, next month, by no fewer than 47 sons and daughters of Snitzel (Redoute's Choice) catalogued at Magic Millions - with many more to follow at the later Inglis auctions - and as many as 75 of Savabeel's (Zabeel) offspring in Book One at New Zealand Bloodstock's 2018 Karaka sales.

This, of course, will come as a shock to nobody.

The two stallions have probably had a greater impact on racing, in 2017, than champion Street Cry (Machiavellian) mare Winx and a thing called The Everest (1200m) - won by Snitzel's son Redzel - rolled into one.

Like their sires before them, Redoute's Choice (Danehill) and Zabeel (Sir Tristram), they've become all conquering.

The numbers can often lie but, in Snitzel's case, they are overwhelming and - in some areas - unprecedented. And likewise for Savabeel who's probably and unfairly 'suffered' from a little less hyperbole sitting across the ditch.

Savabeel

So far this season Snitzel's roll has kept its momentum with 16 winners of 20 Group and Listed races. Last season which, of course, encompasses the first seven months of 2017, he had 26 stakes winners.

Half of his Group One winners have come from his current three-, four- and five-year-olds sold between 2014 and 2016. In these years, his Magic Millions average progressed from circa $148,000 to $243,000 to $329,000. His yearlings, in that span, did not feature in the top ten of median prices at the Inglis Easter Yearling Sale.

Seven of his 12 Group One winners sold, as yearlings, for between $120,000 and $320,000. His most expensive yearling was Wandjina at $1,000,000 while the cheapest was Hot Snitzel at $60,000. Trapeze Artist was passed in while his two from Encosta De Lago (Fairy King) mares - Invader and Summer Passage - made $475,000 and $800,000 respectively.

Redzel and Trapeze Artist are likely to further cement his reputation while the following horses could well add to Snitzel's list of 12 individual Group One winners: - Menari, Showtime, Snitty Kitty, Goodfella, Dracarys,

Snitzel

ARROWFIELD STUD

Eptimum, Jukebox, Lubiton, Perast, Sweet Redemption, Arbeitsam, Nomothaj, Snitzepeg and Untamed Diamond.

Savabeel, a year older than Snitzel, continues to be as dominant in New Zealand as Snitzel has been in Australia. His list of potential Group One winners in waiting is perhaps not as impressive or extensive, save for any unexposed youngsters, but his strike rate numbers are even better than Snitzel's in some categories.

At the start of the spring, they could each boast 12 individual Group One winners. Savabeel has now zoomed to 15 following the major wins, all in November, of Embellish, Hasahalo and Shillelagh.

And just when his Group One honour roll was starting to look a tad dated, the New Zealand Guineas' (both Gr 1, 1600m) successes of the three-year-old colt Embellish and filly Hasahalo have set that right.

His Group One winners have been, as it's turned out, incredible value with only Embellish - the brother to his 2015 Group One winner Diademe - at NZ$775,000 selling for more than NZ$230,000. Costume and Savaria, along with the aforementioned siblings, given him four top-flight winners out of O'Reilly (Last Tycoon) mares.

Brothers to Costume and to the Queensland Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) winner Brambles are among the 2018 Savabeels to be offered at Karaka while on the Gold Coast you can survey a handful of likely Savabeels, mainly offered by Sledmere Stud, including the brother to Pasadena Girl.

Similarly there's a handful of Snitzels at Karaka. Five catalogued to be precise. They include the first foal of Brisbane Cup (Gr 2, 2400m) winner Floria... by Savabeel.

At Magic Millions, the sister to Sweet Idea and the brother to Sizzling are among the Snitzels scheduled for sale - most of whom are from mares who'd attract attention anywhere.

The January sale of the Snitzels and the Savabeels just might set the sales tone for all of 2018.
