The Gerald Ryan-trained Trapeze Artist (Snitzel) proved too strong for his rivals when he ran out an impressive winner of the Expressway Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) at Rosehill yesterday and could now be set to clash with superstar mare Winx (Street Cry) in the Apollo Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) at Randwick in two weeks time.

The Golden Rose Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) winner was having his first start since his disappointing display in the Coolmore Stud Stakes (registered as Ascot Vale Stakes) (Gr 1, 1200m) at Flemington in November.

<< Continued from page 1 The three-year-old colt, who was ridden by Tim Clark, was able to pull clear in the final 200 metres to beat Showtime (Snitzel) by just over length with pre-race favourite Addictive Nature (Savabeel) another head away in third.

Dual Group One winner Global Glamour (Star Witness) finished fourth, with multiple Group One winner Ace High (High Chaparral) finishing fifth, over the unsuitably short trip.

Trapeze Artist broke well from barrier six and was settled in second behind Memes (Time Thief), who set good fractions from the front.

As the field rounded the turn, Trapeze Artist was asked for his effort and as his rivals began to feel the pinch Showtime was the only one able to live with the pace.

Gerald Ryan SPORTPIX

However, Trapeze Artist responded impressively to Clark's urgings to eventually pull away with an impressive victory.

Trapeze Artist can already claim a small victory over Winx this season having beaten her and star sprinter Redzel (Snitzel) when he won his Randwick barrier trial on 22 January.

Ryan said after the race that he had passed the weight-for-age test and deserved his chance to take on the champion mare Winx in the Apollo Stakes.

"He's won at weight-for-age now so we may well take on Winx next," Ryan said.

"He probably shouldn't have gone to Melbourne for the Coolmore Stud Stakes but he has come back well.

"He had about three weeks in the paddock and he's flying.

"He trialed better than I thought he would and was very fit coming into today.

"He is much stronger than he was last time and I would love to win another Group One with him while he is a three-year-old," the trainer continued.

Clark was equally pleased with the colts performance and is confident he can continue to improve.

"That was a really good return," said Clark. "He is the sort of horse that will keep improving this prep. I had to use him a bit to get there but once I come back he travelled well.

"If anything the leader didn't take me far enough so he could left there earlier than I would have liked but he was really strong to the line."

The winner was bred and is raced by the Vieira Group and following yesterday's victory Trapeze Artist (3 c Snitzel - Treppes by Domesday) has won four times in ten starts with one placing for prize money earnings of $1,073,550.

Trapeze Artist is the second living foal out of Treppes (Domesday), a placed half-sister to Stradbroke Handicap (Gr 1, 1400m) winner Crawl (Dr Grace) and his Listed-winning brother Old Man (Dr Grace), who was placed at three before being retired to stud.

Treppes is also a half-sister to Step (Grand Lodge), who is the dam of Moonee Valley Vase (Gr 2, 2040m) winner and Caulfield Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) placed Marching (Commands) and Listed winner Gait (Anabaa).

One of two horses to race for Treppes, Trapeze Artist is the first winner for his dam, who missed to Foxwedge (Fastnet Rock) and Piero (Lonhro) in 2014 and foaled a colt by Zoustar (Northern Meteor) last October who subsequently died in a paddock accident.

She then produced a filly by Newgate Farm's first season sire Wandjina (Snitzel) and has most recently been covered by Snitzel (Redoute's Choice).

Treppes was purchased by Connolly Bloodstock from a Darley reduction at the 2011 Inglis Australian Weanling and Bloodstock Sale for $55,000 and later purchased by Vieira for $190,000 in foal to Snitzel when reoffered at the 2014 Magic Millions National Broodmare Sale.

Trapeze Artist is one of 77 stakes winners and 12 Group One winners for Arrowfield Stud-based Snitzel, who was crowned champion sire in Australia last season for the first time.

Performer returns with narrow Canonbury Stakes win

Performer

SPORTPIX

Odds-on favourite Performer (Exceed And Excel) caused his supporters a few nervous moments yesterday but the unbeaten colt's victory in the Canonbury Stakes (Gr 3, 1100m) has convinced trainer Chris Waller to stick to his Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) plan.

The Breeders' Plate (Listed, 1000m) winner, who was a one-time favourite for the Golden Slipper Stakes, resumed in yesterday Canonbury Stakes and appeared to have the race in his keeping before runner-up Stratosphere (Snitzel) fought back to be beaten by a nose. Continued on page 4>>

The well-supported first starter Exceltic (Excelebration) ($3.20), who is trained by Gary Portelli, got into the clear late to finish two and a half lengths away in third place.

Performer's jockey Kerrin McEvoy admitted the colt may have peaked on his run in yesterday's Canonbury Stakes.

"He doesn't give you the normal Slipper type of feel in the way he gallops," McEvoy said.

"He is a hard one to put your finger on. I have only ridden him once obviously but I said to Liam (Prior, Waller's assistant) you can't really pigeon hole him into one criteria because he has so many options and avenues he could work into as he gets into his career.

"Whether he is just a speed horse I'm not so sure. He might have just peaked a little bit. I had him out and into full stride at the top of the lane.

"Lucky we got the bob in but he is a nice colt going forward."

Performer will not race until the Todman Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) and then have his fourth start in the Golden Slipper Stakes at Rosehill on 24 March.

"I know the horse pretty well and he is an exciting horse to be training," Waller said.

"He is a good colt, as is the second horse. I was worried before the race, I wasn't worried at the 50 metres but I was the last five metres, that's for sure."

Waller revealed it was some advice from rival trainer John O'Shea who suggested keeping a two-year-old lightly raced into a Golden Slipper Stakes was the best way to win the premier juvenile race.

"Putting it into perspective he has a long way to go until the Golden Slipper. He certainly wasn't wound up today. He has had fitness building trials and had a three-kilogram penalty from the Breeders' Plate," Waller said.

"There is no rush to get to the next race. He is still learning his trade and probably clocked off a little bit and the second horse dug pretty deep. He is an athletic type. He is just where he needs to be.

"I spoke to John O'Shea and he has a bit of experience with these and he said not to over-race them. I went home and had a look at the history."

A $450,000 purchase by Harras Syndicate / Mulcaster Bloodstock from the Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale in 2017 from the Newhaven Park draft, Performer (2 c Exceed And Excel - Gavroche by Snippets) is a half-brother to the 2013 The Galaxy (Gr 1, 1100m) winner Bel Sprinter (Bel Esprit), while his second dam La Miserable (Miswaki) is a half-sister to the Group One winner Always Aloof (Alleged). From two starts Performer has earned $192,000.

La Miserable produced six winners from seven foals to race, including the stakes-placed Azelna (Tropular), herself the dam of stakes winner Macias (Purge).

Fiesta lands Widden Stakes first up

Widden Stakes (Gr 3, 1100m) winner Fiesta (I Am Invincible), the second leg of a two-year-old stakes double for Chris Waller, yesterday enhanced the leading trainer's juvenile stocks as he chases a maiden Golden Slipper Stakes success.

The two-year-old filly, who was placed in the Gimcrack Stakes (Listed, 1000m) and runner-up in the Kirkham Plate (1000m) in the spring, overcame interference to win her first race in yesterday's $150,000 Group Three event.

Fiesta ($3.90), who was ridden by Kerrin McEvoy, defeated Adamina (Snitzel) ($31) by a short neck with River Bird (Epaulette) ($18) two lengths away in third place.

Waller also won the previous race, the Canonbury Stakes, with two-year-old Performer.

Fiesta settled in a midfield position and McEvoy attempted to take the filly to the outside in the straight to make her run, but was held in a pocket by a rival runner.

The scrimmage forced McEvoy to dart back towards the inside fence on the filly, who made ground late to score.

"It was a good effort to see her win after a bit of a scrimmage. The horse to her outside of her wasn't going anywhere but fortunately the gap opened on the inside and Kerrin saw it," Waller said.

"It is good to see a young horse under pressure still quicken after coping a bump in the race. It might look easy watching at home but I can tell you those midrace clashes at high speeds would be like being hit with a pretty solid object."

"It was a pretty good win. There was a bit of hustle and bustle involved and she over-raced a bit with the blinkers on, so I was a bit concerned at the 500 metres that I might have used up a bit of gas," McEvoy said.

"After a bit of a bump and having to change course she didn't lose focus. She was the winner as soon as I got that gap.

"If I got beat I still would have been happy with the run because of the energy she used early. It was full on merit."

Waller intends to target the Golden Slipper Stakes with Fiesta, who will tackle the lead-up fillies races before the 24 March feature race where she will take on the colts and geldings.

Fiesta (2 f I Am Invincible - Now Now by Danehill Dancer) has now had three starts for two placings and yesterday's Group Three victory for prize money of $117,150.

The I Am Invincible (Invincible Spirit) filly is a daughter of five-time winning metropolitan-placed sprinter Now Now (Danehill Dancer), who is a half-sister to the South African Group Two runner-up Rock Cocktail (Rock Of Gibraltar).

A $150,000 purchase at the 2017 Inglis Classic Yearling Sale by Star Thoroughbreds and Chris Waller Racing from the Fairhill Farm draft, Fiesta is one of four foals to race and one of two winners for Now Now.

The filly's third dam is the Listed winner Vowed (Without Fear), who had eight foals to race for six winners including stakes winners Stick Around (Twig Moss), Charm Scene Land (Brocco) and Kingsgate (Danzero).

Now Now has a weanling colt by Outreach (Exceed And Excel) and was covered by Capitalist (Written Tycoon) on 15 October last year.

Fiesta's victory was also a boon for her breeder, Fairhill Farm's Mike O'Donnell, with Inglis paying him $100,000 as part of an Inglis bonus scheme.

The I Am Invincible filly was bought as part of the Blue Riband session at the Inglis Classic Yearling Sale last year, with the connections of the first graduate of the session to win a two-year-old stakes race entitled to a $100,000 bonus split equally between the vendor and supplier of the yearling.

"I obviously knew about the bonus that it existed but when I got the call from Jonathan [D'Arcy] earlier it was a bloody nice surprise," O'Donnell said.

"And what perfect timing, a day before we take our draft to Classic for this year's sale where we've got 10 horses and a very nice Hinchinbrook colt (Lot 91) in Gold Riband next Saturday night.

"I'll tell you one thing, Fiesta is a tough thing. She got hit at the start, she over-raced, she couldn't get out in the straight yet she still won."

Fiesta's sire I Am Invincible has now sired 26 individual stakes winners including three at Group One level, Brazen Beau, I Am A Star and Viddora.

I Am Invincible, who stands at Yarraman Park Stud near Scone, stood at a fee of $110,000 (inc GST) last year. He was the leading sire by average (with three or more lots sold) at last month's Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale where 37 yearlings by the sire sold for $17,710,000 at an average of $478,649.

Impressive debut Inglis Premier victory for Kinky Boom

Kinky Boom

SPORTPIX

Dual-state trainer Tony McEvoy admits he was hesitant to send two-year-old Kinky Boom (Spirit Of Boom) to Melbourne so soon after a dominant barrier trial victory, but the gamble paid off yesterday when the filly landed an impressive debut victory in the $250,000 Inglis Premier (RL, 1200m).

The daughter of Spirit Of Boom (Sequalo) barrier trialed over 1000 metres at Morphetville Parks last Monday, winning by eight and a half lengths, which saw her immediately dispatched to McEvoy's Flemington stable ahead of yesterday's lucrative Inglis graduates two-year-old race.

Ridden by Craig Williams, Kinky Boom ($3.70 equal favourite) was slowly away and settled last on the fence before the filly worked into the race by the home turn before being switched three wide in the straight to round up the leader and stablemate Aristocratic Miss (Foxwedge) to win by one and three quarter lengths.

The Robbie Griffiths-trained Grand Symphony (Glass Harmonium) ($41) also made up ground to finished second, a half length in front of Aristocratic Miss ($4.60).

McEvoy said after the race Kinky Boom was now likely to contest the Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) at Caulfield on 24 February.

"That money gets us to the big dance," McEvoy said.

"Three weeks out it's too hard to pass up when you have a filly of this ability."

McEvoy said Kinky Boom was set to trial at Gawler on 22 January but refused to load into the barriers.

"That panicked us a bit and my son Calvin and John Cornell got to work on her getting her in the gates with an intensive little program," McEvoy said.

"We got her to the Morphetville trials on Monday and she did what she did and that left us no choice but to come over and she proved up to the task.

"She'll be tired tomorrow but the beauty is she has three weeks into the Diamond from here."

Jockey Craig Williams, who won last year's Blue Diamond Stakes on the Lindsay Park-trained Catchy (Fastnet Rock), said Kinky Boom reminded him of other fillies he rode in the lead-up to last year's race.

draft last year, Kinky Boom (2 f Spirit Of Boom - Kinka Rhode by Encosta De Lago) provided an immediate return for her owners which include breeder Eureka Stud. Yesterday's win earned connections $137,500 in prize money.

Kinky Boom is one of two winners from three foals to race out of the four-time winning Encosta De Lago (Fairy King) mare Kinka Rhode, who was victorious from 1200 metres to 2400 metres.

The filly's second dam is the New Zealand Listed winner Centennial (Centaine), herself a half-sister to fellow stakes-winning mare Brianna (Sudurka).

Kinka Rhode was purchased by Eureka Stud for just $600 at the Inglis Scone Thoroughbred Sale in 2014 from the Glastonbury Farms draft.

The mare was not in foal at the time and was subsequently covered by Eureka Stud's resident stallion Spirit Of Boom at his first year at stud, producing Kinky Boom the following August.

Kinka Rhode has a yearling colt by Turffontein (Johannesburg) and a weanling colt by Spirit Of Boom. She was again covered by Spirit Of Boom last September.

"It really is a win for the families, the McAlpines, the McEvoy's and the Inglis family, many of which make up a good part of the ownership and obviously training team of this filly," Eureka Stud's Scott McAlpine said.

"Spirit Of Boom is going so well, it really is hard to get your head around what he's achieved so far and this filly Kinky Boom, she was always a very intelligent filly, a very athletic filly and while she was never huge as a young horse, she's developed into an outstanding type."

Damian Gleeson and Deb Gifford of Phoenix Broodmare Farm retained a ten per cent share in Kinky Boom after last year's Melbourne Premier Yearling Sale, something they rarely do.

"But we just knew she was special, we knew she had an X-factor of some description," Gleeson said.

"This is awesome, just awesome. To share this moment and this hopefully long ride with such great people really makes it all worthwhile."

The former Tony Gollan-trained sprinter Spirit Of Boom is currently the leading first crop stallion by winners, with nine individual two-year-old winners so far this season.

Kinky Boom is also one of four juvenile stakes winners for her sire, joining Jonker, Ef Troop and Outback Barbie.

Spirit Of Boom stood at Queensland-based Eureka Stud last year for a fee of $11,000 (inc GST). He has seven lots catalogued for next week's Inglis Classic Yearling Sale.

"It's still three weeks away but she's got the makings of being a huge contender in the Blue Diamond," Williams said.

"Last year I had the choice of five rides in the Blue Diamond but that (Kinky Boom) was quite special today."

Blue Diamond Stakes next on the agenda for Ennis Hill

A tilt at the Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) in three weeks now lies in wait for the Lindsay Park-trained Ennis Hill (Fastnet Rock) after she finally lived up to her stables high expectations with effortless performance to win the Chairman's Stakes (Gr 3, 1000m) at Caulfield yesterday.

Ennis Hill came into yesterday's race having run fourth on debut, after being forced wide, over 1100 metres at Caulfield in December, but a much smoother passage under Stephen Baster this time saw her come away with a length and a half victory over Encryption (Lonhro) with another length and a quarter back to Prairie Fire (Snitzel) in third.

With blinkers on for the first time, the two-year-old took the lead early in the 1000 metre race and the result never looked in doubt and the victory prompted bookmakers to slash her odds for the Blue Diamond Stakes.

"She did what we thought she would do," co-trainer Ben Hayes said. "In her first start, she didn't. It just shows they can get it wrong.

"She just needed the run to come on and the blinkers really did the trick with her.

"She jumped better today and she just never looked like losing."

The stable won last year's Chairman's Stakes with Formality (Fastnet Rock), who subsequently went on to finish third behind stablemate Catchy (Fastnet Rock) in the Blue Diamond Stakes, and Hayes said Ennis Hill reminded him of Formality.

Baster was also impressed by Ennis Hill and is confident the step up in distance will not prove a problem for the daughter of Fastnet Rock.

"The 1000 metres suits her because she's fast but she's got a lot of quality about her so I don't see why she's not going to get 1200 metres," he said.

Lindsay Park has a number of two-year-olds in Blue Diamond contention, headed by unbeaten colt Long Leaf (Fastnet Rock), who is the $7 favourite.

Ennis Hill (2 f Fastnet Rock - Hips Don't Lie by Stravinsky) is out of the Group Two-winning Stravinsky (Nureyev) mare Hips Don't Lie, making the filly a sister to stakes-winning filly Lady Geneva and a further three winners.

Hips Don't Lie is out of Procure (Centaine), who produced six winners including Hips Don't Lie and the dam of Mr Tiz Trophy (Gr 3, 1200m) winner No More Tears (Darci Brahma).

Procure herself is out of Gimcrack Stakes (Listed, 1000m) winner Getting There (Jungle Boy), making her a half-sister to Group Three winner Rythm (Bakharoff) and Listed winners Tristachine (Sir Tristram) and Western Music (Western Symphony).

The win also provided Coolmore shuttler Fastnet Rock with his 128th stakes winner.

128 for Fastnet Rock

The Lindsay Park-trained Ennis Hill (2 f ex Hips Don't Lie by Stravinsky) put in an impressive display to land the Chairman's Stakes (Gr 3, 1000m) at Caulfield yesterday and in the process became the 128th stakes winner for Coolmore shuttler Fastnet Rock (Danehill). The Coolmore-raced filly finished fourth on debut at the same track after being sent off the favourite, but yesterday the result never looked in any doubt when she powered home to beat Encryption (Lonhro) by a length and a half with another length and a quarter back to Prairie Road (Snitzel) in third. Former champion sire in Australia, Fastnet Rock had 28 yearlings sale for a total aggregate of $9,520,000 at an average of $340,000 at last month's Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale.

26 for I Am Invincible

The Yarraman Park-based sire I Am Invincible (Invincible Spirit) was yesterday provided with his 26th stakes winner when the Chris Waller-trained Fiesta (2 f ex Now Now by Danehill Dancer) narrowly landed the Widden Stakes (Gr 3, 1100m) at Rosehill. The two-year-old ran third in the Gimcrack Stakes (Listed, 1000m) at Randwick on debut before finishing second at the same track in October and yesterday she was able to shake her maiden status, defeating the $31 outsider Adamina (Snitzel) by a head with a further two lengths back to River Bird (Epaulette) in third. I Am Invincible finished the leading sire by aggregate at the recent Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling, after 37 lots sold for a total gross of $17,710,000 and he was also responsible for the sale's top lot, a colt out of Tai Tai Tess (Magic Albert), which was purchased for $2,000,000 by Reg Inglis, Jon Kelly and Paul Frampton.

Four for Spirit Of Boom

Kinky Boom (2 f ex Kinka Rhode by Encosta De Lago) backed up an emphatic barrier trial victory on Monday to win yesterday's Inglis Premier (RL, 1200m) at Caulfield at her first start, providing her freshman sire Spirit Of Boom (Sequalo) with his ninth individual first crop winner and fourth stakes winner. The Tony McEvoy-trained juvenile won a Morphettville barrier trial by eight and a half lengths, prompting a trip to Melbourne for the $250,000 race. Settling last, jockey Craig Williams worked into the race at the top of the straight to ease three wide to defeat Grand Symphony (Glass Harmonium) by a length and three quarters, with the filly's stablemate Aristocratic Miss (Foxwedge) another half a length away in third. Kinky Boom joins Ef Troop, Outback Barbie and Jonker as stakes winners for the Eureka Stud-based Spirit Of Boom, who is currently leading Australia's first season sire standings by winners.

24 for Bel Esprit

The Sun Stud-based stallion Bel Esprit (Royal Academy) sired his 24th stakes winner yesterday courtesy of the Aaron Purcell-trained Lady Esprit's (5 m ex Fanciful Bella by Bellotto) shock victory in the W J Adams Stakes (Listed, 1000m) at Caulfield. Lady Esprit had not been successful since she January 2017 and as result was sent off an unfancied $51 chance, but she was able to storm back into form and beat the heavily backed $1.75 favourite Snitty Kitty (Snitzel) by a quarter of a length. Bel Esprit stood at Sun Stud's Queensland base in 2017 for a fee of $12,100 (inc GST).

Purcell pleased with Lady Esprit

After Lady Esprit's surprise victory in the W J Adams Stakes at Caulfield yesterday, winning trainer Aaron Purcell admitted he wasn't sure going into the race whether she was good enough to win. "We didn't know if she was good enough but there you go," Purcell said. "We probably didn't really want to be racing Snitty Kitty today but with her rating there wasn't a lot of options for her. We were hoping she would be able to run a place but obviously she's a stakes winner now, which is really good. With get-back sprinters, you always need luck. It didn't work out at all last start. Today it's worked out really well."

Cliff's Edge returns with Manfred Stakes win

Promising three-year-old Cliff's Edge (Canford Cliffs) is likely to be aimed at the Australian Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) at Flemington next month after a first up victory in yesterday's Manfred Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at Caulfield. The Darren Weir-trained colt, who won the Norman Robinson Stakes (Gr 3, 2000m) in the spring, took an inside run closest to the fence to overhaul the Team Hawkes-trained Overshare (I Am Invincible) to win by a long neck, with Muraaqeb (Snitzel) another short head away in third place. Cliff's Edge had not raced since taking on older horses when sixth in the Emirates Stakes (registered as Mackinnon Stakes) (Gr 1, 2000m) at Flemington on 11 November.

'Improvement to come from Cliff's Edge'

Trainer Darren Weir says Cliff's Edge, who won the Manfred Stakes yesterday, would benefit significantly from yesterday's victory as he heads towards the Australian Guineas. "He's a beauty," Weir said. "He landed in a beautiful spot and he was travelling up well behind them on the corner. He just needed the gap to come and he went back to the inside and won extremely well. He's just a real racehorse." Cliff's Edge is now the $5 favourite for the Australian Guineas ahead of Thousand Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) winner Aloisia (Azamour). "He'll take good benefit from that today and he'll head to the C S Hayes Stakes in a fortnight," Weir said. "He's on a Guineas path. It was a big tick today to head down that way but he's got to keep doing it. It looks like he's on track at this stage."

The Vanity next for undefeated Paris Rock

Trainer Henry Dwyer is eyeing a tilt in The Vanity (Gr 3, 1200m) at Flemington on 17 February with Paris Rock (Rock 'n' Pop) after she was able to preserve her perfect record in the Ian Miller Handicap (1400m) at Caulfield yesterday. The three-year-old won her first two career starts at Geelong and Ballarat and yesterday she stayed on strongly all the way to the line to beat Earth Angel (Animal Kingdom) by three quarters of a length with another length and three quarters back to Lucky Cat (Star Witness) in third. "After today I think she deserves a shot at a stakes race," Dwyer said. "She keeps improving all the time and they're the ones that make good horses."

Adelaide Cup on Double Bluff's radar

Another tilt at the Adelaide Cup (Gr 2, 3200m) at Morphettville on 12 March could now be on Double Bluff's (Azamour) agenda after his impressive victory in yesterday's Robert Hunter Handicap (2400m) at Caulfield. The Robbie Laing-trained seven-year-old, who ran second in the Group Two last season, stayed on strongly to overhaul Dornier (Artie Schiller) by a quarter of a length. "When he should have been joining in on the turn he was running into dead ends and we thought he should have nearly won (Adelaide Cup)," Laing said. "We'll be there hopefully winning it this year."

Bedford chalks up another win at Caulfield

Trainer Anthony Freedman believes time has been the key to Bedford's (Tavistock) recent turnaround in form as he chalked up a second successive victory at Caulfield yesterday by taking out the Mal Seccull Handicap (2000m). The four-year-old gelding stayed on stoutly to defeat O'Lonera (O'Lonhro) by a head with Archery Peak (Arch) another length and a quarter away in third. "He's a horse that wasn't going anywhere six months ago so he's probably matured a bit and is now starting to put together a nice record," Freedman said. "He might even be better in another six months as there's not much of him and he might strengthen up a bit. Maybe he can go to the Mornington Cup if he continues with his form. It's worth $300,000 and it's around the corner from home."

Eurack's perfect record intact

The Nathan McPherson-trained Eurack (Oneworld) stretched her unbeaten record to four when she landed the Ladbrokes Handicap (1100m) at Caulfield yesterday. Having her first start since August, Eurack lad all the way under Ben Melham to beat Handsome Thief (Shamardal) by three-quarters of a length with Highland Beat (Exceed And Excel) a neck away third. "She's pretty special and she's going to attract a big following now," McPherson said. "I'm going to have to get used to this for a little while longer. We'll get her home, get recovery into her and aim for Flemington in a few more weeks. I think if we can keep giving her a look at these lesser races while she's having a look at those tracks she will keep improving."

Light Fingers aim for Charlayne

Trainer Chris Waller said he now intends to aim Charlayne (Sebring) at the Light Fingers Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) at Randwick on 17 February, after she preserved her unbeaten record in Your Local Greengrocer Handicap (1100m) at Rosehill yesterday and also provided Kerrin McEvoy with a winning return to Saturday racing following a hand injury. The filly broke her maiden over 1100 metres on debut at Canterbury on 19 January and was able to follow that up in fine style, pulling away to beat Problem Solver (Hinchinbrook) by three quarters of a length. "We didn't really want to step her straight up against the boys on a Saturday but there weren't any other options," Waller said. "Her ability has got her there today. When Kerrin asked she just kept building her momentum. The last 100 metres were very strong."

Vintage Cellarman adds to Waller's haul

Cellarman (Mossman) continued his rich vein of form yesterday, making it five wins from his past eight starts when taking out a Benchmark 90 Handicap (1500m) at Rosehill.

The Chris Waller-trained four-year-old was dropping back slightly in distance and appeared to be struggling to gain a run closer to the fence until jockey Blake Shinn was able to angle the four-year-old off heels to move up and overhaul the leader King Darci (Darci Brahma) by three quarters of a length. The favourite Flow (Street Cry) finished third. "He was at the crossroads at the end of his last prep," Waller said. "We had high expectations after he won a Listed race at Eagle Farm, then he went missing. You often see that with two-year-olds and fortunately the owners have been patient and stuck with him."

Bye See gifts birthday present to Tubman

Trainer Michael Tubman, who turns 70 today, was provided with an early Birthday present courtesy of Bye See's (Sebring) win in the Freshman Handicap (1500m) at Rosehill yesterday. The four-year-old mare, who is the second and last foal to race out of Tubman's late Silver Slipper Stakes (Gr 2, 1100m)-winning mare Chance Bye (Snitzel), put in a good performance to defeat Travancore (Savabeel) by half a length with Ready For Success (More Than Ready) a further head adrift in third. "She'll get better, she's still learning. She'll get 2000 metres and in good company," Tubman said. "Winona (Costin, jockey) rode her brilliantly. She's a good little rider. She doesn't get the opportunities she should get."

Overdue win for High Opinion

High Opinion (Lord Jim) bounced back from a luckless run over 2000 metres at Randwick by taking out a Benchmark 81 (2000m) at Rosehill yesterday. The Kris Lees-trained six-year-old gelding enjoyed a flawless run over the same distance to eventually beat Gamblestown (Darci Brahma) by a length and three quarters with another two and a quarter lengths back to More Energy (Fastnet Rock). "We wanted to be a little bit closer today. I didn't anticipate being outside the leader but that obviously took bad luck out of the equation," Lees said. "The good thing about him is he relaxed really well once I go there. He was far too good for them."

Doncaster possible for Don't Give A Damn

Goulburn trainer Danny Williams is not ruling out the Doncaster Mile (Gr 1, 1600m) for lightly raced four-year-old Don't Give A Damn (Bon Hoffa), who yesterday stretched his record to four wins from five starts. The gelding had not raced since winning back-to-back Highway Handicaps in the spring, but yesterday was a heavily backed favourite to score in a Benchmark 83 Handicap (1300m) company when leading all the way for jockey Kerrin McEvoy. "I've always felt he's a Doncaster horse. It's just a matter of whether he's going to get enough rating points between now and then," Williams said. Don't Give A Damn is set to contest a Country Championship heat in three weeks' time.

First winner for Dubios

New South Wales Southern Highlands-based trainer and Frenchman Jean Dubios prepared his first metropolitan winner yesterday when Mate Story (Wanted) took out the Highway Handicap (1500m) at Rosehill. The four-year-old gelding, who ran fourth at Canterbury over 1900 metres in Benchmark 74 Handicap company on 19 January, narrowly overhauled favourite Acquittal (Nicconi) to win yesterday's restricted class three race for country-trained horses. "It is my first city winner. It's been a year and finally it's happened," Dubois said. "The tempo wasn't strong enough for him last time at Canterbury. He needs a good pace and he got that today."

Rebel King takes out Scenic Blast

Six-year-old sprinter Rebel King (Universal Ruler) yesterday won his second race at stakes level with a strong closing first up victory in the Scenic Blast Stakes (Listed, 1200m) at Ascot. The Darren McAuliffe-trained Rebel King, who was spelled after finishing third in the Birthday Stakes (Listed, 1200m) at Belmont on 7 October, settled off the speed set by Summer Scorcher (Listed, 1000m) winner Battle Hero (Stratum) and Caipirinha (Nicconi) before pouncing late to win the $100,000 race by three quarters of a length. Battle Hero was runner-up, while the Dan Morton-trained Group Three winner Dainty Tess (War Chant) came from last to finish another half length away in third.

High Hopes for Pinch Memory

Trainer Robert Heathcote's high opinion of Pinch Memory (Denman) proved founded when the two-year-old gelding won the two-year-old race over 1050 metres at Doomben yesterday. The two-year-old gelding, who was purchased by Paul Willetts Bloodstock for $57,500 at the Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale from the Willow Stud draft, showed a good attitude to beat Accomplish (Jet Spur) by half a length, with a further two and three quarter lengths back to Spirit Of Cherokee (Spirit Of Boom) in third. "He can have another run here and then we will put him way with the winter carnival in mind. I think he can win a stakes race then," Heathcote said.

Doomben abandoned after five races

Yesterday's Doomben race meeting was abandoned after five races due to ongoing rain making the visibility and track unsafe for the remaining for races to be run. A jockeys delegation went to stewards after the Daniel Bullimore Handicap on Saturday and complained that visibility was deteriorating rapidly. Chief steward Daniel Aurisch said the main concern was two more races of 15 runners were scheduled. "It wasn't worth the risk and jockey safety should always be paramount," Aurisch said.

No jockey yet for Winx

Trainer Chris Waller will not lock in a jockey to ride Winx (Street Cry) in the Apollo Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) until knowing the outcome of a careless riding appeal by regular rider Hugh Bowman. Champion mare Winx will have her second barrier trial this preparation at Rosehill tomorrow with Bowman set to partner the six-year-old in the course proper hit out. "We won't be asking her to win the trial, just stay in behind them. We did ask her to win a trial last prep but I don't think anything was gained by it. She'll just tick over nicely behind them and then be ready to head to the races," Waller said. "We're happy with the way she looks. She had a gallop yesterday (Friday). She is picture perfect."

Slipper plan outlined for Sunlight

Sunlight

WESTERN RACEPIX

Magic Millions 2YO Classic (RL, 1200m) winner Sunlight (Zoustar) is being aimed at the Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) by Tony McEvoy, with a two-start lead-up campaign outlined. She will be aimed at the Silver Slipper Stakes (Gr 2, 1100m) at Rosehill on 24 February before tackling the Magic Night Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at Rosehill on 17 March, a week before the Golden Slipper Stakes. "She's had a little break and she's super," McEvoy told Racing.com. "But I just feel she need the two runs going into the Slipper."

Melham set for She Will Reign ride

She Will Reign

SPORTPIX

Victorian-based jockey Ben Melham is excited about reuniting with Golden Slipper Stakes winner She Will Reign (Manhattan Rain) in Saturday's $250,000 Inglis Sprint (1100m) at Warwick Farm. Melham partnered the filly in a Warwick Farm barrier trial on 15 January in preparation for Saturday's race. He is not concerned about the clash with boom Victorian sprinter Nature Strip (Nicconi) in the Warwick Farm race. "Obviously Nature Strip is going to be hard to beat, but he's got to get around her track," Melham told Racing.com. "It's a tricky track for a Melbourne horse the first time in Sydney. She's got the credentials on the board and he looks progressive, but he's got to come to her level."

Brown suspended at Rosehill

Jockey Corey Brown will miss the lucrative Inglis-sponsored race meeting at Warwick Farm next Saturday after copping a suspension at Rosehill yesterday. Brown was outed for four meetings for low-range careless riding aboard third-placed Exceltic (Excelebaration) in the Canonbury Stakes (Gr 3, 1100m). He will begin his ban immediately and the suspension will take in the race day at Warwick Farm on Saturday, which coincides with the opening of Inglis' new Riverside facilities. Brown was found guilty of shifting out near the 200 metres, causing Brenton Avdulla to steady Catanzaro (So You Think).

New Zealand

23 for Showcasing

Showcasing

HAUNUI FARM

The Haunui Farm-based shuttler Showcasing (Oasis Dream) sired his 23rd stakes winner courtesy of Bit Lippy's (2 g ex Ceramic by Van Nistelrooy) win in the Phoenix Park 2YO Classic (Gr 3, 1200m) at Pukekura yesterday. The Wayne Hillis-trained two-year-old was most recently seen running second in the Eclipse Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) and yesterday he was unable to go one better, beating Platinum Mam'selle (Fighting Sun) by three and a quarter lengths with the same distance back to Handsome Rebel (Denman) in third. Showcasing finished Book Two of New Zealand Bloodstock's Karaka Yearling sale as leading sire by average after selling 14 yearlings for a total aggregate of NZ$974,000 at an average of NZ$160,000.

Group One targets for Bit Lippy

Phoenix Park 2YO Classic winner Bit Lippy will be set for the Sistema Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) and the Manawatu Sires' Produce Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) by trainer Wayne Hillis after yesterday's Group Three success. Bit Lippy jumped better from the barriers than he did at his past two starts in the Wakefield Challenge Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) when third and in the Eclipse Stakes when runner-up on 1 January. "He's learning all the time and I couldn't be happier with him," Hillis said.

21 for Rip Van Winkle

Windsor Park-based sire Rip Van Winkle (Galileo) was yesterday handed his 21st stakes winner when the Shane Kennedy and Anna Furlong-trained Pendleton (4 m ex Ihadadream by Zabeel) ran out a ready winner of the Gold Cup (Listed, 2400m) at Wingatui. The four-year-old mare was resuming having not been seen since she won over 2100 metres in December and she was able to continue her winning form by beating Aspen Lass (Alamosa) by two and a quarter lengths. Rip Van Winkle stood for a fee of NZ$10,000 (plus GST) in 2017.

46 for Mastercraftsman

The lightly-raced filly Treasure (3 f ex Penny Whistle by O'Reilly) showcased her class when she won the Oaks Prelude (Listed, 1800m) at Pukekura yesterday and in the process provided former Windsor Park shuttler Mastercraftsman (Danehill Dancer) with his 46th stakes winner. The Tony Pike-trained three-year-old filly was having her fourth career start with her best performance of her three previous runs coming on her most recent start when she ran third over 1600 metres. But yesterday she appreciated the step up in distance and had no problems with the step in class to defeat Caricature (Power) by two and a half lengths with another three quarters of a length back to Luxe (O'Reilly) in third.

Oaks next for Treasure

Following Treasure's victory in the Oaks Prelude yesterday, trainer Tony Pike said Treasure would now be aimed at the New Zealand Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m) at Trentham on 17 March and rates her one of the best fillies he has ever trained. "I think she's one of the best staying fillies that I've trained," said Pike. "We've always had a massive opinion of her, she's just taken a few runs to work things out and the blinkers have helped her. We were pretty confident with the winner.

It's nice when a plan comes off. We wanted to get today out of the way and now we'll sit down and decide whether she goes to the Lowland Stakes or the Sunline Vase before Wellington."

11 for Alamosa

The Roydon Bergerson-trained Beefeater (5 g ex Karaka by Kings Island) proved too strong for his rivals when he won the Taranaki Cup (Gr 3, 1800m) yesterday and in the process provided his sire Alamosa (O'Reilly) with his 11th stakes winner. The five-year-old gelding, who was most recently seen running a good fourth in the Anniversary Stakes (Gr 3, 1800m), defeated Group Two winner Scapolo (Bachelor Duke) by a neck with another length and a quarter back to Travimyfriend (Tavistock) in third. Alamosa stands at Wellfield Lodge, where his fee in 2017 was NZ$8,500 (plus GST).

Dunedin Guineas to Excelleration

Three-year-old filly Excelleration (Exceed And Excel) added the Dunedin Guineas (Listed, 1500m) to her impressive record yesterday at Wingatui, making it three wins in succession and two successes at stakes level. Excelleration won the Gore Guineas (Listed, 1335m) two weeks earlier for trainer Nigel Tiley before switching to the Shane Kennedy and Anna Furlong stable for the remainder of her South Island preparation. Ridden by Sam Collett yesterday, Excelleration won by one and a quarter lengths over Global Thinking (So You Think) with Czechoslovakia (Reliable Man) another two and three quarter lengths away in third.

Southland Guineas next for Excelleration

Excelleration's co-breeders and part-owners Wellfield Lodge have their sights set on the Southland Guineas (Listed, 1600m) at Ascot Park on 17 February after the Exceed And Excel (Danehill) filly made it three wins in succession. Jockey Samantha Collett, who missed the ride on the filly in the Gore Guineas, settled Excelleration back in the field before making her move at the 700 metres mark. "I wanted to get out and avoid any traffic problems," Collett said. "I probably hit the front too soon, but she did it easily. She's not very big, but she makes up for it in heart." Of the Southland Guineas, Collett said: "Whether it's wet or dry, she'll be pretty hard to beat there."

Fourth time lucky for Tommy Tucker

The evergreen gelding Tommy Tucker (9 g Gallant Guru - Lady Vital by Yamanin Vital) benefitted from the change from handicap conditions to weight for age when he finally landed the White Robe Lodge Weight For Age (Gr 3, 1600m) at Wingatui yesterday. This was the Brian and Shane Anderton-trained geldings fourth start in the Group Three, having finished 11th in 2015 and second in the past two years and yesterday he was able to win the NZ$70,000 contest, by beating stablemate Gallant Boy (Gallant Guru) by a length and a half with Princess Brook (Raise The Flag) a further half a length adrift in third.

Anderton 'proud' of Tucker

Shane Anderton said he was proud of Tommy Tucker following the gelding's long overdue victory in the White Robe Lodge Weight For Age at Wingatui. "He really deserved that, he's just been so honest for years - he's a nine-year-old, but he doesn't know it," Anderton said. Tommy Tucker had finished runner-up in the previous two editions of the event, carrying 60 kilograms both times and a change this year from handicap to weight-for-age conditions worked in the gelding's favour. "It made it an even playing field," Anderton said. "He's been giving these horses up to seven kilograms. The main thing though is keeping the White Robe a Group Three race, it's the only one south of Christchurch."

International

Surcharge lands Tony Ruffel Stakes

Surcharge (4 c Gimmethgreenlight - Congestion Charge by Diktat) maintained his unbeaten record yesterday when he landed the Tony Ruffel Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) at Turffontein. The colt came into the race off the back of victory in the Turffontein Secretariat Stakes (Listed, 1400m) at his last start and came with a late charge to beat Sir David Baird (Dynasty) by half a length with a length back to Wonderwall (Silvano) in third. Surcharge is one of 11 stakes winners for Varfonstein Stud-based sire Gimmethgreenlight.

Nine for Canford Cliffs

Canford Cliffs (Tagula) sired his ninth stakes winner when the Australian-bred Fish River (4 f ex Zabeba by Exceed And Excel) followed up her last start victory over 1400 metres with success in the Three Troikas Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) at Turffontein yesterday. The filly had no problems stepping up in class and pulled clear to beat San Fermin (Redoute's Choice) by two lengths with a further length back to Dame Kelly (Dynasty). Trained by Mike De Kock, she is a half-sister to three-time Australian winner Sugar Doll (Street Sense) and is from the family of VRC Sires' Produce (Gr 1, 1400m) winner Pride Of Rancho (Rancho Ruler).

Rare offering of a genuine Classic prospect sees auction record smashed

By the Racing Post's James Thomas

@anz_news

Lot 379 Willie John

TATTERSALLS

If you think hen's teeth are a rare thing, then you should try finding a colt in training with genuine Classic credentials at public auction.

However, that is precisely what was served up when Willie John (Dansili) came on the market during the second leg of the Tattersalls February Sale on Friday, and it was trainer Roger Varian who emerged victorious from the high-stakes showdown with an auction-record bid of 1,900,000 guineas.

It had been a relatively low-key day of trade until former William Haggas-trained Willie John tiptoed between the acorns, but the presence of the unbeaten son of Dansili (Danehill) saw bids begin to rain down from all sides of the Park Paddocks ring.

Oliver St Lawrence, Ed Dunlop and Hugo Lascelles got the ball rolling with a rapid-fire exchange, and by the time the likes of Anthony Stroud and Julian Dollar joined in the bids were coming so thick and fast that potential purchasers could barely get their hands in the air quick enough.

It eventually boiled down to a duel between Cheveley Park Stud's Chris Richardson and Roger Varian, who were situated in the two stairwells opposite Edmond Mahony's rostrum, and it was the Newmarket-based trainer that delivered the decisive nod of the head to signal a bid of 1,900,000 guineas on behalf of Sheikh Mohammed Obaid.

Catalogued as Lot 379, Willie John was a 325,000 guineas Book One yearling and was another February Sale lot to have been part-owned by disgraced South African billionaire Markus Jooste, who has been forced to close down his global racing empire amid a string of accountability fraud allegations.

The three-year-old made the track just once while under the care of Haggas, but created a big impression when overcoming clear signs of inexperience to land a Yarmouth novice stakes by clear water.

"He obviously won well on his only start and the owner already has an interest in the family," said Varian. "He bought the Dubawi colt out of the mare in the autumn and identified this colt as a horse he'd like and we're very lucky to have been able to do the steering for him. I'm looking forward to getting to know the horse a little better now."

During last year's renewal of Book One of the Tattersalls October Yearling Sale Varian went to 2,600,000 guineas to secure Willie John's half-brother by Dubawi (Dubai Millennium).

The pair were bred by Meon Valley Stud and are out of dual Group One winner Izzi Top (Pivotal), a daughter of Pivotal (Polar Falcon) whose two runners to date remain unbeaten, with her Oasis Dream (Green Desert) colt Dreamfield having landed two races for Godolphin.

"He's a promising horse and he's got a great pedigree," continued Varian. "Those autumn maidens at Yarmouth are often pretty strong."

The son of Dansili was offered with entries in the Derby (Gr 1, 1m4f) at Epsom and the Irish equivalent, but the Carlburg Stables-based handler was in no rush to identify a starting point for his new charge.

"I don't think we need to worry about where he's going to debut for us - I'm just looking forward to getting him in the yard," he said, before offering an update on Willie John's 2,600,000 guineas Dubawi half-brother, saying: "He's cantering and looks a jolly nice horse but it's still early days."

No Relenting

The day's second-top lot was Relent, a daughter of Dansili offered by Juddmonte who went the way of Cathy Grassick for 220,000 guineas. The unraced three-year-old was acquired on behalf of Yvonne Jacques of Carisbrooke Stud, the operation formerly known as Lady Whent's Raffin Stud.

Catalogued as Lot 375, Relent is a half-sister to Grade Two winner Projected (Showcasing) and is out of a half-sister to the globe-trotting Flintshire (Dansili), while Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe (Gr 1, 2400m) heroine Enable (Nathaniel) also appears further down the page.

"She has the pedigree and the looks," said Grassick, who was accompanied in the bidding area by her client. "Yvonne Jacques has set up Carisbrooke Stud, which is being managed by Joe Grimwade, and she's looking for top-class stock and this filly is a no-brainer with everything that's happening on the page."

The relationship between Grassick and Jacques, who has horses in training with William Haggas, Marco Botti, Jeremy Nosedo and Varian, has blossomed following the purchase of two yearling fillies, Appealing (Bertolini) and Grandeur (Verglas).

"Appealing, a €7,500 yearling, was second in the Yellow Ribbon, and the other was Grandeur who was a multiple Grade Two winner and Grade One-placed in America. That was the start of a beautiful relationship! When you start off with two fillies like that it's a dream come true," said Grassick.

"I think we'll have to look very seriously at Nathaniel," added Grassick on the subject of coverings for Relent. "Given the fact that she's a Dansili and Enable is there on the page."

Zenon master

This progressive staying handicapper Zenon is set to join the powerhouse stable of Willie Mullins after Harold Kirk went to 120,000 guineas to secure the son of Galileo (Sadler's Wells). The four-year-old boasts a peak Racing Post Rating of 101 having landed two handicaps in 2017 while under the care of John Gosden.

"He's a strong horse and a good stayer," said Kirk. "He came recommended, and we've been lucky with John Gosden in the past through the likes of Nichols Canyon and Thomas Hobson.

"This horse is already rated 96 on the Flat, so he's no slouch. We'll get him gelded and then he could go jumping before going down the staying route on the Flat."

Catalogued as Lot 394, Zenon is out of the King Charlemagne (Nureyev) mare Jacqueline, a leading filly in India at 6f to 1m4f.

Barberini's Treasure

After a lukewarm beginning it fell to another horse that had been part-owned by Jooste to get proceedings underway in earnest, as Federico Barberini went to 60,000 guineas for Giant's Treasure on behalf of Steve Parkin's Clipper Logistics. The colt was catalogued as Lot 302.

The four-year-old son of Shamardal (Giant's Causeway), a 525,000 guineas Book One graduate, made just the one start for Jooste and the China Horse Club, but went some way to justifying his lofty yearling price when running out an impressive winner of a Wolverhampton maiden last March for Richard Hannon - who was among the underbidders.

"What we've seen of him has been impressive," said Barberini. "He's been off a while but he could be a serious horse - it was nice to see that his trainer was brave enough to bid on him himself.

Lot 302 Giant's Treasure

"He has been bought for Clipper Logistics but there is no plan yet. I don't even know who will train him. He's very good looking - he was an expensive yearling - and he has a pedigree as well. It's very exciting to have got him."

In total seven horses that had been under the part ownership of Jooste were offered across the two days, with the septet registering a combined 3,738,000 guineas, 92 per cent of the aggregate sales.

The two days of selling saw 154 of 168 offered lots change hands for turnover of 4,044,500 guineas - up a thumping 64 per cent year-on-year, an average of 26,265 guineas - up a huge 93 per cent. However, the median dropped from 8,500 guineas to 7,500 guineas, while the clearance rate remained on par at a healthy 92 per cent.

In his end of sale address, Tattersalls' chairman Edmond Mahony said: "Last year's Tattersalls February Sale reached unprecedented levels for this fixture with turnover of more than double the record 2016 sale and an average price up 56 per cent, so to surpass those figures is another phenomenal achievement, especially with a smaller catalogue.

"The obvious highlight was the 1,900,000 guineas sale of the outstanding Classic prospect Willie John and it is a wonderful endorsement of the February Sale that, although one of our newer and smaller sales, it now holds the distinction of producing the highest priced colt in training ever sold at public auction in Europe.

Lot 394 Zenon

"The 500,000 guineas previous record price for the February Sale has been surpassed four times in the past two days, demonstrating beyond any doubt that the February Sale is a sale which consistently produces optimum prices for quality thoroughbreds, while at the same time serving as a perfect seasonal outlet for stock at all levels of the market.

"As ever, the international demand has been a feature of the sale and in addition to strong European participation, buyers from throughout the Gulf region, America, Hong Kong, Japan and South Africa have all made a significant contribution to a record breaking start to 2018 at Tattersalls."

Then followed: Global Glamour (AUS), Ace High (AUS) & Memes (AUS), last.

Analysis: The Golden Rose (Gr 1, 1400m) winner Trapeze Artist scored a smart first-up win. He was smartly away and then travelled well outside the leader (Memes). He moved up strongly to take the lead at the 300m and was not seriously threatened from that point to score quite impressively. Showtime raced in second last place (one off the rails) in the six-horse field, before commencing a move from the 300m. He then kept running on in good style to take second in a most promising first-up effort. The favourite Addictive Nature raced in fourth place on the rails, got to third on straightening and kept battling on quite well to take third. Global Glamour raced in third place one off the rails, put in a brief bid at the 300m and then battled on to take (1.9 lengths) fourth. The Victoria Derby (Gr 1, 2500m) Ace High raced in last place in the small field and caught the eye in running on well over the latter stages for (2.3 lengths) fifth.

Then followed: Logan River (AUS), Sunset Watch (AUS), Of Importance (AUS) & No Time Like Now (AUS), last.

Analysis: Having only her second race start, the Lindsay Park-trained/Coolmore-raced filly Ennis Hill scored impressively. She showed really good early pace to take the lead and then travelled well and a good tempo. She took a clear break on straightening and was not seriously threatened from that point to score a very good win. Godolphin-raced colt Encryption raced fourth place, one out and one back, moved up well on passing the 300m, going to second at the 200m and then fought on very well for a good second in a quickly run race. Mick Price-trained colt Prairie Fire was ridden patiently and settled at the tail of the seven-horse field. He got along the inner at the home turn, went wide from the 300m and ran on in good style for third in a promising debut. Logan River was third on the rails to the home turn and held on nicely for (4 lengths) fourth after seeming to have had every chance.

Betting: $1.70, $9.00, $3.30.

Then followed: Dio D'oro (AUS) & Catanzaro (AUS), last.

Analysis: Talented Chris Waller-trained colt Performer resumed after his impressive win on debut in the Breeders' Plate (Listed, 1000m) at Randwick in September to score nicely here, albeit by the narrowest of margins. He settled in third place, one off the rails (with cover), behind a steady pace before moving up well to challenge at the 200m. He looked set to win quite comfortably nearing the 100m but just scored in a photo when the leader made a late rally in the sprint home (last 600m 33.60). Peter and Paul Snowed-trained colt Stratosphere impressed here on debut. After a quick beginning he led and then steadied the pace. He was hotly challenged at the 200m but lifted gamely in the closing stages for the closest of seconds. The Gary Portelli-trained colt Exceltic raced in fourth place on the rails, angled into clear running at the 200m and then fought on well in the sprint home for a promising third on debut.

YARRAMAN PARK

Analysis: After promising placings at her first two starts, the Chris Waller-trained filly Fiesta resumed and (racing in blinkers for the first time) scored a smart win here. She raced in seventh place (between runners), got to fifth at the home turn but was blocked until gaining a split at the 200m. She then sprinted quickly, hit the front at the 150m before going on to win well. Gerald Ryan-trained/Arrowfield Stud-raced filly Adamina ran a bold race on debut. After a smart beginning she went to the front and then fought back particularly well when challenged in the straight to finish (neck) second in a most promising effort. Jason Coyle-trained filly River Bird raced in eighth place on the rails, got along the inner from the 300m and kept battling on nicely to take the minor placing.

Then followed: Wisdom Patch (AUS), Gallagher (NZ), Spirits Aubeer (AUS) & Flaunt It Girl (AUS), last.

Analysis: Rewarded after three stakes placings (including twice second to the unbeaten Melt) in his only starts, Bit Lippy proved too strong with a nice win here. He was third early then fourth in the small field of seven before moving up three wide at the 600m. Rider Cameron Lammas kept up the pressure approaching the last corner to challenge three wide turning in. He co-led once into the straight but took over at the 250m, broke clear and then Lammas allowed him to coast to the line by three quarters of a length. Platinum Mam'selle was equal last (inner) passing the 600m, got off the fence before the straight, got into the clear and tried hard to catch the winner without success. Handsome Rebel was last and widest into the straight and was doing his best work late to rush into third from Wisdom Patch who had every chance but faded late for fourth.

Analysis: Twice stakes placed last year Beefeater broke through for his maiden stakes win and his sixth career win in 23 starts with a gutsy effort here. He settled midfield, one off the fence around the far turn as well as down the back. Jockey Rosie Myers set him alight at the 600m and they accelerated very quickly (five wide) to claim the lead into the straight. Under a hard ride Beefeater clung to the lead and gamely held on until the post arrived, surviving by a neck. Scapolo was last at the 600m, improved steadily yet widest turning in and kept up a strong run, looking to collar the winner but the latter fought back. A top run from Travimyfriend who was among the last few into the straight and finished well through the middle to grab a good third just short of the line from Brighton who tried hard down the straight only to lose third late.

Then followed: I Did It Again (AUS), Veranillo (AUS), Crystal Spirit (AUS), Sheer Madness (AUS), Bravo Tango (AUS), Poseidon's Pool (AUS) & No Dreams All Hope (AUS), last.

Analysis: Cliff's Edge, winner of the Norman Robinson Stakes (Gr 3, 2000m) at this track in October, who was having his first run since sixth in the Mackinnon Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) at Flemington on 11 November, was an impressive first-up winner. He travelled nicely in fifth place on the rails before getting along the inner from the 200m. He got to the front on passing the 100m and then fought back to win well. He looks set for a very good preparation. Overshare raced third place (without cover), improved nicely (three wide) rounding the home turn, challenged strongly at the 200m and then fought on really well for a good second in a smart second-up effort. Muraaqeb raced back in sixth place, one off the rails, moved up (under riding) at the 300m, challenged at the 200m and battled strongly for a close-up third. I Did It Again raced outside the leader (No Dreams All Hope), briefly got to the front at the 200m and then held on well for fourth, beaten less than a length.

(NZ), Flying Sardine (NZ), Fascinate (NZ), Batman (NZ), Spider (NZ), Dontpokethetiger (AUS) & Hayley Maree (NZ), last.

Analysis: Grand campaigner, the oldest runner in the field and second in this race the last two years, Tommy Tucker took his earnings beyond $400,000 in scoring win 16 with a decisive win here. He settled back and wide early but started to pick them up past the 1200m. Still wide, rider Shankar Muniandy kept improving and as they reached the last corner they were camped wide but ready to challenge. Muniandy allowed the old timer to balance then drove up alongside the leaders and inside the 150m came way to win impressively. Gallant Boy was wide but handy before they straightened, took over at the 250m but could not hold out the winner providing the quinella for the Anderton stable. Princess Brook was unlucky, blocked for a run into the straight and had to switch back to the inner then ran home well to secure third from Kolonel Kev who co led turning in and battled best of the rest to hold fourth.

Analysis: Excelleration made it three wins on end and back-to-back stakes with another convincing win here. Under Samantha Collett, Excelleration began well but drifted soon after to settle fourth last (wide) past the 1000m. Collett let out the reins at the 800m and they improved (still wide) to be handier, continuing to gather in the leaders and challenged for the lead (widest) into the straight. She balanced, Collett gave her a shake and she strode to the lead and had the race in safe keeping at the 200m to score win four from eight starts by a length and three quarters. Global Thinking had one behind her at the 600m, tracked the winner into the straight, was squeezed but then got clear to run on quite well without looking like catching Excelleration. Czechoslovakia shot to the front turning for home but was overtaken easily and battled on for third from Kiwi Ida who passed a few to plug into fourth.

Then followed: Red Ora (AUS), Properantes (AUS), Caipirinha (AUS), Volkoff (AUS), North Ridge (AUS) & Dream Lifter (AUS), last.

Analysis: Darren McAuliffe-trained sprinter Rebel King scored a good first-up win, his tenth win and second at stakes level in 36 starts. He had a good trip in fourth place, one out and one back, moved up well on turning for home, got to the front on passing the 100m and then went on to win well. Battle Hero was smartly away and went to the front. He then set quite a good pace, got a break at the 200m but could not hold off the winner, whom he conceded 2.5 kg, to take second. Dainty Tess settled back in second last place in the nine horse field. She was under riding nearing the home turn and made late ground along the inner to take third, staging a sound effort.

Analysis: In a surprise result the $51 chance Lady Esprit scored her first win here since taking out a Benchmark 84 (1000m) at Moonee Valley on 21 January last year. She settled in last place in the seven-horse field, behind a quick pace before going wide rounding the home turn. She then ran on strongly in the centre of the track to score a late-closing win in good style. The favourite Snitty Kitty showed her customary pace to lead but was pressured in the mid-stages (by Sunday Escape) before getting to a clear advantage at the 200m, but could not then hold off the late finishing winner to take a very good first-up second. Nasdex raced in third place, on the rails, and kept battling on nicely on the inner in the straight to hold the minor placing. Crystal Dreamer raced in fourth place, one out and one back, moved up at 200m and then kept fighting on in his usual honest manner under his top weight (60kg) for fourth, beaten just over a length and a half.

Analysis: Twice placed in her first three starts, maiden Treasure stormed into the lead half way down the straight and ran away for a easy win here. She was well back (rails) around the far turn and down the back straight but jockey Michael McNab saw space at the 700m, pulled her wide and accelerated quickly to range up widest near the last corner. She greenly pounced on the leaders, co led then took over inside the 200m and raced clear for an easy win. Caricature moved up in behind the lead near the last corner, challenged once into the straight and tried to match the winner but could not keep up for an honest second. Luxe ran on from midfield to nab third late from Miss Foxy Gal who battled away next to fence to lunge into fourth.

Analysis: Having just her ninth start Pendleton raced clear in the straight for an easy win here, her fourth success to date. She was back from the start with three behind her around the far turn and down the back straight. With not much pace on jockey Samantha Collett waited until the 800m to go forward where the field compacted which saw them four wide near the last corner. Travelling smoothly they swooped on the leaders to co lead at the top of the straight then broke away by two lengths and the chasers had no chance after that. Aspen Lass threaded between runners turning in and was the only runner to go after the winner, running on without threat for a clear second. Who Dares Wins found room upon straightening and ran on best of the rest but another five lengths away for third from Son Of Zac who made a late dab for fourth.

BooM, BooM! Spirit of Boom - First 2yo2 - Winner!!! eureka stud .com .au  EUREKA STUD

Analysis: The Tony McEvoy-trained filly Kinky Boom was most impressive in winning here on debut. She was ridden quietly by Craig Williams from her outside barrier (7) and settled in last place in the seven-horse field before improving nicely on the inner rounding the home turn, going to fourth at the 300m. She switched out and took the lead soon afterwards and then went on to score very easily. She looks a really talented filly. Robbie Griffiths-trained colt Grand Symphony raced outside the leader (Aristocratic Miss), challenged at the 200m and kept fighting on well for second, having no chance with the winner.

Aristocratic Miss, a stablemate of the winner, led the field until halfway down the straight before holding on well to take the minor placing.

1.00 Butterfly Handicap (Class 5) (3yo+) (Course C) (Turf) Winner £35,591.30

£62,440.87 guaranteed For 3yo+ Richcity Fortune's Handicap Mark 40 Penalty value 1st £35,591.30 2nd £13,736.99 3rd £7,180.70 4th £3,746.45 5th £2,185.43

Table of race results for Butterfly Handicap (Class 5) (3yo+) (Course C) (Turf). Includes horse names, jockeys, and odds.

BETTING FORECAST: 5-2 Treasure And Gold, 6 Cheers Conqueror, Ruminare, 8 Glory Horsie, Laughing Lord, 10 Bliss Cartel, Carry To Win, 12 Richcity Fortune, 16 Five Stars Agent, Regency Honey, 20 Catchmeifyoucan, 40 Don Wongchoy.

VERDICT Treasure And Gold is drawn on the inside and needs to be taken very seriously after finishing second from a wide berth at Happy Valley in December, but slight preference is for RUMINARE.

1.30 Fu Tai Handicap (Class 4) (3yo+) (Course C) (Turf) Winner £47,455.06

£83,254.49 guaranteed For 3yo+ Arizona Blizzard's Handicap Mark 60 Penalty value 1st £47,455.06 2nd £18,315.99 3rd £9,574.27 4th £4,995.27 5th £2,913.91

Table of race results for Fu Tai Handicap (Class 4) (3yo+) (Course C) (Turf). Includes horse names, jockeys, and odds.

BETTING FORECAST: 1-30 Arizona Blizzard, 2-22 Speedy King, 3-39 Have Fun Together, 4-34 Lucky Storm, 5-11 Management Star, 6-13 Pearl Champion.

Table of race results for 2.00 The Centenary Vase (Group 3 Handicap) (3yo+) (Course C) (Turf) Winner £161,778.62

BETTING FORECAST: 3 Have Fun Together, 9-2 Speedy King, 5 Arizona Blizzard, 7 Lucky Storm, Regency Darling, 8 Fresh Power, 10 Beaut Beau, 14 Pearl Champion, 25 Super Euro Star, 33 bar.

VERDICT Have Fun Together ran very well when runner-up over C&D on just his second career start but he's not so well drawn today and perhaps the answer might be REGENCY DARLING, who has been shaping as though his turn is near and has been dropped another 2lb since finishing fifth from a tough draw over C&D in December.

2.00 The Centenary Vase (Group 3 Handicap) (3yo+) (Course C) (Turf) Winner £161,778.62

Table of race results for The Centenary Vase (Group 3 Handicap) (3yo+) (Course C) (Turf). Includes horse names, jockeys, and odds.

BETTING FORECAST: 13-8 Eagle Way, 11-4 Gold Mount, 4 Dinozzo, 10 Horse Of Fortune, Secret Weapon, 14 Rivet, 20 Ruthven.

VERDICT Eagle Way won a Group 3 handicap with a bit to spare at Happy Valley last month and is not opposed lightly but the vote goes to GOLD MOUNT, a former Royal Ascot winner who made good progress in Hong Kong last year and was a very creditable fifth in the Hong Kong Vase here in December, despite meeting some traffic.

2.30 Lung Yat Handicap (Class 4) (3yo+) (Course C) (Turf) Winner £47,455.06

£83,254.49 guaranteed For 3yo+ Super Missile's Handicap Mark 60 Penalty value 1st £47,455.06 2nd £18,315.99 3rd £9,574.27 4th £4,995.27 5th £2,913.91

Table of race results for Lung Yat Handicap (Class 4) (3yo+) (Course C) (Turf). Includes horse names, jockeys, and odds.

BETTING FORECAST: 100-30 Tai Smart, 7-2 Bring It On, 6 Rule Three, Super Chic, 8 Acclaimed Light, Lotus Strikes Back, McQueen, 16 Grand Chancellor, 25 Jolly Gene, 33 Ten Flames.

Table of race results for 3.00 On Ting Handicap (Class 3) (3yo+) (Course C) (Turf) Winner £70,643.33

BETTING FORECAST: 6-4 Super Missile, 6 Triumphant Light, 7 Care Free Prince, Travel Emperor, 14 Ambitious Pins, Grade One, I'm A Witness, 20 Flying Noble, 25 City Legend, Deja Vu, Presidentparamout, 33 Jin Jin King, Speedy Wally.

VERDICT It's hard to get away from SUPER MISSILE, who almost certainly had more in hand than the narrow margin might suggest when winning over 6f here on New Year's Day and, after only two starts, has plenty of scope to make further progress.

3.00 On Ting Handicap (Class 3) (3yo+) (Course C) (Turf) Winner £70,643.33

Table of race results for On Ting Handicap (Class 3) (3yo+) (Course C) (Turf). Includes horse names, jockeys, and odds.

BETTING FORECAST: 100-30 Tai Smart, 7-2 Bring It On, 6 Rule Three, Super Chic, 8 Acclaimed Light, Lotus Strikes Back, McQueen, 16 Grand Chancellor, 25 Jolly Gene, 33 Ten Flames.

VERDICT Bring It On has the services of Joao Moreira as he bids to add to his C&D success five weeks ago but he's only held on by a head from TAI SMART, who is 3lb better off at the weights today and selected to gain his revenge.

3.35 The Yan Oi Tong Cup (Handicap) (Class 4) (3yo+) (Course C) (Turf) Winner £47,455.06

£83,254.49 guaranteed For 3yo+ Noble Steed's Handicap Mark 60 Penalty value 1st £47,455.06 2nd £18,315.99 3rd £9,574.27 4th £4,995.27 5th £2,913.91

Table of race results for The Yan Oi Tong Cup (Handicap) (Class 4) (3yo+) (Course C) (Turf). Includes horse names, jockeys, and odds.

BETTING FORECAST: 31-4 Noble Steed, 2-28 Relentless Me, 1-1 Noble Steed, 2-28 Relentless Me, 1-1 Noble Steed, 2-28 Relentless Me.

VERDICT Plenty to like about the debut performance of NAMJONG PLUS in December when he came from last to weave his way through the field in the home straight to win going away. Sure to have come on from that initial outing, he is keen to follow up that success despite the 5lb rise from the handicapper. Noble Steed has done little wrong in three starts and he should have a role to play in this following his solid effort under this new mark last month and Royal Elegance looks to be coming back to form judged on his latest start and he should be competitive.

VERDICT Kingsfield is in good heart and he is looking to build on his latest success where he came fast and late to deny New Asia Sunrise over C&D last month. The runner-up renews rivalry on 4lb better terms and there should be little between them but the vote goes to PING HAI STAR who looks to be on an upward curve and now takes his chance in Class 2 after a comfortable success over C&D last month.

VERDICT Not many of these come into this in any sort of form but Star Shine made a pleasing debut over 6f last month and might build on that now stepping up to 7f, while, after only two starts, Turin Redstar is another with some potential. However, preference is for INFINITY ENDEAVOUR who is already twice a winner this season, had excused when a beaten favourite on his latest outing and ought to be suited by today's step up in trip.

VERDICT This race is all about IVICTORY, who was in sparkling form when last seen last July and remains unexposed after only four starts. If fully tuned up for this reappearance, he could take a lot of chances. My Beginner's Luck left his debut effort well behind when chasing home Hair Trigger over 5f and should be competitive now stepping up in trip. Better Change looks capable of holding his own in this grade following his three Class 4 runs.

VERDICT Plenty of respect for Star Majestic who despite having to give weight to all should be in the thick of things following his recent success over C&D last month, but a chance is taken with HAPPY AGILITY who won over C&D in November. He's now back in the right grade and with Matthew Poons' valuable claim he's now well below his last winning mark. Regency Bo Bo looks to be returning to the form that saw him score over C&D in October but he has a poor draw to overcome.
